

Perry, Montgomery & Co. Open Monday, Aug. 3d

Owing to the accumulation of orders and a general rush of pre-opening business, we will be deprived the pleasure of a formal opening. However, the doors of the Finest Furniture Store in the State of Oregon (Portland excepted) will be opened Monday morning.

We bend our entire efforts toward Furniture, Floor Coverings and Draperies, knowing full well that in concentrating our efforts, we can serve our customers best.

The charm of Good Furniture depends upon its Lines, the Finish, and the Comfort of its Usage.

- We have Dull Mahogany Parlor Suits, inlaid with Satinwood,
- Circassian Walnut Chamber Suits, wax finish,
- Fiber Rush Library Pieces, in Brown and Nile Green,
- Quartered Oak Living-Room Sets, in Nut Brown,
- Weathered Oak Living-Room Pieces,
- Bird's-Eye Maple Chamber Suits of highest finish,
- Golden Oak, in hand finish, for any room in the house.

FURTHER—These goods have a distinct feature beyond the charm of their appearance—their comfort. You, who are particular about your chairs, TRY OURS.

About Bargains

We Do Certainly Have Bargains. We go direct to the manufacturer with the money in our inside pocket, and WE GET REAL BARGAINS. And we sell real bargains to those who will come to us with the same lining to their inside pocket. Don't forget the lining.

Be Your Own Judge

Our doors will be wide open Monday morning. Our goods are marked in plain figures. Carefully examine every article we have. If it's a chair, sit in it; or a table, look over it and under it; or a metal bedstead, note the finish, the fitting of the parts, the condition of the enamel. Then take our prices and compare them, wherever you desire.

BURNS MONEY; SAVES LIFE.

Des Moines Man Uses Successfully Bill as Danger Signal.
LAKE CITY, July 30.—Stewart Dunbar, an insurance broker of Des Moines, last night fell on a cattle guard of the railroad tracks and caught his foot in such a manner that he would have been crushed to death by an approaching handcar had it not been for his presence of mind in igniting a $20 bill and holding it over his head as a signal of danger, attracting the attention of the occupants of the handcar.
