UMPIRE TAKES SUNDAY'S GAME

Gives Contest to Coquille Over Marshfield By Score of 5 to 4.

Standing of the Clubs.		Per
Won	Lost	Centage
Marshfield	5	2 714
Bandon	4	3 571
Coquille	4	3 571
North Bend	1	6 142

Marshfield lost to Umpire Burnside at Coquille yesterday. The score was 5 to 4. Marshfield won the game with the Coquille team by a score of 4 to 3.

This is the verdict of the fans who witnessed the game at Coquille yesterday, most of whom are more than pleased with the game between Marshfield and Coquille, but all of whom are very sore over the decisions of Umpire Burnside.

The game was close throughout and while there were a number of errors in Marshfield's new lineup, some sensational plays made it an interesting sight. In the batting, long drives by McKeown, McCutcheon and Rutledge were the features.

There were a large number of Coos Bay fans there. North Bend also sent a large number of fans with their team to Bandon and while the defeat of North Bend by Bandon by a score of 3 to 0 was regretted, the improved showing of North Bend and the good game more than recompensed them. There is keen anticipation of the games on the Bay next Sunday when Bandon plays Marshfield here, and Coquille North Bend at North Bend.

View of the Fans.
The following is the impression of the Marshfield fans of yesterday's game as given to The Times:

"To one Burnside, Manager Chapman's salaried umpire, belongs the credit of Coquille's victory over Marshfield in yesterday's game. The Marshfield team has heretofore accepted defeat at the hands of their opponents with good grace, and at all times has given the opposing team due credit for its work. We should like to be able to say the same again of the Coquille team, but the box score given below would not bear out the contention that we were outclassed.

"Furthermore, we would hesitate to charge such a disgraceful act to any umpire had it been a first offense, realizing that any man is subject to mistakes of judgment. But, Burnside throught the game rendered decisions which were palpably wrong and unjust. For instance, in the fifth inning Merchant was struck upon the elbow by a pitched ball and refused a base, Burnside claiming that the ball hit the bat. Upon Manager McKeown's proposal to show the bruise on Jimmy's arm, Burnside threatened to have him removed from the side lines. Similar decisions like the above were made by Burnside during the game, all of which led to a grand and fitting climax for Coquille in the last of the ninth. With the score 4 to 3 in Marshfield's favor, Coquille came to bat for the last time. Gardiner, the first man up, fled to Owen. Lorenz was given transportation by Burnside. Porterfield hit to Owen and forced Lorenz at second. Nevins hit to Merchant, who allowed the ball to slip by him, placing Porterfield on third and Nevins on second. Then, with two out and two strikes, against him, Collier knocked a long foul along the third base line, which Burnside called a fair ball, scoring both Porterfield and Nevins.

"Had this hit been only three or four feet foul, we could excuse Burnside for a mistake of judgment; but when the best people in Coquille who sat in the grand stand told Marshfield supporters that they were ashamed that such disgraceful tactics were pulled off in their town, when Burnside stood directly behind the catcher and had not even cause to doubt that the ball landed in foul territory, and when several of Coquille's business men after the game openly accused Coquille players of stealing the game thru the means of a crooked umpire,—then we feel that we are justified in registering this strong complaint. Manager Chapman should be severely censured for hiring Burnside solely for the purpose of umpiring especially when it is a known fact that the Burnside was forced to leave his position as umpire in the Tri-City League of Portland for reasons which wouldn't look well in print."

The score was as follows:

HARD GAME AT BANDON.

The North Bend-Bandon game in Bandon yesterday was pronounced one of the best games that has been seen in Bandon in many months by the fans, the final score being three to nothing. A mixup in an attempted double play in the fourth inning gave Bandon its only scores. Hull, North Bend's new pitcher, twirled an excellent game, allowing but seven scattered hits. He was given good support, North Bend having only two errors. Flanagan caught for North Bend and Percy Smith, a new find, made an excellent showing in left field.

North Bend landed on Jordan for six hits. Bandon had four scattered errors. The batteries were: North Bend—Hull and Flanagan; Bandon—Jordan and Myers.
