

CALLS HALT ON MOVING MANIA

She Changes Abodes and Sells Furniture So Often That He Asks For Divorce.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 19.—Louis Cotty's wife has moved so many times that he thinks it is now his move. Today he moved the court to grant him a divorce from Marie Cotty. They were married in 1900 in Covington, but made their home in Cincinnati until August, 1903, when, according to Cotty, his wife disposed of all their furniture and moved to Chicago. He followed her and furnished a home there. On March 1, 1904, he says, she disposed of their household goods in Chicago and came back to Cincinnati. Hubby followed and immediately busied himself establishing a new home for her. About twelve days later she changed her mind and decided to return to Chicago, so she disposed of the furniture and went back to the Windy City. Cotty was soon on the scene and feathered a new nest. In September, Mrs. Cotty tired of the nest, so back to Cincinnati once more for her, after disposing of the Chicago nest feathers. She remained in the new home furnished by Cotty in this city for one year, and then the longing for Chicago became too great. Cotty did not follow her on this last trip. He says she is still there and refuses to return to him. He is an engineer. The couple have no children.

MAN ELOPES TWELVE TIMES

Arkansas Man Holds Record For Runaway Marriages.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Aug. 19.—Bill Sage, an inmate of the county farm, has just eloped for the twelfth time in the last ten years. The perpetual bridegroom has been deserted by all of the 11 predecessors of his present bride, but his matrimonial experience has never proven a deterrent to new entanglements except for short periods. Sage never obtains a divorce. As a rule he picks out a woman, usually a co-inmate of the county farm, who has a little property, and the period of their bliss is not infrequently measured by the life of her estate. After each abandonment, Sage swears that he is through with women, but his remorse is not usually longer lived than are his honeymoons. He has been charged with bigamy, but has never been prosecuted, probably because of the belief on the part of county officials that he would be able to establish a defense of mental irresponsibility.

DISLIKE "COFFIN NAILS."

Cigarette Smoking Cause For Divorce.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 19.—"That is sufficient," said Judge John M. Broderick, of Bellefontaine, as evidence adduced by Mrs. J. W. Smith in her suit for divorce showed that Smith was in the habit of rising in the night to roll and smoke a cigarette. "Divorce will be granted. The cigarette habit proved in my court will be a sufficient ground for divorce."

EXORCISED HIS WIFE'S "DEVIL" WITH A CLUB

By and By His Wife Wearied of the "Treatment," Left Him and Brought Action for Divorce. NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Samuel Phillips, a Paterson tailor, imagines that his wife Bessie is occasionally possessed by an evil spirit, at which time it has been his habit to exorcise the aforesaid spirit with a club. When Mrs. Phillips tired of this manner of driving out devils she left Phillips and is now suing for a divorce on the ground of "constructive desertion." She accuses her husband of cruel treatment. In his answer Phillips declares that he loves his wife, and asserts that the trouble is all due to an evil spirit that besets him and makes itself manifest through his wife. Phillips in 1906 spent a month in the Morris Plains Insane Asylum.

TICHENOR IS PROMOTED

Former Coos Bay Man W. O. W. General Organizer.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 19.—Frank B. Tichenor, a former resident of Salem and Portland, has been promoted from the position of district organizer of the Woodmen of the World for Eastern Washington to that of general organizer for Oregon, Washington and Idaho. His headquarters will be in Portland. The new position was recently created. Heretofore there have been five or six district organizers. Now there will be but two general organizers, covering the five states. Peter F. Gilroy, of San Francisco, will have charge of the California and Nevada district. Mr. Tichenor held his former position for years, with headquarters at Spokane. Just before he left that city to come to Portland he was presented with a loving cup by members of the lodge in Eastern Washington. Mr. Tichenor was raised near Port Orford and is well known on Coos Bay.

ICE CREAM JAILS HUBBY

Wouldn't Buy His Wife a Gallon a Day, He Said.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 18.—Because he chose imprisonment rather than supplying his wife's demands for ice cream, Joseph Smok, of No. 4307 St. Clair avenue, was sentenced to the workhouse four months and fined $200 and the costs of prosecution by Police Judge Manuel Levine. Mrs. Smok caused her husband's arrest on complaint that he struck her when she asked for money to buy ice cream. He told the court she consumed a gallon a day and took money from his pockets and his trunk to buy it. "You can go to the 'wprks' or buy her ice cream," ruled the Judge. "A woman is entitled to ice cream occasionally."

Smok chose the 'works,' saying: I'd rather go to the 'works' for a hundred years than live with an ice cream fiend."

BURIES JEWELS WITH DOGS.

Duchess of Manchester Interred Pets On Father's Estate.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 18.—Incased in a costly little casket, on which there was a silver plate inscription, the remains of a canine pet of the duchess of Manchester during her girlhood days were unearthed from beneath an old apple tree on the spacious grounds, until several years ago occupied by Eugene Zimmerman, in Mount Auburn. It was then recalled that the duchess, before her marriage, was a lover of dogs, and when her pets died she had them interred beneath her favorite tree on her father's estate. The church of the Holy Name was erected on the Zimmerman property recently. One of a team of horses attached to a scraper employed in sloping a small embankment west of the new structure, sank several feet, and investigation showed that the animal's weight had caused a small coffin to collapse. The little casket had been lined with expensive silks. Only the skeleton of the dog remained. Following the discovery of the dog's grave it was learned that several other pets of the duchess were interred near the same spot, many years ago, and that there is expensive jewelry in the caskets.

SPELLING NAME OF GOD.

Have you ever reflected that the name of God is spelled with four letters in at least seven languages? Here they are: Latin, Deus; Greek, Zeus; French, Dieu; Scandinavian, Odin; Arabic, Alla; German, Gott; Japanese, Zain. The old English spelling was Gode.

SHE LEFT SICK BED TO WED

Girl With Appendicitis Accepts Nurse As Husband.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 17.—Charlotte Keith, a pretty New York girl who was stricken with appendicitis a few days ago, and has been in a serious condition, arose from bed long enough to go through a brief marriage ceremony, which made her the wife of William Phillips of Boston. The young couple came here on their vacation, and the girl was stricken with appendicitis. Mr. Phillips gave up the pleasures of the beach to care for his sweetheart. "Let's get married, anyhow," said he. She nodded assent. The Rev. Dr. Henry Fisher, a visiting clergyman, was called in and tied the knot, while hotel patrons witnessed the bedside wedding. The honeymoon will be spent on the hotel piazza, as the bride is not strong enough to leave.

THE BREAKWATER sails for Portland Saturday, August 22, at 8 a. m.

HOT MEALS will be served at the fair grounds during the fair, at 25c. during fair week.
