NEWS TO MARVEL.

Gray's Campaign Manager Says He Must Run.

(By Associated Press.)

DENVER, Colo., July 1.—When shown a copy of Judge Gray's telegram from Wilmington in which he declared that he is not a candidate for the presidency, Mr. Marvel, the Gray campaign manager, said there was nothing new in the telegram, that Gray had refused to run and that friends had taken the matter in their own hands and declared, "It is our affair and not his."

LARGE SUMS TO GET DREDGE

C. A. Smith Company Subscribes $7,500 Towards Fund—Prospects Now Bright.

Prospects for raising the required funds to secure the government dredge for Coos Bay are considerably brighter today owing to a few large subscriptions being secured. Unless something unexpected develops, it is hoped to have the required amount secured by Saturday night.

Today, the C. A. Smith Lumber and Manufacturing Company sent a check for $7,500 to Walter Lyon, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, as their portion of the expense. It is barely possible that this contribution may be increased if it is found after the dredger starts work that more funds will be required than originally estimated.

L. J. Simpson of North Bend, head of the Simpson Lumber Company, is in San Francisco, but before leaving announced that he would contribute his share. He said that he would give at least $2,500 and that he would give as much more as anyone else. While this might mean $7,500, the same as given by the C. A. Smith Company, it is generally believed that Mr. Simpson's contribution will be about $5,000.

C. J. Mills, the local representative of the Southern Pacific interests, is now conferring by wire with his company and it is expected that they will contribute liberally to the fund owing to their extensive holdings here.

The Oregon Coal and Steamship Company of San Francisco, owners of the steamship M. F. Plant, the Libby coal mine and several thousand acres of land, have not signified how much they will contribute.

Smaller property owners have signified their willingness to contribute $5,000 or thereabouts to the project.

ENTERTAINMENT AT ODD FELLOWS HALL

Between 300 and 400 People Enjoy Hospitality of W. O. W. and W. of W.

The public installation of officers and entertainment given jointly by the Woodmen of the World and the Women of Woodcraft at the Odd Fellows Hall, last evening, was attended by between 300 and 400 people and proved one of the most delightful gatherings of the kind that has ever been given on Coos Bay.

An entertaining program was given, the various numbers being roundly applauded by those present. Among the features of the program were talks by W. U. Douglas and D. J. Beakey, a comedy sketch by Vince Pratt, a solo by N. M. Whiting, a song by D. J. Beakey and several choruses by the entire audience. The installation of officers of Coos Bay Circle of the Women of Woodcraft was conducted by Mrs. A. B. Daly and of the officers of the Woodmen of the World by Special Organizer D. J. Beakey.

Dancing followed these numbers, music being furnished by the Coos Bay Orchestra.

NO REVOLUTION AT ALL.

(By Associated Press.)

DALLAS, Tex., July 2.—The revolution in Mexico is not a revolution at all and the reports of uprisings are greatly exaggerated according to the statement of J. C. Orwin, a prominent mining man of Guanajuato, Mexico, who is now in Dallas. He declares that the revolution is nothing more than a sortie by organized bands of robbers desperadoes who are covering up their crookedness under the guise of politics of pretending to be in a patriotic movement.
