NORTH BEND SECURES PITCHER McFARLAND

Los Angeles Slab Artist Expected to Join Team in a Day or Two— Kelly to Marshfield.

Manager Fred Johnson of the North Bend baseball team announces that he has secured McFarland of Los Angeles to add to North Bend's pitching staff for the remainder of the season. McFarland is expected here within a day or two and probably will be in the game against Coquille Sunday. Negotiations have been on with McFarland for sometime. McFarland established quite a record by shutting out the Portland team early in the season. North Bend is reorganizing the team and will present a new lineup Sunday.

Kelly who has been playing third base on the North Bend baseball team has moved to Marshfield, having secured a position here. This will probably result in his joining the Marshfield baseball team. He has been one of the best players on the North Bend aggregation. He will probably play second for Marshfield, thus placing Merchant on first base.

BORN.

FALKENSTEIN—To Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Falkenstein of North Bend, a daughter.

Tows Fifield Up.—The Fifield was towed up the Bay by the Columbia this morning to load at the C. A. Smith mill. It is expected that she will sail from here Saturday.

Dorsey Kretzer Laid Up.—Dorsey Kretzer, cashier of the First Trust and Savings bank, is laid up with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. It is not serious and his many friends hope that it won't be of long duration.

Error in Announcement.—The announcement that Wm. Ford, who has until recently been identified with the Pioneer Hardware store would be connected with the Baker-Hamilton Company, was erroneous. Mr. Ford has other plans which he is not ready to announce at this time.

Interested in Cottonwood.—Dispatches announcing the burning of a section of Cottonwood, Idaho, were read with considerable interest here this morning. John Proctor of San Francisco, the father of Mrs. J. H. Flanagan of Marshfield, formerly owned all of the town and still has large interests near there. Mr. Flanagan had visited there several times and is personally acquainted with many of the men who have sustained big losses.

Wed at Coquille.—Glen L. Davis, who recently came to Marshfield from Portland, and Miss Kathleen J. Denney of Crockett, Cal., were united in marriage at Coquille yesterday. Mrs. Davis came up to Bandon on the steamer Elizabeth where Mr. Davis met her. They will reside in Marshfield, congratulations and best wishes being extended by the friends the young couple have won during their brief residence here.

Tom Hall, Arthur Williams, J. Doyle and Others Secure Game.

Tom Hall, Arthur Williams and Tom Patterson returned last evening from Eckley where they have been hunting deer for the past few days. The three and J. Doyle and Ben Cooper and Mr. Noyes secured four fine bucks, Tom Hall killing one, Doyle two and Noyes one. Messrs. Doyle, Noyes and Cooper remain to smoke the venison and will bring it in a day or two. Bucks are hard to find now, according to Mr. Hall. He says that their horns are still in the velvet and until about August 1, they will keep in the brush practically all the time. The does are quite tame, the law prohibiting hunters shooting at them.

MARRIES LOVE OF CHILDHOOD.

Fiance Recognizes Bride-To-Be By a Ring He Had Given Her.

NEW YORK, July 23.—When the White Star line Oceanic arrives, Miss Gertrude Wearn of Southampton, England, one of its passengers, was met by A. H. Grisocourt, a Boer war trooper, her fiance. The pair had been separated for half a dozen years. Grisocourt had sent Miss Wearn a ring that was to be the token by which he would recognize her, for she had grown to womanhood since he saw her last. She was wooed and won by Grisocourt when he was with his regiment en route to South Africa. After the war was over he went to a ranch at Pine Cliff, Colo. He has prospered and sent for his bride to be.
