The prize is one of the largest ever offered for a single apple and Mr. Beals believes that his orchard may have the prize fruit. He brought down a number of Yellow transparent apples for exhibition at the Chamber of Commerce. He says that fruit is a little late on account of the late spring.

Council Didn't Meet.—The special meeting of the Marshfield city council called for last night to award some street improvement contracts failed to materialize owing to Mayor E. E. Straw and Councilmen Lockhart, Nasburg and Flanagan failing to put in appearance. Councilmen Sacchi, Nelson and Savage were there for an hour or more but as they didn't constitute a quorum were unable to transact any business. Marshal Carter was unable to find any of the others who were understood to be participating in outing parties up the river. The street improvement matters will probably be brought up at the regular session of the council next Tuesday night.
