City Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet tonight to take up a number of street improvement matters.

Sing at Fair.—Prof. E. A. Todd is organizing a children's chorus to present several numbers at the Southern Oregon District Fair to be held here in August.

Gets a Deer.—John Yoakam returned today from a brief deer hunt in which he succeeded in getting all the venison he desired. Lest Dr. Dix might get ambitious to duplicate Dr. Houseworth's stunt, Mr. Yoakam presented him a fine pair of horns.

Big Crop of Berries.—W. U. Douglas has returned from the beach near the light-house where he has taken his family for a few weeks camping. He says that there are a large number of campers there. The blackberry crop in that vicinity is said to be the best known in many seasons.

Waves Washed Up Body.—Coroner T. J. Lewis has decided that the part of a human skeleton found on the beach near Empire yesterday was the remains of someone who had been buried near the sea several years or more ago. The vertebra and ribs had been in the water but a short time. He decided not to make any further investigation and had the bones buried.

Leo Matson Ill.—Mrs. E. S. Bargelt received a telegram this morning announcing that Leo A. Matson, a brother of Mrs. Bargelt and J. Albert Matson, had been taken suddenly ill at Spokane. Mr. Matson spent the winter in California and went north, intending to spend the summer in Idaho, recently. The nature of his illness is not given and Mrs. Bargelt is planning to go to Spokane at once.

Joke On Hunter.—Max Stroebel, the competent manipulator of cloth measures and construction at the Geo. Wasson Tailoring house, being a devil himself of the goose iron, left for the Seven Devils to hunt and at last accounts he has been having a devil of a time of it. He brought into camp a bunch of what he thought were wild turkeys and bragged of his success. His companions looked at him with deep sympathy and made his barometer fall very perceptibly by informing him that those birds were neither wild or tame turkeys, but only common sand hill cranes. Max is not singing for the last few days with his usual cheery voice.

HOLE IN THE SHOE.
When your shoes wear out you rush over to the shoemaker for repairs.
But you oftentimes overlook the fact, that your fire insurance policy is worn out and at a time when an unlooked for fire comes along.
Dig up your old policies and have the necessary repairs and renewal made so you will not have to go bare-foot when a fire occurs.
See Henry Sengstacken, agent for the leading Conflagration Proof Fire Insurance Company.

Personal Notes

H. E. TOWNSEND of Coquille, is here on business.
D. H. DOLLAR and wife, of Coquille, are Marshfield visitors.

CHARLES CLAYE and wife, of Coquille, are spending a few days on Coos Bay.

DR. WALTER CULIN of Coquille, spent last night in Marshfield on business and pleasure.

W. P. SMITH of the Melrose Cafe, has gone to Portland to visit his family and attend to business.

MISS HATTIE (Babe) Ferry, who has been suffering from la grippe for several days, has fully recovered.

DR. R. G. GALE of North Bend, returned yesterday from Portland where he has been attending a meeting of a medical society.

MR. and MRS. WM. WARREN and son, and Charles Herzog went to Ten Mile yesterday for a short outing. They will occupy the bungalow of T. J. Lewis while there.

COL. WM. COACH, who is quite heavily interested in the Coos Bay country, is here from the East, looking after his property and also arranging to make other investments.

J. E. HIGGINS of Alameda, Cal., a Stanford University man, is in Marshfield for a short visit with his friend, Tom Bennett. Mr. Higgins has been attending a fraternity meeting at Portland.

MR. and MRS. ESTABROOK, A. W. Davis and wife, H. E. Westerfield and wife, and C. W. Burger came up from San Francisco to witness the trial trip tomorrow of the Fifield, the new boat which Mr. Estabrook had built at the Kruse & Banks yards in North Bend.

MR. WM. COX leaves today for Myrtle Creek, Ore., to bring his father to the coast, hoping the change from the warm weather of the inland town to the sea breeze will be of benefit to the aged gentleman. "Billy" leaves by private rig to Myrtle Creek so as to bring his father here by easy stages.

L. K. NICHOLS, representative of the Portland flouring mills in this city, leaves on the Alliance today for Portland, in the interests of his firm. Nick says, "he thinks he will be the first lady to the rail," which interpreted means, a good deal of Coos Bay grub goes to the fishes in our government waters.

MR. and MRS. BALES and nephew, S. C. Dezier of Portland, arrived on the City of Panama for a week's visit. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus. L. Ferry, Sr., and Miss Hattie Ferry. Mr. Bales has been on the mounted police service for three years in Portland, Miss Hattie made headquarters with them while attending St. Helen's Hall.

WM. FORD, for a number of years identified with the Pioneer Hardware Store, has taken a position with the Baker-Hamilton Wholesale Hardware Company of San Francisco. He will represent them in this section, traveling out of Marshfield. He takes the place of F. E. Hague who recently resigned to purchase the Pioneer Hardware Company.

A pleasure party consisting of Mr. BALES and P. C. DOZIER of Portland, chaperoned by Jas. L. Henry, Jr., and brother George, left for a hunting and fishing trip on the ranch and wooded timber of Jas. L. Ferry, St., at the head of Isthmus Slough. The boys are desirous of entertaining Mr. Bales and show him the scenic contingents to our bay and streams. He will probably observe that there are other places of so called culture outings beyond Portland and its suburbs.

MR. OLE BENTSON, a former prominent Ten Mile rancher and who, eight years ago, sold his ranch there to C. P. Coleman, is here on a visit to the old scenes. Mr. Bentson since selling out here has lived and owns property at Morgan Hill, Santa Clara county, Cal., where he has made a specialty of fruit raising as he did here. He was largely interested and active in his endeavors in the establishing of the Lake Creamery. His old place is still called the Bentson prong of the Lake. He says he regrets leaving but business interests calls him back.
