A CULINARY NOVELTY.

Surprises to Tempt Palates That Sigh For "Something New."

Olives may be a cultivated taste, but to the trained palate they offer endless novelties when used in clever combinations.

Stuffed olives have the stones removed and replaced by any salpicon or forcemeat preferred. A variety is produced by stuffing them with some savory butter, such as lemon butter, apple butter, etc.

Russian sandwiches are made by chopping olives fine and just moistening them with mayonnaise.

At Emerson's dinner table one day there was mention of a woman well known as a lion hunter, and in speaking of her Mrs. Emerson used the word "snob."

ORDER NEW BOAT.

Powerful Small Craft For the Coquille River.

In conversation with one of the officers of the Coquille River Transportation Company, Wednesday, he informed the Sentinel that it would be nearly two months before the new boat is launched as they are waiting for the new 100-horsepower compound condensing engine and the boiler which they have ordered from Frank P. Willard & Co. of Chicago.

Capt. O. R. Willard has purchased the interest of Capt. E. D. Steller in the Wolverine and is now the sole owner and master of that neat little boat. Mr. Steller and family passed through this city Monday on their way to Riddle where they will visit friends for a few months.

Oh, What Joy!

"Cured at last! Oh, what joy to think that I have at last been cured of that awful bowel trouble," are the words of A. C. Butler of Cold Springs, Texas, who suffered off and on for twelve months with a disorder of his bowels, and finally, after almost giving up in despair, was cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
