FREELAND—To Mr. and Mrs. John Freeland of North Bend, a daughter.

ANSELMO—To Mr. and Mrs. L. Anselmo at their home in Beaver Hill, August 28, a ten-pound boy.

Has Smallpox.—W. F. Mason, who came here recently from Yuba City, Cal., has been quarantined for smallpox. Mason is a mill hand. He is being cared for on the eastside of the bay. The case is not a serious one.

Start Street Work.—Contractor O. J. Signalness this morning starting the grading of Prospect avenue and is arranging to rush the work as rapidly as possible. A large number of stumps have to be removed prior to the grading.

Grounds Too Wet.—The North Bend baseball team came to Marshfield to play the final game of the league season with the locals yesterday but the grounds proved too wet and the game had to be called off. Only a few were out to see the game.

Is Bankrupt.—H. R. Bevier, head of the Bevier Engineering Works, which was destroyed in the Old Woolen Mill fire several weeks ago, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with Judge C. A. Shelbourn, referee in bankruptcy who will call a meeting of creditors soon.

Duck Hunters Out.—A number of wild ducks have been seen on the mud flats and on the inlets the last few days and local nimrods are preparing to make it lively for them. J. Albert Matson and some others are figuring on getting away this afternoon on a short expedition.

May Have Concert Here.—Carl Grissen, formerly of McMinnville, but now located at Astoria, has written friends that he and a few friends are figuring on coming to Coos Bay and may arrange to give a concert here. Mr. Grissen's musical ability is well-known on Coos Bay and his return would be warmly welcomed.

Violate Game Laws.—Cal Wright, game warden, requests the Times to direct attention of hunters that the shooting of swallows and song birds is a violation of Oregon game laws punishable by a fine of $5 for each offense. There have been numerous violations of this law recently, some Marshfield hunters seeming to think it sport to slaughter these birds and the game warden says that hereafter there will be a strict enforcement of the law regardless.

Coquille Editor to Change.—H. J. Crippen, who has been editor of the Coquille Sentinel for the past year, announces in the last issue of that paper that he will retire September 1, the lease of the publication expiring at that time. While Mr. Crippen does not announce definitely his intentions it is understood that he is likely to remain in the Coquille country. Mr. Crippen has given Coquille an excellent weekly paper under his management, has been a consistent booster of the Coos Bay country and has won many friends who will wish him well.

Personal Notes

Items of Interest in Upper Valley As Told By The Enterprise.
Coquille river fisherman are catching some fine salmon these days. One fish brought up from Norway this week weighed 37 pounds and was as good as it was big.
The city this week received the pipe necessary to connect the pump and boiler with the waterworks system and it is expected to soon have the new service in commission with the assurance that there will be no lack of water in the future. Since the iron pipe was installed the service has been much improved and will be made better with the pumping station in action.

N. P. Peterson is convinced that the average town cow is more than ordinarily wise. On Wednesday one of the brutes entered his warehouse, closed the door after her so that she would be in full and complete possession, and commenced making a square meal from his choicest flour, meal, grain, etc. Her menu had been only about half served, however, when she was discovered and vigorously invited to go her way.

The board of education for Myrtle Point school district, at a meeting Tuesday, decided to defer the date for opening school from September 14, to September 28, and school will therefore not reopen until the latter date. The change is made so that all the schools of the county will close about the same time, thus making it possible to secure a good speaker for the graduation exercises by all the schools cooperating. F. L. Henderson was reengaged as janitor for the coming school year.

KILL MANY BEARS.
Eight Bruins Slaughtered Near Myrtle Point.

Reuben Roupp, who was in from the Bennett Butte country Wednesday, reports that there has been a considerable dying off in the Bruin family in that neighborhood. Harve Smith and his dogs have been the cause, largely, of the fatalities. Eight of the animals have been killed since the middle of July. On Monday, a 500-pound bear was captured, and 60 pounds of grease was extracted from his carcass.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

We have several parties who are looking for homestead locations or relinquishments also some good timber claims. If you know of any good homestead or timber claims, it will pay you to write us. Address: Aetna Realty Company, 225 Falling building, Portland, Ore.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.
News of Interest in the Valley as Told By The Sentinel.

J. E. Cayou has the contract for the erection of the new dwelling for W. C. Chase on the corner of Third and Hill streets. Work was commenced Monday morning and it is expected that it will be ready for occupancy by the first of November.

Clarence Williams, who is working on clearing the right-of-way through the Fat Elk district, fell through a hole covered with straw in the barn of C. R. Gabler, and fractured his shoulder bone. He was removed to this city and is at the Tuttle Hotel.

J. Percy Wells, former principal of the public school, arrived Monday night for a few days' visit with his sister, Miss Kittle Wells, and other friends in this city. Mr. Wells was elected superintendent of the Jackson county schools this spring.

The painters and paper hangers have nearly completed putting on the finishing touches to the new residence which Wm. Mansell has had built on East Second Street. When the house is completed it will be one of the most convenient houses in the city, as it will contain all the conveniences that a person can provide. The house contains six rooms but they are finished in natural woods and with the oak and tile fireplace will make one of the coziest homes in the city.

The Schroeder brick yard at Arago has turned out 475,000 bricks this season and the kiln has closed down for a few weeks. They are making a good brick and with the addition of more machinery will be in shape to compete with the best brick yards in the county. They have a No. 1 quality of clay and with the future growth of the city and the demand for bricks for building purposes they should be able to furnish all the bricks used. They shipped 28,000 to Marshfield this week.
