

HORSEWHIPS "HOLY ROLLER" MISSIONARY IN COQUILLE

Mrs. Joseph Radabaugh Of Fishtrap Plies Whip Vigorously.

TAKES ACTION TO PROTECT DAUGHTER

Young Woman Almost Crazy By Teachings of Peculiar Sect.

COQUILLE, Ore., Aug. 28.—The Sentinel today prints the following story:

"There was an exciting time on the city wharf for a few minutes yesterday noon when Mrs. Joseph Radabaugh of Fish Trap, horsewhipped a Holy Roller sorceress who has been in the sorcery for the past few weeks sanctifying the deluded ones. A Holy Roller sorceress who has been working on the feelings of the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Radabaugh and the girl became almost crazy over the idea that she would never be sanctified until she burned her clothes, as good clothes and jewelry are a part of the temptations of the devil. The false teachings preyed on the girl's mind so much that Wednesday evening she burned her best dresses and watch so that she could become sanctified, but the girl's mother not looking upon the matter in that light started yesterday morning to find her and make her pay for the burning of the clothes and watch. But there was no chariot of fire came down after the Holy Roller and she had to make hot tracks for the boat which she made before Mrs. Radabaugh could reach the landing.

SOUTH HARD HIT BY FLOOD

TWO SCORE OR MORE DROWNED IN THE CAROLINAS AND GEORGIA WITH PROPERTY LOSS OF OVER $2,500,000.

(By Associated Press.) ATLANTA, Aug. 28.—The issuance of a call for assistance because of the loss of $1,500,000 in Augusta alone and a million in other cities in South Carolina and parts of Georgia, and fourteen lives lost in Augusta summarizes the flood conditions in the south today. There are rumors of others being killed. In South Carolina the loss of life may reach twenty. North Carolina has had probably a dozen drownings.

The flood has apparently damaged the foundations of a great many buildings in the lower part of Augusta. Today, the Central Grammar School there collapsed and the walls of the National Biscuit Company have fallen, and the underpinning of the Port Royal bridge was washed away.

A drop in temperature is likely to cause much suffering in the flooded district.

MAYORS BOX THREE ROUNDS

L. J. Simpson of North Bend and E. E. Straw of Marshfield In Fistic Arena.

A three-round preliminary between Mayor L. J. Simpson of North Bend, and Mayor E. E. Straw of Marshfield, proved the feature of the Ross-Peterson prize fight at the skating rink last night. The large rink was crowded to the doors.

Neither Mayor Simpson or Mayor Straw was in the pink of condition for the squared-circle but the go was a lively one. "Jim" Keane acted as referee and his decision of a draw was not satisfactory to either of the contestants and both forgot the glories of the ring and united against the common enemy, the referee, but the united crusade was ended before much blood had been shed owing to the necessity of starting what was to be the main event. If the friends of the two mayors have the say next time, they meet in the fistic arena, both will probably be clad in the armor of the mailed-knights of years ago.

After the bout, a shower of dimes and nickels was thrown on the gladiators, both being stripped to the waist and presenting fine physiques. Upon Mayor Straw's suggestion, the crowd's gift, amounting to about $3.70, will be turned over to charity.

Ross Given Decision. In the Ross-Peterson bout, Ross was given the decision in the fourteenth round by Referee D. L. Pheasant of Myrtle Point on a foul. The bout was to have gone twenty rounds. Peterson did not show up in his usual form, apparently being dazed on entering the ring and not taking the lead that has won him many admirers on Coos Bay. The bout was fast and Referee Pheasant was kept busy breaking clinches. Ross had much the best of it after the first few rounds, landing frequently and hard.

In the fourteenth round, they clinched. Peterson threw Ross to the floor and struck him hard after he was down. Referee Pheasant promptly ended the bout by giving the decision to Ross.

The bout was declared to be one of the fastest ever seen on the bay. Louie Carranza of Eureka, Cal., who is said to have a good record, has challenged the winner.

A CHALLENGE.

Lupie Carranza of Eureka, who challenged the winner of the Ross Peterson Boxing contest last night, is ready to sign articles to box Ross who won, in two weeks time.

HUNDREDS GATHER HERE TODAY TO ATTEND THE DISTRICT FAIR

SECOND DAY'S RACING GOOD

Mack M. and King Kohr Carry Off Two Big Events of the Day.

The second day of the Southern Oregon District Fair's racing proved to be one of the best cards that has ever been seen on the local course. There were no tedious delays in starting or between events and the crowd was immensely pleased. W. W. Cardwell started the jumpers and John R. Miller the harness events. Judge Al. H. Powers and Jack Flanagan insisted on keeping the time between events minimum and the drivers and jockeys were given to understand that no "jockeying" would be permitted.

In the 2:40 pace, between Mack M. and Wahke, Mack M. kept his feet and won with ease over Wahke in both heats although on Wednesday Wahke had won over him in straight heats. Wednesday's results was due to the inability to keep Mack M. on his feet on the turns.

In the mile run, Dr. Rowell lost out by the blankets under Jockey Wilson's saddle slipping out and losing part of the weights. King Kohr made a good run even though he had a little the best of it on the start.

FINE WEATHER FOLLOWS SHOWER

Baby Show and Inspection of C. A. Smith Mill Features of Tomorrow.

A delightful early morning shower to lay the dust and freshen the atmosphere followed by clearing skies made the third day of the Second Southern Oregon District Fair the largest in point of attendance and will probably make it the most enjoyable. The out of town attendance today is larger by two to one than any previous day and it was estimated by many this morning that Marshfield today is entertaining the largest number of visitors in its history.

Last evening and this morning, the trains from the Coquille valley were crowded with fair visitors from those sections. Hundreds came in this morning in rigs and launches and North Bend sent the largest delegation of any day yet. All morning, the launches between here and North Bend were crowded with people.

The fair today is declared to have reached its zenith, the exhibits being in the best condition. The judges are busy in the various divisions trying to complete the award of prizes. The quantity and quality of the exhibits in all lines is a surprise to all. Secretaries Carleton and Micelli stated last evening that even they didn't realize the number of exhibitors and the completeness of the exhibits until they went over the entry list.

Baby Show Tomorrow.

The much talked of baby show will take place at the fair grounds between 2 and 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Secretary Carleton has been notified that the contest will be a spirited one as a large number of little tots will be entered. Two prizes will be given, one to the prettiest baby and another for the smartest one. The judges will be announced at the opening of the baby show.

Tomorrow's racing card is said to be the strongest of the four days and insures a large attendance.

Visit Smith Mill.

General Manager J. E. Oren has issued an invitation to the public and the visitors to the fair to visit the C. A. Smith mill tomorrow morning, between 9 and 12 o'clock. The mill is one of the most modern equipped lumber mills in the world and a visit to Coos Bay is not complete unless it includes an inspection of the fine plant. The company will have special attendants to show visitors the mill and a cordial welcome will be extended to all.

Evening Diversions.

The crowds are making the most of the evening diversions and hilarity reigns supreme. The special train to carry the Coquille valley visitors home will leave at 9 o'clock this evening so that those who have to depart on it will have an opportunity to enjoy part of the "doings." There will be a special train leaving here Sunday morning at 10 o'clock to take the Coquille valley visitors who wish to spend Sunday night here to their homes.
