BORN.
GETTINS—To Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Gettins at their home in Marshfield, Oregon, Wednesday, July 8, a son. Mrs. Gettins is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. C. A. Sheldre.

Buy Barber Shop.—T. J. Lynch has purchased the interest of his partner L. E. Edwards in their Front street barber shop and is now sole proprietor. T. J. is as expert on "Chin Music" as the Orchestra.

New Phone Line.—Manager L. R. Robertson of the Pacific States Telephone Company, announced today that the phone line of South Bay, two miles below Sunset Bay, from North Bend, will be completed and ready for operation by next Tuesday.

Work For Dredge.—Secretary Walter Lyon reports that fairly good progress is being made on the canvass for funds to secure the government dredge for Coos Bay. He believes that the chances are still good if local people or companies will quickly provide the necessary funds. It will be decided within a few days.

New Myrtle Point Agent.—A. A. Carper, who has acted as ticket agent at the Southern Pacific depot for the past few months, has been transferred to Myrtle Point where he has been appointed agent for the Wells, Fargo Express Company as well as ticket agent for the Marshfield, Myrtle Point railroad. He left Sunday morning accompanied by his wife.

Lewis Takes Office.—T. J. Lewis, the newly elected coroner of Coos county, yesterday assumed the duties of his office, Dr. E. Mingus, the retiring official turning over all of the office supplies to him. Mr. Lewis is one of the best known men in Marshfield and his many friends are certain that the duties of the office will be just as capably administered by him as by the official whom he succeeds.

Dr. Golden Coming.—Dr. R. E. Golden of North Yakima, Wash., a son of Prof. F. A. Golden of Marshfield, has written that he will leave North Yakima about July 15th to come to Coos Bay to locate for the practice of his profession. He will be associated with Dr. J. T. McCormac here. Dr. Golden is well-known on Coos Bay although he never practiced here. He has been very successful at North Yakima but is desirous of locating on Coos Bay.

Former Teacher Weds.—Announcements have just been received here of the marriage of A. J. Friday and Miss Ellen N. Beamis at Eugene, Oregon, June 27. Miss Beamis will be remembered as a former teacher in the eighth grade of the Marshfield schools, a position she held for several years prior to her departure from Coos Bay about four years ago. Her home has been at Forest Grove, Oregon, where she had a ranch. Her husband is a rancher, living three miles from Banks and about fourteen miles from Forest Grove.

Gospel Meetings.—Gospel services will begin Friday night, July 10, at 7:45 in the large tent located between South Marshfield bridge and the cemetery. Subjects of vast importance and intense interest will be presented. Fifteen-minute song service before each meeting. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings. Pastors, F. S. Bunch and C. L. Butterfield.

Surprised by Friends.—Wm. Cox (Billy in railroad circles) has returned from Myrtle Creek, Southern Oregon, where he had been called by the serious illness of his aged father who, however, he left with returning health. Billy took passage to his home here from Roseburg over the Old Coos Bay wagon road, uncomplaining and peacefully as to accommodations, but much enjoying the scenic mountainous panorama, with Mt. Hood in the far distance. Descending into Brewster Valley with his soul filled with the recent grandeur of the hills, he was disturbed in the Calabraga Valley by a lot of highwaymen, whose names he has handed over to the authorities, viz. George Ferrey, Ed Lawrence and Mike and James Boone. "Billy" brought home as a peace offering 125 speckled high latitude beauties. (No affidavit.)
