Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100.00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Land, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." For sale by JOHN PREUSS.

ERICKSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Exel Erickson at their home in Bunker Hill Sunday, August 2, a son.

Bandon Man Changes.—C. Jack Howard has sold the Cottage Grove Western Oregon to Irving S. Bath, a bright young newspaper publisher, recently from Hillsboro and Bandon. —Drain Nonpareil.

Hotel Work Progressing.—The work on the new Chandler hotel is progressing satisfactorily and it is believed that the brick work can be started in about ten days. Most of the brick are ready and will be hauled down from the yard on Coos River within a short time.

Change Meeting Night.—Coos Bay Camp Woodmen of the World resolved last Saturday evening to change its meeting night from Saturday to Wednesday. This to accommodate a large portion of its membership who cannot be present on Saturday evenings. It will meet next on Wednesday of this week, and the meeting will be of great interest for the Camp will be visited that evening by Geo. K. Rogers, who some years ago was General Organizer of the Order and who visited the Camps of Coos county in that capacity.

Will Hunt Deer.—J. Doyle, W. J. Morrow, Wm. Theille and Ed. Kammerer leave today for Curry county where they will spend several days in quest of venison. J. Doyle has already secured two fine bucks this season and the others claim that they can easily catch up to his record and furnish all their friends a taste of the real thing.

Bankrupt at Roseburg.—Elmer Chambers, who recently operated a lumber yard in Roseburg, has filed a petition of bankruptcy with Referee Marker. The first meeting of the creditors has been called for August 13, at which time some definite action will be taken toward effecting a settlement. Chambers is well-known in Coos county.

Camp Near Gardiner.—The following persons left here recently for the ocean beach near Gardiner: Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Applegate, E. Joslyn and family, Rev. J. L. Stratford and family and his son-in-law, Henry Stewart. Next week they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bledsoe, Pete Mattoon and family and W. W. Kent and family.—Drain Nonpareil.

Cow Likes Strawberries.—Charles Coddling was in today from Millington where he has been located for several weeks at his summer home. He says the climate is delightful there and that it is the finest dairying section he ever heard of. He has a cow that is far famed for the quality and quantity of her milk and cream but she established a new record the other day. She succeeded in getting near a two gallon can of strawberries that Mr. Coddling had just gathered after a couple of hours of back breaking labor. Of course, he was sore and angry with the cow when he discovered that the meek-eyed bovine had enjoyed a repast of the luscious berries that had presented visions to him of short cake and a big bowl of berries and cream. He still had a "grouch" on the next day but the smile that came over his face when he tasted the milk and cream and found it to be of a strawberry flavor that beat any strawberry flavoring that he was ever able to get at soda fountain or ice cream parlor. However, the change was not permanent but Mr. Coddling declares that as soon as he makes his million he is going to have at least one cow fed on strawberries all the time.

Mayor and Mrs. L. J. Simpson have gone to Shore Acres to spend a few days.

Mrs. E. E. Riggs, who has been spending a few days with relatives at Haynes Inlet, returned home today.
