New Home In Eastside.--John Tellefson has commenced the erection of a new residence in Eastside.

Fall Fractures Arm.--Cecil Moore, residing near Beaver Hill, sustained a fractured arm as a result of a fall from an apple tree yesterday. The injury while painful will not leave any permanent ill effects.

New Home Nearly Completed.--Spanish court, the beautiful new home of W. S. Bode, manager of the North Bend manufacturing company, is rapidly nearing completion. He is preparing to occupy it as soon as it receives the finishing touches.

Get Dredge Ready.--Preparations are being made for sending the new Government dredge, built for the Oregon and Washington coasts, to Coos Bay. The stacks and spuds are being removed. She is also being bulkheaded forward.--Portland Telegram.

To Inspect Flyer.--Messrs. Weldon and Ames, United States boat inspectors, arrived on the Alliance from Portland today to inspect the steamer Flyer which has been rebuilt and is now ready for service as soon as they issue the license. The boat is to ply between North Bend and Marshfield.

Bring Family Here.--H. W. Skinner, agent of the Alliance, will go to San Francisco tomorrow to move his family here to make their home. They will return in about ten days. Mrs. Skinner and their year-old son, who is already quite a navigator, has not been on Coos Bay since Mr. Skinner was stationed here. They will make their home for the present in the Aiken residence.

Back From Outing.--R. F. Crittenden, Mrs. Lighter and Mr. and Mrs. White have returned from a trip to Curry county where they went to inspect Mrs. Lighter's timber claim and also to enjoy an outing. They had a very fine trip. Mrs. Lighter is the wife of the city editor of the Portland Oregonian and Mr. White is also a member of the Oregonian's staff. Mrs. Lighter will return to Portland on the Alliance

Personal Notes

A. J. SHERWOOD of Coquille was in Marshfield yesterday on business.

MRS. F. K. GETTINS spent yesterday with Mrs. Perry in North Bend.

DR. E. E. STRAW and wife, have returned from a visit in the Coquille valley.

E. G. FLANAGAN and W. Short returned today from a business trip to Portland.

J. B. SWANK of Spokane, Wash., is in Marshfield looking after business interests.

P. A. DEVERS returned today from a business trip to Portland and other northern points.

MISS HAZEL RICH of Colusa, Cal., is in the city for a fortnight's visit as the guest of Mrs. J. T. Sullivan.

DR. E. MINGUS arrived home last night via Roseburg from Ashland, Ore., where he has been visiting his mother.

MRS. E. A. TODD, who has been spending the summer in southern California, returned home on the M. F. Plant.

MISS AMY PEARCH arrived last evening from California for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dr. W. A. Toye.

A. L. SMITH has given up the management of the D. D. Campbell woodyard and Mr. Campbell will resume charge of it.

MISS SUSIE EICKWORTH returned last night after a pleasant month's next Tuesday but Mr. and Mrs. White plan to return overland via Drain.

Welle Coming Soon.--Otto A. Welle, the consulting engineer of Spokane who has been engaged by the city council to assist City Engineer Sandberg, draft plans for the South Marshfield sewage system will be here about September 15. It is expected that it will take a week to perfect the plans.

Sustains Severe Wound.--A. S. Wyman of the United States Life Saving station, stepped on a loose board yesterday and the end of it flew up, striking him in the forehead. A gash necessitating six stitches was inflicted just above the eye. Dr. Houseworth who dressed the wound says that the injury will not affect the sight of the optic but is likely to leave a bad scar.

Many Missed Stage.--Missing a train is not an unfrequent experience of railway travelers, but a dozen Marshfield people had their first experience of missing a stage yesterday morning. They were planning to go to the State Fair at Portland and had been informed that the stage would leave at 2:30 o'clock. They got up about midnight and slowly wended their way to the dock only to find that the stage had left at 1:30, the hour having been changed. The opinions of the stage line warned up the midnight air. Among the number who missed the stage were Miss Cannon and Mrs. L. D. Pettijohn who finally took the train to Myrtle Point where they engaged a private rig for the trip.

visit in Los Angeles and other southern California points.

JOHN B. DULLEY of Coquille, passed through here today en route home from Portland where he has been to secure medical treatment.

MRS. MCKENZIE of Port Orford, passed through here last night en route home from a trip to San Francisco and other southern points.

D. L. ROOD and wife, have returned from an extended visit at Mr. Rood's old home in Deposit, N. Y. They visited other places en route and had a very enjoyable trip.

JESSE HARDESTY, an old friend of Wm. Warwick, arrived here today from San Jose to visit friends and investigate the resources of the Coos Bay country. He will spend sometime here.

MRS. DORSEY KREITZER and son have returned from Byron Springs, Cal., where Mr. Kreitzer is receiving treatment for his rheumatism. He was much improved when they left and hoped to be able to follow them in a week or two.

WM. KLAHN and wife of Empire, will leave in a day or two for Portland, going thence to Los Angeles where they will spend a few weeks in hopes of benefiting their health. Fred Klahn will have charge of the business during their absence.

R. S. KNOWLTON, the well-known Coquille druggist and business man, passed through here today en route home from a business trip to San Francisco and Dewitt, Cal. He was accompanied by his sons, Owen and Clay, who have been spending the summer at the home of an uncle in Dewitt.

AL. SMITH of Coos River, left this morning for Roseburg on a business trip. He was persuaded to buy a ticket over the Coos Bay wagon road by the very affable agent, Otto Schetter. Al intended to walk out but the glib agent portrayed so vividly the scenic grandeur of his route that Mr. Smith was convinced there was nothing so picturesque in any other part of the world, so he bought two tickets for himself, fearing one would not be sufficient to carry him through this glorious panoramic route.
