weather permits, a big crowd is expected. North Bend is said to have made a number of changes in the lineup of its team and will present a stronger front than it has any time this season.

Many Go Deer Hunting.—A large number of Marshfield people are planning to depart for the wilds early next week to get in on the first deer and elk shooting of the season which opens July 15. Various ones have different ideas about the best place to get game and consequently will go in all directions to the unsettled woods.

Mrs. Gage Improved.—Sheriff Gage who visited Mrs. Gage at the Portland sanitarium reports that she is improving rapidly a fact that will be pleasing news to her many Coos Bay friends. She will remain there for a short time and after that visit friends in Junction City and Dillard, returning to her home in Coquille in about six weeks.

Alliance Sails Today.—Agent H. W. Skinner had a message from Portland today announcing that the Alliance would come out on her regular schedule from Portland this evening for Coos Bay, reaching here early Monday morning. The Nome City will return to her regular run between Portland and San Pedro. On the return trip, the Alliance will sail from here for Portland, Tuesday at 1 p. m. On her trip down, the Alliance will bring two more large engines for the Coos Bay Gas and Electric Company.

C. Masters Injured.—The many Marshfield friends of C. Masters of the firm of McLain & Masters, will learn with regret that he was the victim of a minor accident at Port Orford the other day. He is there superintending the construction of a cold storage house for R. D. Hume for which his firm has a contract, and in some way was struck down and badly bruised by a large plank. The injury sustained while painful is not serious, but necessitates a lay off from his work for a few days.
