BORN.

JOHANNESSEN—To Mr. and Mrs. John Johannesen of the United States life-saving station Monday, August 17, a son.

COX—To Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cox of Templeton, at the W. B. Cox home in Marshfield Monday, August 17, a ten-pound girl. Mother and child are doing well.

Build Two Residences. — Sandon Brothers have completed two fine cottages at Millington which they will occupy as homes.

Wed at Libby. — Married at the bride's parents, Libby, on Saturday, August 15, Mr. Leboire Broux and Miss Martha Dieu. W. R. F. Browne, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Marshfield, officiated.

Boats In and Out.—The Eureka reached Coos Bay Saturday from Portland and sailed yesterday for Eureka. The Homer en route from Frisco to Portland stopped here yesterday to unload and take on some freight.

No Deal Made.—J. H. Flanagan states the reports concerning a sale of the Coos Bay Water Company are incorrect. Various parties have looked the plant over during the past year or so with a view of making an offer for it.

Enterprise In.—The Enterprise came in yesterday from Rogue River and left for there again this morning. The freight business between here and Wedderburn has been brisk the past ten days on account of the Marchmont races which start there today.

Gets Verdict.—In a suit involving $2.00, F. W. Rieder secured a verdict for that amount against the United Stores Company in Justice Pennock's court. The cost of the litigation which amounts to a dozen times the sum involved were taxed to the defendants.

Mother Is Dead.—Mrs. Brittain, who has been demonstrating the use of "Mapleine" at North Bend and Marshfield, received a telegram from Seattle Saturday night stating that her mother had suddenly died at Aberdeen Washington. Mrs. Brittain left yesterday morning for Aberdeen.

Many Enjoy Picnic.—About twenty-five couples enjoyed the Hahatonka Club picnic and dance at Enegren's grove yesterday. The attendance was not as large as expected owing to many of the members going on the excursion to Bandon and Coquille. "Twenty-one" was a feature of the day's diversions.

Dredge Is Delayed.—Secretary Walter Lyon of the Commercial Club, has received a letter from Major McIndoe stating that the government dredge probably won't reach Coos Bay until about September 1, owing to unexpected delays in installing some machinery and equipment. An effort was made to get the dredge here before the fair and have it in operation then but this now seems impossible.

Secretary is Coming.—Frank G. Micelli, secretary of the Southern Oregon District Fair Association, expects to leave within a few days for Marshfield where he will remain until after the fair, which convenes at that place on August 29. Mr. Micelli states that the fair this year will be the banner event ever held under the auspices of this association, there being much interest displayed by those interested in all sections of the district.—Roseburg News.

Erect Temporary School. — Director J. D. McNeal of the Bunker Hill-Bay Park School district, stated today that the board had decided to erect a temporary school building for the coming winter. They have had the plans submitted to County Superintendent W. H. Bunch and as soon as he O. K.'s them, the contract will be let. Next spring, the permanent building will be erected. A site for the school has been purchased from the Flanagan estate and is just between the two additions.

HAVE NARROW ESCAPE.

Kicking Team Causes Trouble For J. Albert Matson.
J. Albert Matson and wife had a narrow escape from serious injury while driving home from Coos City Sunday evening. One of the horses started to kicking, and got across the pole. The front of the rig was kicked to smithereens before Mr. and Mrs. Matson could get out and in the melee, Mr. Matson received a blow on the head that rendered him unconscious for a few moments. His injuries were not serious, though.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Mrs. Claude Piper of Coos River, is visiting friends in North Bend.

Morris Burney came over from Coquille Saturday to take a position in the box factory.

Mrs. C. A. Struckland, who has been seriously ill for some time with erysipelas, is improving.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold a meeting at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon.

John Peterson, who has been quite ill at the E. E. Riggs home, has recovered sufficiently to return to his home at May.

Robert Simpson, Jr., who has been spending a few days in Coquille City with his sister, Mrs. S. Hanson, returned yesterday.

Mrs. Geo. Bolster spent a few days with friends in Empire. Mr. Bolster went down Saturday evening and staid over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hodson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hodson of South Coos River, attended the funeral of Mrs. Jessie Piper Saturday.

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

Items of Interest in the Valley Taken From The Sentinel.

C. W. Rossiter of Indianapolis, Ind., arrived in the city Monday, for a visit with his family who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lockman of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Rossiter returned to their home in the east today.

Joseph Lablanc, who is conducting a wholesale liquor house in this city, was arrested by Marshal Hoberg Tuesday for selling liquors in less quantities than a gallon. He was taken before Recorder Kelley who assessed him $50 which he paid.

There was rumor in this city this week of the death of Herb Sweet who fell from a bridge and broke his neck. Sweet was employed on the bridge crew for several months and left this city for Washington in April. No particulars could be secured, but it is thought that the accident occurred in Washington.

Capt. J. B. Moomaw informed the Sentinel this week that he had received word from the Chicago concern that the boiler and one hundred seven horse-power engine had been shipped and was expected in about two weeks. It is expected that as soon as the machinery is installed the Coquille River Transportation Co. will be ready to launch the boat which they have been building in this city.

A meeting was held in this city Wednesday evening to arrange for the entertainment of the old soldiers and pioneers at their reunion in this city September 2, 3, 4. Several committees were appointed who will report at an adjourned meeting to be held at the city hall next Wednesday evening, but it is hoped that a large attendance of our citizens will be out to make this occasion a success.
