

50 FALL SUITS

Just received from the famous Hart, Schaffner & Marx fine clothiers. Styles and patterns prettier than ever--- Nothing as nice ever shown before, which is saying a whole lot when you consider that this house carries the best that money can buy. Don't buy shoddy clothing but come where you can get the best.

OUR GUARANTEE—Any H. S. and M. Suit purchased here is guaranteed to be all wool and absolutely free from cotton or any mercerized substitutes, will not fade or change color, will retain their shape and not break down. For style, workmanship and general appearance they can't be beat.

Your money back or a new suit if not as represented.

MERCHANT & KAMMERER FORMERLY MERCHANT BROS.

Located in First Trust and Savings Bank Building. Library tickets given with every 10c purchase.

Copyright 1908 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

WANTS AND ADS

LOST—Gold watch. Finder please return to H. H. McPherson and receive reward.

WANTED—In North Bend or Marshfield, a small furnished home or apartment for two in family. No children. Reasonable. Address M. J. Box 2, North Bend.

FOR RENT—3-room suite. Inquire first house north of Marble Works.

FOR SALE—40 peanut sacks at John Hays peanut roaster.

FOR SALE—Large Rowboat and salmon net. Will trade for four H.-P. marine engine. Call Marhofer's store.

WANTED—In Marshfield, furnished housekeeping rooms for two people. Address Box C, North Bend.

LOST—M. W. A. Watch charm. Return Times. Receive reward.

FOR SALE cheap—Fine Ferrand & Voty organ, solid oak. Enquire Mrs. Jas. Barrie, West Marshfield.

FOR RENT—Ranch, nine miles from Marshfield. Address R. McCann, North Bend.

FOR SALE—Launch "Charon," 24 feet long, 7 foot beam. Equipped with four H.-P. Nelson engine. Suitable for fishing or pleasure, speed 9 miles per hour. Enquire Times office.

FOR SALE—One of the best small launches on the bay. Splendidly equipped. Inquire 'G' Times.

FOUR—Furnished rooms for housekeeping. Close in, $20. Enquire Curry's Barber Shop.

FOR SALE—Fairy Floss candy machine, almost new. For terms write Gette & Collier, Coquille, Or.

FOR RENT—Four 5-room flats in the O'Connell building on 'A' street. Apply Hall & Hall.

NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT OFFICE, Room 214 Coos Bldg. Phone, Marshfield 814.
WM. WICKENS

DANCE AT SUMNER Saturday night, August 15. Launches Sumner and Tioga leave Marshfield at 7:45 o'clock p. m.

When you pay your subscription, be sure that you get your votes for The Coos Bay Times Popular Voting Contest.

Use The Coos Bay Times Want Ads

Steamer BREAKWATER SAILS for Portland SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, at 1 p. m.

Tattle of the Town

Little grains of fact sifted from and down the town. the chaff of gossip flying up

COOS BAY TIDES.

The following tables give the hours of high and low tides for every day this week:

AUGUST, 1908.

Date	HIGH WATER		P. M.
	h. m.	ft.	h. m.	ft.
Wednesday 12			12:47	6.6
Thursday 13	0:27	7.6	1:29	6.9
Friday 14	1:15	7.4	2:12	7.1
Saturday 15	2:07	7.0	2:53	7.2
SUNDAY 16	3:01	6.3	3:33	7.1

LOW WATER

Date	A. M.		P. M.
	h. m.	ft.	h. m.	ft.
Wednesday 12	6:17	-1.5	6:34	2.1
Thursday 13	7:03	-1.3	7:24	1.6
Friday 14	7:46	-1.0	8:15	1.2
Saturday 15	8:27	-0.3	9:01	1.0
SUNDAY 16	9:11	0.4	9:57	0.9

WEATHER FORECAST.

(By Associated Press.)
WESTERN OREGON.
Fair tonight and Saturday.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending 5 p. m., August 13, by Mrs. E. Mingus, special government meteorological observer.
Maximum64
Minimum54
At 5 p. m.62
Precipitationtrace
Wind, Northwest; cloudy.

BORN.

BESSEY—To Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bessey at their home on South Coos River, Friday morning, August 14, a son. Mother and child are doing well.

Painter Is Trustee.—H. W. Painter has been appointed temporary trustee for Richard Frye, a bankrupt, by Judge C. A. Sehlbrede, referee in bankruptcy.

Buys Interest In Saloon.—It is stated that Chris Pederson has purchased Chas. Hickox's interest in the Union saloon and that he and Frank Bowron will conduct the place in the future.

Wilhelmina to Siuslaw.—The proposed trip of the Wilhelmina to the Siuslaw was postponed until next week owing to some rush freight for the Coquille requiring another trip over here. The Wilhelmina will leave here for Florence next Wednesday, probably.

Large Scow Is Completed.—The new scow which Masters and McLain had built by Kruse & Bamks for heavy water traffic, arrived with its first load today. The scow is 28x90 feet and will carry four hundred tons. She is strongly constructed and is said to be one of the best scows on the Bay. She will be used principally for handling stone.

Council to Meet.—The Marshfield city council will meet tonight to let the contracts for two or three street improvements. Other business may also come up.

PROF. TODD will give a rehearsal at the North Bend High School, Saturday at 1 p. m. Also at the Marshfield High School, at 3:30 p. m. Boys are especially invited to join the chorus.

Picnic Next Sunday.—The Hahatonka club members last night decided to give a picnic for the members and their ladies at Enegren's Grove next Sunday. The party will leave here about 8 o'clock, Sunday morning on the Alert and a merry time is anticipated.

Waives Franchise.—Yesterday was understood to be the last day for R. T. Duret to file his acceptance of the franchise recently given him by the Marshfield city council to install an automatic telephone system here. He did not file his acceptance with the city recorder yesterday and it is understood that the reason he did not was that he has practically closed negotiations for the purchase of the Pacific States Telephone Company's exchange here.

COOS COUNTY WEDDINGS.

Coquille Herald Tells of Happy Matings In That Section.
On Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, August 9th, at the Parsonage of the M. E. Church, South, Mr. Charles A. Brown and Miss Viola M. Gouley were united in marriage, Rev. E. B. Jones, officiating. Mr. Brown and Miss Gouley are both residents of Myrtle Point. Mr. Brown is a druggist by profession and formerly lived in Connecticut. Immediately after the ceremony the young people left Coquille on their wedding tour.

MARRIED—At Arago, August 10, at the home of the bride's parents: George Kribs and Maud E. Lindbeck, both native born of Coos county, where their many friends wish them long and happy lives. Judge E. G. D. Holden, performed the ceremony.

AT THE THEATRE.

Last night at the Masonic Opera House, Georgia Harper and her company appeared in the comedy drama "All the Comforts of Home." The house was well filled and the roars of laughter from the audience was strong proof that they enjoyed the play to the fullest extent. Miss Harper was charming in her character and was well received by the audience. She has captured the public with her personality and fine acting. Joseph Detrick was superb in last night's play and came in for a good share of the applause. In fact all the characters were well taken and the performance was one of the most pleasing ever given here. "The Two Orphan," De Enery's great drama, the story of which is familiar to most all theatre patrons will be the play

Personal Notes

W. S. CHANDLER and B. R. Chandler will leave tomorrow for San Francisco.

MRS. J. H. UMSTADT and son, are enjoying a few days outing on Coos River.

L. R. ROBERTSON is moving into the Merchant house on Laurel street, near 'C' street.

JOHN BROWN of Portland, is on Coos Bay attending to the settlement of the estate of his father, the late J. C. Brown of Bear Creek.

E. W. HOLESWORTH of Tonopah, Nev., is visiting friends on Coos Bay. Mr. Holesworth is thinking of making his home in Marshfield.

FRANK SUMNER, deputy postmaster at Marshfield, has returned from a pleasant trip to Bandon where he spent part of his vacation.

FRANK RUMMELL and his brother-in-law, Mr. Waller of Portland, have returned from a hunting trip on the North Fork of Coos River. They report fair luck.

MISS GRACE S. TAYLOR of San Francisco, who has been visiting with the family of Dr. Culin of Coquille, left today on the M. F. Plant for her home.

R. E. SHINE of the Southern Oregon Company came over from Empire City today on business. He says that everything is prosperous and lovely at Empire, as usual.

MISS GENEVIEVE SENGSTACKEN and Kathleen Bennett, who have been visiting at Portland and various northern points, have written that they will return on the Alliance Monday morning.

MRS. A. R. TEN BROOK and her two children left yesterday for her home in Klamath Falls. She has been spending several weeks at the homes of her brothers, Jas. T. Hall and John F. Hall.

FRANK M. MARHOFFER, the Bay City Merchant, left on the Eureka for his old home at Crescent City, Cal., for a two weeks visit with his parents. While at Crescent City, Mr. Marhoffer will look after his interests and the "111 stock."

ELIJAH SMITH, head of the Southern Oregon Company, who is en route from Boston to Coos Bay to spend several months here looking after business interests and enjoying a vacation, is now in Portland. He expects to remain there several for tonight. Miss Harper will be seen in the character of Louise, the blind girl. The company carry all the special scenery and correct wardrobe necessary for the production of this play in first class style.

days looking after business matters before coming down to Coos Bay.

EDITOR H. J. CRIPPEN of Coquille, is in Marshfield today on business. He says that the Coquille ball team is confident that it will administer the severest defeat of the season to Marshfield Sunday. He is also enthusiastic over the plan for improving the Bandon bar and says that the business men and property owners of Coquille will aid it liberally.

MR. and MRS. FRED TUTTLE'S little three months old daughter is reported quite sick of marasmus.

ROBERT MARSDEN and his partner, Mr. Rau, returned from a business trip to Portland today. Mr. Rau was accompanied back by his family.

W. T. MERCHANT is spending a few days up Coos River. He took considerable fishing paraphernalia and a few magazines along and the latter with the mosquitoes, E. W. Kammerer declares, will prevent time hanging heavy on his hands even if the fish don't hang so heavy on the pole.

J. J. TOOLE, a prominent capitalist of Southern Idaho, arrived here today for a short visit at the home of P. A. Devers. Mr. Toole and Mr. Devers were formerly associated in the banking business in Idaho. This is Mr. Toole's first visit to Coos Bay. While he becomes with a feeling of great expectations for this country through the glowing accounts furnished him by Mr. Devers, he will undoubtedly find that the Coos Bay country even excels the most graphic description that pen can give it.

The WILHELMINA will take freight cargo to SUSLAW next WEDNESDAY. Shippers, see H. W. Skinner.

CLAM BAKE on the Beach at Bandon Sunday, August 16. Free clams and coffee. Round trip tickets only $1.25. Children 50 cents. Everybody welcome. Train leaves at 7 a. m.

VOTING CONTEST COUPON

NOT GOOD AFTER, AUGUST 23, 1908.

THE COOS BAY TIMES
VOTING CONTEST

For Dist, Address,.....
County
Good for one vote filled out and sent to The Times office by mail or otherwise on or before expiration date. No ballot will be altered in any way, or transferred after being received by The Times.

NORTH BEND NEWS

E. R. Hodson of South Coos River, was on the bay on business yesterday.

Miss Eugenia Knowlin of North Inlet, is visiting friends in North Bend for a few days.

J. J. Clinkinbeard of Daniels Creek, was a business visitor in North Bend yesterday.

Misses Mamie and Helen Gulovson and Miss Rose Myren were shopping in North Bend yesterday.

Mrs. F. Bingham and baby, of Marshfield, spent yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Zile.

Lawrence Jennings was down from his homestead near Remote transacting business in North Bend yesterday.

Miss Wanda Stephens of Marshfield, leaves today for a two weeks visit with friends at the life saving station on the Umqua.

Mr. Richard who is erecting a new bungalow on Sherman avenue, has his building nearly completed and ready for the plasterers.

O. Peterson of May, who has been ill for some time, has so far recovered as to visit North Bend friends this week.

Mrs. Davis returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland coming via of Drain. She was accompanied by a Miss Holdredge of Denver.

The North Bend Milk Condensery is planning to build another launch to haul milk and cream to their plant. The Sunrise is bringing in over eighty cans, a capacity load, daily.

Mrs. Davidson of Ten Mile, sister of L. F. Falkenstein, will leave next week for San Francisco where she will enter a Sanitarium for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Imhoff, a nurse, will accompany her.