AN ENVOY TO AUSTRALIA

A. McClelland Will Investigate Possible Trade Relations With That Continent.

A. McClelland, president of the McClelland Investment Company of this city but a resident of Pueblo, Colo., will address the citizens of Marshfield at the Chamber of Commerce meeting Friday night. Mr. McClelland is on his way to Australia and after making observations in that country will be asked to give the people of Coos Bay the benefit of the knowledge gained, upon his return. Australia promises to be a future foreign field of commerce for this port and his trip is looked upon as a kind of official function in behalf of more extensive trade relations between the two countries. Coos Bay shipped 10,000 boxes of her fine Gravenstein apples to Australia last fall and there doubtless will be demand for more from the same quarters the coming season.

E. D. Cridge of Portland, an enthusiast for a railroad into central Oregon and southern Idaho, will also speak on the importance of the South and Central Oregon Development Congress.

DISCRIMINATION IN BUILDING MATERIAL

Local Dealers Claim That the Specifications for the New High School Are Unfair.

Local building material dealers are complaining that the specifications for the new High School building are drawn so that nothing but brands of each kind of material that are controlled in Portland can be used, in fact San Francisco which today is the cheapest market for this class of goods on the coast is completely cut out in favor of high priced brands from the north.

Usually specifications call for a brand or one as good but these do not. In the one item of cement the local dealers of this place and North Bend claim that they can save the district $1.50 per barrel and guarantee the test to be equal to the highest.

On plaster also the plans call for one brand made only in Portland. The matter has been referred to the board, and it is hoped that it is not too late to correct this.

The local men claim that material that is being used exclusively on the new Palace Hotel building, the new Federal building at San Francisco, and on 80 per cent of all the large buildings in 'Frisco ought to be taken into consideration here especially as the saving is so great and the local people are here on the ground and help support the district.

EUREKA MAY LEAVE RUN

No Confidence Placed In Report That Owners Will Transfer Steamship.

According to rumors afloat, Chas. P. Doe and Company of San Francisco, are figuring on transferring the steamship Eureka from the Eureka-Coos Bay-Portland run. Local transportation men do not place much confidence in the report.

The Eureka arrived in this morning from Eureka and will sail at 8 o'clock tomorrow forenoon from North Bend for Portland. Captain Noren is off the run for a while to receive medical treatment for his eye which has been troubling him for some time. Captain Black has charge of the Eureka meanwhile. This was Captain Black's first trip up the Bay and he made it without a pilot, something that few captains have ever attempted. Captain Black made the trip with the sole guidance of a chart and did not run aground.

Nome City Sails.
The Nome City sailed late yesterday afternoon for Portland with a fair sized passenger list and freight cargo. Captain Olson of the Alliance, is acting as pilot. It is believed that the Alliance will be able to come out on the run next Saturday evening. The outgoing passenger list was as follows:

Miss Alice Stone, J. A. Roberts and wife, L. Alexander, R. Paskel, Emmet Pierce, A. B. Daly, R. Gothro, M. H. Carter, Mrs. L. M. Lane, A. E. Percy, G. R. Gulovson, wife and daughter, C. M. Schoonover, Mrs. W. F. Holl, James Holl, Wm. Nippe, Billy Taylor, H. H. Holcomb and wife and son, Mrs. Holland, C. E. Short, D. S. Ames, G. Q. Weldon and W. Ashley.

F. S. Dow informs The Times' reporter that on the arrival of the steamer Plant, the public will be able to buy apricots through their local dealers at a price never before touched in Marshfield. The crop in California is unusually large and Mr. Dow received advices today that the Plant would bring a straight carload of Royal Cots direct from a ranch in Sonoma county. In order to move this large shipment the price to the housewife will be lowered fully 75 per cent.

voted for the passage of the franchise.

After the vote, Messrs. Durett and Douglas thanked the council and started to leave the room. Mayor Straw objected to their hurried departure, declaring that it was customary for the recipients of franchises or favors at the hands of the council to take the members out after the meeting and entertain them to a little banquet or otherwise. Messrs. Durett and Douglas consented to this and took the city officials in tow after the meeting.

MRS. YOAKAM, the Coos county dairy inspector, was down from her Coos River ranch today.
