FIFIELD HAD GOOD TRIP UP

New Vessel Completes First Round Trip to 'Frisco In Good Shape.

The Fifield reached Coos Bay yesterday after completing her first round trip to San Francisco. The trip up was very good, the run being made in about forty hours despite the heavy fog that prevailed off the coast and made the entrance difficult.

She had considerable fruit and a fair cargo of other freight. She also carried a number of passengers. She will load with lumber at the Smith mill and sail for 'Frisco Friday.

Among those who came up from San Francisco on the Fifield were: E. Sidwell, C. A. Adams, John Smith, J. F. Fennell, A. Barry.

ALLIANCE SAILS.

The Alliance sailed for Portland late yesterday afternoon with a capacity load of passengers and a fair cargo of freight. Among those who sailed on her were the following:

- Mrs. Thomas Harvey, Miss Ruth Dean, Miss Edna Nell, C. A. Johnson and wife, Jacob Wilhelm, Oscar Joanis, W. C. Bernitt, H. Townsend, M. A. Phillips, Miss M. Shaeffer, Mrs. L. I. Blackman, L. I. Blackman, Mrs. Kate Burnham, A. F. Fairbanks and wife, T. J. Scott, Mrs. T. J. Scott, G. A. Tilden, W. Stirling, N. Neilson, E. I. Miller and wife and son, L. Allehoff, Miss N. Jenkins, Miss Emma Solve, Miss A. Rollinson, J. M. Kinnon, J. F. Standish, R. L. Rockwell, R. A. Howell, Elizabeth Howell, R. A. Howell, Jr., Frank Fomshall and wife, Mrs. J. T. Bridges, Mrs. W. H. Laura, D. Fitzgerald, J. G. Granger, G. K. Nickerson, A. B. Daily, Mrs. B. Innes, C. C. Going and wife, O. Fairbanks, L. Gregory, Charles Harris, H. Love and P. D. Cue.

Others who boarded the Alliance at North Bend for Portland were S. Abrahamson and wife, Peter Abrahamson, Mrs. M. B. Chambers, Miss Mamie Chambers, Miss Bach, D. King, G. H. LeFevre, W. S. Wood, Mrs. L. M. Perry, Mrs. A. T. Steiner, Mrs. Southoff, Nell Campbell, John Barb, J. Paulos George Wamsby and D. Bromwell.

AT THE THEATRE.

"In the Shadow of the Cross," one of the Standard Society dramas of the day was the bill at the Masonic Opera House last night. Miss Harper's portrayal of "Coralie" was a strong piece of acting, and she was well supported by the balance of the company. Tonight, the great historical drama "Neil Gwynne" will be produced. The story is one of an orange girl in the streets of London who, by her wit, good looks and fascinating personality, wins the heart of King Charles, the second, and finally becomes the ruler of England.

BORN.

ANDERSON—To Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Anderson at the General hospital, Marshfield, Ore., Tuesday, August 18, twins—a boy and a girl. Mr. Anderson is proprietor of the O. K. restaurant.

Has Moved.—Mrs. Rose Arrington has moved into the Timmerman house on Pine street.

Has Arm Broken. — Adolph Brox, an employe of the Newport mine, was thrown by a bucking mule and sustained a fractured elbow.

D. C. Boyd Found.—Word was received here this afternoon that D. C. Boyd, the printer from Grants Pass who mysteriously disappeared from the Coos Bay Monthly office, was seen in Coquille en route to Roseburg. No word has been received direct from Boyd although his trunk and belongings are still here.

Come From Roseburg.—W. W. Cardwell and wife and son, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Turpin and Percy Fletcher left Tuesday for Marshfield to attend the district fair. Mr. Cardwell will take along his fast running horse "King Kohr," and "Snark," the Grants Pass runner that won the main events at the last two fairs held here.—Roseburg Review.

Progressive Whist Party. — Mrs. Capt. Olson entertained about twenty friends and neighbors at a Progressive whist party at their home in Bains street last evening. The evening's play resulted in Chas. Doane and Mrs. Peter Scott, Sr., carrying off the first honors and Peter Sorensen being awarded the consolation prize. Refreshments were served and a very enjoyable time had.

No Change In Hours. — Night Watchman Walter Condon said last night that he had not been informed of any change in the city's regulations requiring saloons to close at midnight and that he would not permit any of them to remain open all night during the fair. Some one had circulated the report that the saloons would not be required to close until 2 o'clock during the fair.

Sends Fish to Fisherman.—R. F. Williams, who is enjoying an outing on Coos River and is also trying his luck as a fisherman, is waiting for a chance to get even with some one for an injury to his fisherman pride. A number have been catching some fine salmon trout on South Coos River and while Mr. Williams hadn't broken the record, he had strong hopes of getting a fine trout one of these days. The other day he received a package from Marshfield and upon opening it found it to be a large salmon trout with the intimation that "they had decided to reward his efforts." When he returned to camp, everyone began to applaud the big catch but he had to confess.

Delay Phone Franchise. — After considerable discussion last night, the Marshfield city council decided to postpone action on R. T. Durett's request for a franchise under which to operate the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's exchange here. Mr. Durett and Mr. Douglas stated
