Gus Schoenbeek Turns From Child to Face
Death.

(From Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 7—One Brisco, a picture of health, but sloping poker last afternoon brought him to the back of the barroom, his little daughter asked him for a quarter to buy some beer. Without answering a word, Schoenbeek stepped into the back room and came out with a pistol in his hand, having plucked up the mholster from his docket. He did not have even a copper in his pocket. He walked to the door, turned the handle and shot himself, with no one being present.

There is no hope for his recovery.
