FINANCIAL

STRENGTH

In a bank lies, first, in the ability and experience of its officers, "The men behind the gun;" second, its board of directors who advise with and direct the officers; and third, the Capital.

LIBERALITY—In a bank is its willingness to furnish funds to depositors to assist them in carrying on their legitimate business. Our motto is:

"STRONG AND LIBERAL"—Look us up and if you find us deserving, give us your business.

The Verdict of the Ladies

(And who could be better jurors in such matters?) is unanimous when it comes to a trial of bread, pies, cakes and all forms of pastry, in our favor. To quote another: "There's a reason," to wit: Fine flour blended, honest mixing, conscientious kneading, just the right ingredients, the proper oven, and a watchful eye keenly alert to general results. We'd like to bake for you. A little order will prove whether we should or not. We want that sample order.

CLEANING AND PRESSING

CHIMNEY SWEEP

GOES TO NORTH BEND.

Having completed a campaign of cleaning chimneys, I am going to North Bend for a week's stay to clean chimneys there. A dirty, sooty chimney may cause a fire at any time and is always a source of danger as well as annoyance. Now is the time to have your chimneys cleaned.

Leave orders at the North Bend News Co., and they will receive prompt attention.

Half Timber English Design.

A Compact, Well Constructed, Handsome House. Cost $3,000.

Copyright, 1907, by Glenn L. Saxton, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

This half timber English house design is especially adapted to use in suburban towns. The cost is estimated at $3,000, exclusive of heating and plumbing. For $1,000 additional the first story may be constructed of native or bowlder stone. The panels between timbers on the second story are finished in rough cement stucco, the ceilings are low, and the inside woodwork is yellow pine, finished in the natural wood. The house is compact, well constructed and economical to build, considering its size and its attractive features. GLENN L. SAXTON.

Duty of Christian Nations To Semicivilized Peoples.

By JAMES BRYCE, British Ambassador.

THE work of bearing the white man's burden has too often taken the form of FILLING THE WHITE MAN'S POCKET. Is it any wonder that the behavior of men who are nominally Christians, Christians in profession if not practice, has checked the spread of Christianity? The missionary comes preaching a gospel of justice and love and peace. But when the natives see how men behave who profess the religion which the missionary preaches the preachings lose their value. An African chief is said to have described the process of the contact of civilized men with his people in these words, "First missionary, then trader, then army." It is not too much to say that the lives of men nominally Christians have been the greatest of all hindrances to the spread of the gospel.

What, then, is our duty as citizens of Christian nations who desire to see the light of the gospel illumine the world?

THE FORCE OF PUBLIC OPINION OUGHT TO SUPPORT GOVERNMENTS IN KEEPING A STRICT WATCH UPON ALL THOSE WHO TRY TO EXPLOIT THE NATIVE, EITHER BY GETTING HOLD OF HIS LAND OR BY TRADING WITH HIM. IT OUGHT TO INSIST ON THE ABSOLUTE PROHIBITION OF THE SALE OF DRINK TO NATIVES.

It ought to secure full justice for the native when he brings complaints against those who TRY TO INJURE HIM BY FORCE OR FRAUD. It ought to punish severely those who abuse the power of a superior race and, above all, those who DEMORALIZE IT BY THE SALE OF LIQUOR or who, as sometimes happens, BEHAVE ILL TO NATIVE WOMEN. It ought to be our aim to compel those who go forth from among us into non-Christian races to set a better example of conduct worthy of civilized men than many have done. The time in which we live is A CRITICAL TIME, not only critical for ourselves, but critical for the relations of the advanced to the semicivilized peoples.

Industrial Education For the Negroes.

By JAMES BRYCE, British Ambassador.

MUCH of the agricultural work and much of the other work of the south has to be done by the negroes. For your welfare as well as theirs, for the peace of the country as well as its prosperity, it is essential that THE NEGRO SHOULD RECEIVE PROPER INSTRUCTION.

The view that this instruction should have an industrial rather than a literary direction seems to be a sound view. But it does not exclude the supplying of further instructions FOR THOSE WHO HAVE SUPERIOR TALENT, and it must include an adequate provision for those who are to be the helpers and guides of the negro masses.

When I see what has been done for negro education and what negroes have done for themselves in acquiring property and building up homes in the last forty years THERE IS NO GROUND FOR DISCOURAGEMENT.
