COOS BAY TIDES

The following tables give the hours of high and low tides for every day this week:

Table showing tide times for July 19, 1908, with columns for day, time, and tide height.

BORN.

SCHROEDER—To Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder of Arago, a son.

BARKLOW—To Mr. and Mrs. George Barklow of Myrtle Point, a son.

Council Tuesday Evening. — The regular meeting of the city council will be held Tuesday evening. A number of street improvement matters are to come up.

Eureka Delayed. — The Eureka was slightly delayed in her last trip to Coos Bay, running onto a shoal in the channel which prevented her sailing for Portland until last evening.

Many Attend Dance. — A large number of Marshfield and North Bend young people went to Sumner Saturday evening to attend the dance. They report a large crowd, good music and a very enjoyable time.

Find Mineral Spring. — Residents of Ten Mile claim that a spring of mineral water has been discovered near there. It is proposed to have analysis made of it to determine whether it has any medicinal properties.

Sewage System Meeting. — A meeting of the property owners of South Marshfield will be held at the city hall at 8 o'clock this evening to discuss the proposed sewage system for that section of the city south of Mills Slough.

Dredge Fund Secured. — It is announced that the dredge fund has been secured with a neat sum additional. A few subscriptions are still being taken and the money placed in the bank so as to be ready as soon as the government desires to use it.

Young Couple Weds. — Valno Payari and Miss Fannie Rasmussen were united in marriage at the Lutheran parsonage today by the Rev. B. F. Bengston. The groom is employed in the C. A. Smith mill and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mats Rasmussen of Beaver Hill.

Two Parties Get Deer. — According to latest reports, only two Marshfield hunting parties succeeded in getting deer. J. W. Bennett, Tom Bennett, Dr. Bowers and James Polhemus got four near the Gould ranch, on Coos River, and yesterday Chas. Hickox killed one on Isthmus Inlet.

Strawberry Luncheon. — Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, Sr., entertained a small party of friends at a strawberry luncheon at their home in Glenn Gardens, Saturday evening. The evening was spent pleasantly with music and social converse until a late hour when a delightful strawberry luncheon was served.

Brothers Are Reunited. — Councillman Frank Sacchi is enjoying a visit from a brother, Rocco Sacchi, whom he had not seen for twenty-two years until Saturday when the latter walked into his store. Mr. Sacchi is now located in Plumas county, Cal., but the two were separated in Switzerland when Frank Sacchi left for

Personal Notes

MISS BETH BRADLEY and her father visited their summer place on Coos River yesterday.

DR. and MRS. B. E. SCHOONMAKER spent Sunday at the Goodwill place on Coos River.

JOHN PREUSS and wife, went to Bullards this morning to spend a week or so on their ranch near there.

MRS. L. R. ROBERTSON and children and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth have gone to Ten Mile for a short outing.

WALTER LYON, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is expected home tomorrow or next day from Portland.

G. A. BROWN of the Smith Powers Logging Company, left on the City of Panama for a two weeks vacation in Portland.

JOHN KRONHOLM is expected home tomorrow night or Wednesday from his visit in San Francisco and other points, returning via Drain.

JOHN ELLIOTT, a logger at Pony Slough Camp, had his toe badly cut with an ax. He was taken to the Mercy hospital and is getting along nicely.

CAPT. HARRIS of Sumner, was a Marshfield visitor today. Everything is going quietly at Sumner, he says. A number of new buildings are being erected.

W. J. BUTLER and wife, are spending a few weeks on the Wirth ranch, "Millcoma," for the benefit of Mr. Butler's health which has been rather poorly for the last few months.

F. A. HAINES and wife, arrived today from Deadwood, S. D., with a view of locating on Coos Bay. Mr. Haines is a brother of A. T. Haines who recently came from Oklahoma.

F. E. HAGUE, L. A. Liljeqvist, W. G. McPherson and Miss Mary Black were among the guests at an over Sunday house party at the summer home of Dr. J. T. McCormac, on Coos River.

MRS. IDA MANNON and daughter, Mrs. Ethel of Harveysburg, Ohio, are guests at the home of her cousin, W. E. Warwick, in Marshfield. They are on a general western tour but will spend a good portion of the summer here.

W. J. CONRAD and Clate Schooley returned today from a week's deer hunt in Curry county. J. Doyle who accompanied them remained there for a few days more sport. They declare that the three killed eight.

America, Rocco following later. With Mr. Sacchi came Theo. Marcollo, a nephew. The latter is a son of Frank Marcollo who was formerly engaged in business in Marshfield but who moved from here to San Francisco six years ago. The Marcollo family is now residing at Richmond, Cal.

Form Oil Company.—It is announced that R. F. Crittenden, Dr. O'Day and Chas. Winsor of North Bend have formed a stock company to prospect for oil on South Slough. An effort will probably be made to interest others in order that the test to determine whether or not there is oil in this section will probably be made.

THE RINK will close for the summer season, Saturday evening, July 25th. Regular Tuesday night dances as usual.

You will find the BEST LINE of PICNIC goods at SACCHI'S.

FOR DRESSMAKING call on Mrs. Cosmey, one block northwest of school house. Prices reasonable.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS. Sealed bids for grading the site for new Public School Building, in School District No. 9, will be received by the undersigned up to 3 o'clock p. m., Saturday, July 25, 1908. The successful bidder will be required to enter into a bond in the sum of $100 for the completion of the grading, within thirty days after contract is awarded.

The Board of Directors reserves the right to reject any and all bids or to accept a bid not the lowest if in their judgment it is for the best interest of the district.

For particulars, inquire of Mr. Hendricks, architect. Dated this 18th day of July, 1908. JOHN F. HALL, District Clerk.
