CANADIAN FOREST FIRE BURNS OVER 400 PEOPLE

Several Towns Near Elk, Destroyed and Property Loss Will Run Between $5,000,000 and $8,000,000, and Hundreds Are Homeless.

TOWN OF FERNIE Wiped Out With 102 Deaths

Wires Are Down and Only Brief Report of Disaster Is Obtainable at Vancouver—Fire said to have Burned Out For Present at Least.

(Wired by Associated Press.)

WINNIPEG, Aug. 3—One of the worst forest fires known in the history of the Pacific Northwest, has been raging in southwestern British Columbia. The losses to life and property are beyond imagination. Forty-four homes and one business house remain. Between seventy and eight hundred lives have been lost, and tens of thousands of dollars have been lost. The death loss may never be known.

(Wired by Associated Press.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 3—One of the worst forest fires known in the history of the Pacific Northwest, has been raging in southwestern British Columbia. The losses to life and property are beyond imagination. Forty-four homes and one business house remain. Between seventy and eight hundred lives have been lost, and tens of thousands of dollars have been lost. The death loss may never be known.

(Wired by Associated Press.)

VANCOUVER, Aug. 3.—One of the worst forest fires known in the history of the Pacific Northwest, has been raging in southwestern British Columbia. The losses to life and property are beyond imagination. Forty-four homes and one business house remain. Between seventy and eight hundred lives have been lost, and tens of thousands of dollars have been lost. The death loss may never be known.

(Wired by Associated Press.)

VANCOUVER, Aug. 3.—One of the worst forest fires known in the history of the Pacific Northwest, has been raging in southwestern British Columbia. The losses to life and property are beyond imagination. Forty-four homes and one business house remain. Between seventy and eight hundred lives have been lost, and tens of thousands of dollars have been lost. The death loss may never be known.

(Wired by Associated Press.)

VANCOUVER, Aug. 3.—One of the worst forest fires known in the history of the Pacific Northwest, has been raging in southwestern British Columbia. The losses to life and property are beyond imagination. Forty-four homes and one business house remain. Between seventy and eight hundred lives have been lost, and tens of thousands of dollars have been lost. The death loss may never be known.

(Wired by Associated Press.)

VANCOUVER, Aug. 3.—One of the worst forest fires known in the history of the Pacific Northwest, has been raging in southwestern British Columbia. The losses to life and property are beyond imagination. Forty-four homes and one business house remain. Between seventy and eight hundred lives have been lost, and tens of thousands of dollars have been lost. The death loss may never be known.