

HERE ARE THE PRIZES!

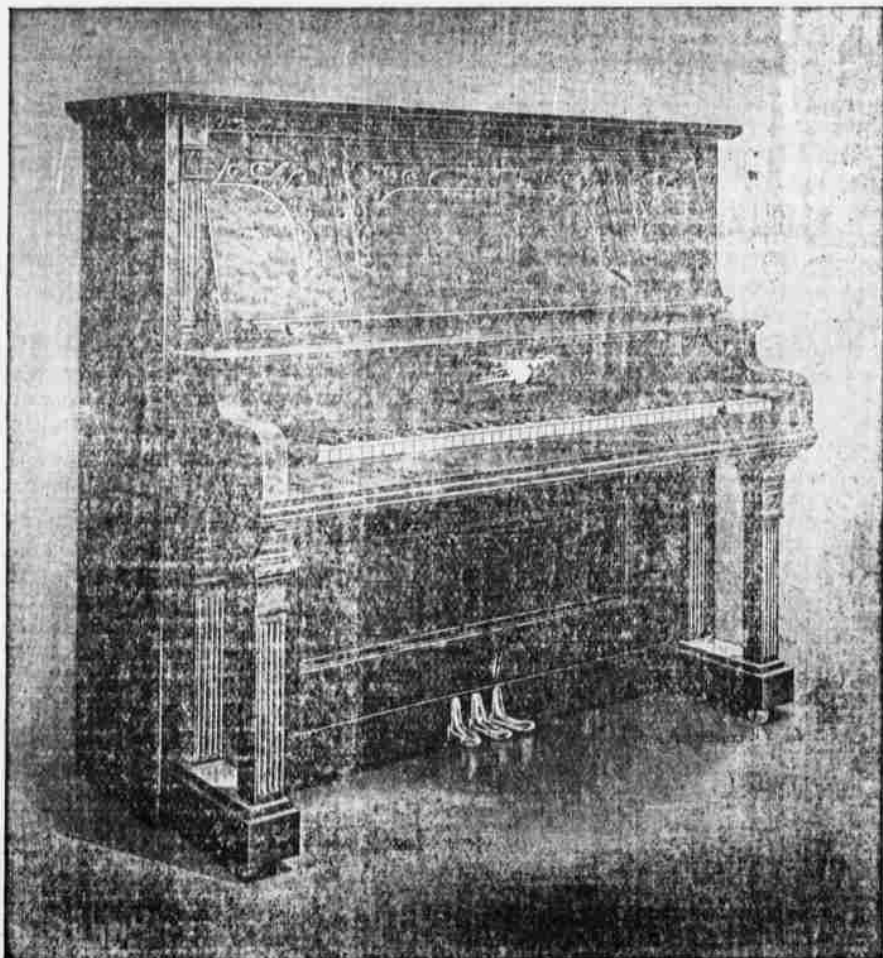

That Will be Given Away in the POPULAR VOTING CONTEST

Of The Coos Bay Times

Never before did a small Daily paper offer so many valuable prizes absolutely free to its readers. Remember every prize is Purchased and Presented to The Winner by The Times. It absolutely costs nothing for any candidate to enter and it costs nothing for votes. Every subscriber is Entitled to cast ballots in proportion to the payment on his subscription. Old subscribers as well as new may vote. All that is necessary is that you get busy among your friends and have them cast their votes for yourself or your favorite candidate. If parties are now taking The Times, request them to pay as many months as they wish and they will be entitled to 50 votes for every month they pay. If not taking The Times, request them to hand in their names and they will be entitled to one hundred votes for every month paid in advance, 1,200 votes for one year's subscription. In getting subscriptions you don't have to get all yearly ones. Six months, three months and even one month counts. Read over this announcement and the conditions of the contest, and see if there isn't a prize that you or one of your friends want or possibly your lodge or school would like the $400 Gabler Piano. A little effort on the part of you and your friends may secure it.

First Grand Prize

Grand Prize $400 PARLOR GRAND GABLER PIANO, purchased from W. R. Haines Music Company and now on exhibition at their store on 'C' street, Marshfield. There is no better piano than the Gabler at any price.

Third Prize

Third Prize is a fully paid $75 scholarship in the Miller-Cleaver Business College, North Bend. This offers an unusual opportunity to some boy or girl, young man or young woman to secure a complete and thorough course in bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting and all studies coming under these departments. The Miller-Cleaver College has acquired a reputation for the excellence of its work in which the splendid results are secured by strictly personal instruction. Its graduates are always in demand at good salaries and here is a chance for someone to get a start on a business career. The college is splendidly arranged in steam-heated quarters and has a completed and up-to-date equipment.

Second Prize

A $75.00 SOLID MAHOGANY TALKING MACHINE, purchased from the W. R. Haines Music Company. This handsome machine has no equal on the market. Equipped with a scientifically constructed horn, the reproductions are mellow, rich and perfect. On exhibition at the W. R. Haines Music Company.

SIXTH PRIZE.
Sixth Prize is a $30.00 TAILOR MADE SUIT, purchased from the well-known and popular establishment of Geo. Goodrum. This prize is well worth the effort of any man in Coos county. It will be made to order in the latest style from the best materials, the winner to make his own selection from a large and varied assortment. Back of this is the reputation of this house for quality of goods and superiority of workmanship and the well-known Goodrum Guarantee. The highest candidate in one of the districts will get this suit.

Seventh Prize

Seventh Prize is a magnificent LIBRARY TABLE purchased from the widely known establishment of Going & Harvey, the complete House Furnishers, Marshfield, and on exhibition there. It is a beautiful piece of furniture 28x42, made of polished quarter sawed oak, simple but artistic in design and would be an ornament to the finest home in the land. The guarantee of this reliable firm goes with it.

Fourth Prize

Fourth Prize is a LADIES' FINE TAILORED $50.00 SUIT, bought of A. W. Myers & Co., Coos Bay's Greatest Store, North Bend. Mr. Myers has just returned from making the Fall and Winter purchases for The Myers Store, and, among other fall lines, he reports having purchased the most beautiful stock of ladies' high class tailored suits ever assembled by their house, and he says the new styles surpass anything ever shown before in artistic elegance. The Times has bought of The Myers Store one of their new $50.00 tailored suits, the selection of same to be made by the person winning the Fourth Prize.

These suits will be on exhibition at The Myers Store after September 20th, and can be then seen by every one interested in this contest.

The price of this suit is the actual cash value and is guaranteed by this well-known and reliable house to be the best value for the money ever shown on the Bay. There will be a large selection from which to choose and fit, material and tailoring is guaranteed.

It will be noted that all these prizes are articles of value, and not cheap goods made for advertising purposes. All are from well-known and reliable firms, and are guaranteed by them. Every one has been purchased and may be seen and examined at these stores.
