I am tired with care and with fret.

To the fullness of love in contentment.

I call you, my darling, my darling.

And, lo, they fall empty apart.

My voice echoes back on my heart. I stretch my arms to you in longing,

I whisper the sweet words you have taught me.

The words that we only have known

PRIZE ESSAY.

The following was awarded $150 by the Republican Congressional Committee as the best article submitted on the subject:

WHY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY SHOULD BE SUCCESSFUL IN NOVEMBER.

By Frank Hendrick, of New York City.

1.-The Party of Expansion.

The Republican party was founded sall times the rights and opportunities free and equal American citizenship, Govern." It has kept the channels of Interstate Commerce open for all and, through the National Banking System, the re-Junding of the National Debt, Reroumption of specie payments, the Gold Standard and the Emergency Currency Law, has sustained the life current of national integrity.

As trustee of the National wealth it has investigated mineral regions rsurveyed soils, developed waterways, Sincluding the Panama Canal, irrigated deserts, conserved watersheds, and husbanded the public lands. Protecting American labor by regulating immigration and by taking at the Custom House, to pay American taxes, foreign capital's advantage from low wages, it has preserved to American :Industries the home market of eighty cmillions of the world's greatest conmore and so laid the surest basis for American competition in foreign markets. AL.-The Party of Progress and Prosperity.

Promising progress and prosperity, at has been politically sincere. It has never had a candidate of a section, prejudice, or class, nor a platform of negation, scheme or repudiation, program of scuttle, or doctrine of despair. It has never lent itself to a demand for revolution, to be followed by reaction and retrogression, it .mas stood firm for evolution by conestant, steady and enduring progress. Finding trusts, giant-born, flourishing under supposed conflict of State and National law, the double prohibition of existence serving but to foster sheir development, it has never in an sattempt to destroy trusts, withdrawn, in State or Nation, the protection of law from property, but has, through Executive investigation and resort to the courts, resolved the conflict which had silenced law and given tirusts existence.

fit has never proposed to advance -merican workingmen and American Einstitutions by banishing American infinitries and building up those of other lands, and scorned to insult labor with an illusory promise of immunity from law. Yet it passed the Pure Food Law and the Employer's . Liability Law, secured equal accom- . modations on railroads, aided agri- . culture, created the Civil Service, es- . for twenty years James S. Sherman has been a leader. In the records of in the same way a battle-scarred solthe Republican candidates as well as in the platform are written the story of the nation's progress and the reliance of the future.

A Democratic President or a Democratic House would turn back those pages; thereafter Bryanism would record "Destruction." This the Republican Senate could not prevent. Under Taft and Sherman and a Republican Congress the great progress of the past will be held and the greater progress of the future will be assured.

HYMN TO THE VIRGIN. A VE Maria, maiden mild.

Listen to a maiden's prayer! Thou canst hear though from the wild. Thou canst save amid despair, Safe may we sleep beneath thy care Though banished, outcast and reviled Malden, hear a malden's prayer! Mother, hear a suppliant child! Ave Maria!

A VE Maria, undefiled, A The flinty couch we now must share Shall seem with down of elder piled If thy protection hover there.

The murky cavern's heavy air Shall breathe of balm if thou hast smilled.

Then, maiden, hear a maiden's prayer! Mother, list a suppliant child! Ave Maria!

A VE Maria; stainless styled. Foul demons of the earth and air. From this their wonted haunt exiled, Shall flee before thy presence fair. We bow us to our lot of care, Beneath thy guidance reconciled. Hear for a maid a maiden's prayer And for a father hear a child?
