NORTH BEND NEWS

Frank Dillon of the General hospital in Marshfield, was a North Bend visitor yesterday.

Frank Druga, who was operated on for converting his stomach into a junk shop, is getting along nicely at the Mercy hospital.

Chas. Kern, who has been in Portland and around the Willamette valley, says times are very dull there and that Coos Bay is much better.

Will Durrand of Flagstaff, is now at Pendleton, Oregon. Mr. Durrand says it is very hot there and wants one of the Coos Bay breezes sent up.

Mrs. E. R. Hodson and daughter of South Coos River, came down yesterday and will be the guests of Mrs.
Hodson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt.
M. Cann, for a few days.

W. S. Wood, who recently left North Bend, is now in Seattle. Mr.
Wood likes his new location and reports that business conditions are rapidly improving.

Mrs. J. D. Horn of North Bend, who underwent a very critical operation one month ago at the Mercy hospital, is not improving as well as her many friends would wish.

E. R. Hodson of South Coos River, was at the North Bend mill yesterday getting lumber for a new building in which he will install a milking machine run by water power.

WEATHER FORECAST.
(By Associated Press.)
WESTERN OREGON.
♦ Fair in south and showers in ♦ north portion tonight; Friday, ♦ cooler except near coast; west♦ erly winds.

City Of Panama Due.—The City of Panama which has been placed on the Portland-Coos Bay run, is due here this afternoon or evening from Portland on her initial trip up Coos Bay. She will sail from here at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon for Portland.

Mrs. Lando Entertains.—Mrs. L.
Lando entertained a number of ladies at her home yesterday in honor of Mrs. F. Hofer of Salem, a former Coos Bay resident who is spending a few days with old friends and acquaintances here. Yesterday's function was largely attended and proved a very enjoyable one, being sort of a reunion of former neighbors.

Theatrical Company Returns.— The Margaret Hies Company which scored quite a hit in Marshfield a few weeks ago returned today for a return engagement of three nights.
They will open at the Masonic Opera House tonight with "The Fatal Wedding" and present different plays tomorrow evening and the night following. They played very successful engagements at Coquille and Ban-don. It is likely that they will play to large houses here owing to the hit they scored with local theatregoers the last time they were here.

Put In Pipes and Sewers.—The city officials are requiring the business houses along Front street which is being paved with asphalt, to put in their water, gas and sewer connections now so that it will not be necessary to be constantly tearing up the street to do this work. Similar requirements will be made wherever permanent paving is put in.

Enterprise Sails Today.—The Enterprise Father Donnelly Goes East. — The Rev. Father E. Donnelly who has been attending the anniversary ceremonies of the Archbishop in Portland, has written that he had to leave on an extended eastern trip.
He will visit New York and other eastern cities and will be absent about one month. The Rev. Father Curley will continue in charge here until the Rev. Father Donnelly returns. While it is not definitely known, it is believed that the Rev.
Father Donnelly was sent east by the archbishop on a special commission.

NEWS OF COQUILLE.
Happenings at Coos County Seat Taken From The Herald.
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gatchell who are preparing for a long trip by wagon and team for a change for the benefit of Mrs. Gatchell's health, were in town Friday to bid good bye to a number of friends in this city. They will drive through eastern Oregon where they will visit with Mrs. Gatchell's brother, E. E. Sherwood, formerly of Myrtle Point, and they expect to take a trip into Idaho.

Henry Holverson of this city, a donkey engineer at Aasen's camp had the misfortune to lose a couple of toes while working about his engine Monday morning. He set his foot on the engine frame, his toes projecting over into the flywheel pit when the throttle was accidentally opened by the fireman, and the wheel turning, a spoke struck his foot, taking off the great toe and the one next to it. He will be on crutches for a while.
