

All Oregon

Will be at the Coos and Curry District Fair

August 26 to 29 Inclusive
MARSHFIELD, ORE.

They will find the grounds in better condition and more attractive than ever before. They will find many new buildings. All in all, they will see that Coos Bay has the best facilities of any section of the Southwest Oregon for holding a big fair. The increased cash premiums and specials will bring the greatest live stock show ever seen on the coast, and it will compare favorably with the best fairs of any section of the west. Some of the best horses on the coast will be here to participate in the speed program. Some of the most attractive purses ever hung up for a fair race meet will make each individual event worth coming a long distance to see. The counties will put up their best in trying to secure the prizes for the exhibits of their products. There will be special rates on all lines of transportation for passengers and special freight inducements for all exhibits. If you wish any particular information it will be cheerfully given by

LOOKING GLASS WIFE'S GRIEF

Tires of Living On Charity and Files Divorce Petition At Roseburg.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Aug. 21.—That she has been an object of charity ever since her marriage at Looking Glass in March, 1889, is one of the allegations in a suit for divorce filed in the circuit court here by Nettie Grenot against David Grenot. In her complaint, Mrs. Grenot states that her husband "has utterly failed to provide for her ever since their marriage or for their children," three in number; that at no time have they had sufficient clothing; that their table was so scant they were often obliged to go hungry, and that she "was made to suffer the disgrace and humiliation of accepting whatever might be given her by neighbors."

Mrs. Grenot also alleges that her husband falsely accused her of infidelity and that he cursed her frequently and denied the parentage of their youngest child, one year old. Their domestic troubles reached a climax, however, on July 1, of this year, according to Mrs. Grenot's complaint, when her husband, in a fit of passion, broke up the few remaining dishes in the house, whereupon she left him. Since then, she says, she has worked to support herself and children.

Grenot is employed on the local water and light system at a salary of $50 per month. She asks $10 per month alimony from him, also for the custody of the children and to be decreed sole owner of 159 acres of land at Looking Glass.
