STREET CAR CONVERSATION.

While riding on a street car recently, Mr. Geo. H. Day, an insurance man of Milford, Mass., was pleased to learn that a fellow passenger was from Des Moines, Iowa, as it brought back to him an incident which he has every reason to remember. In the conversation which followed, Mr. Day said: "Your city is to me the most famous of any in the west. Several years ago, I was completely cured of a bad case of colic by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is made at Des Moines. No one could persuade me to use any other medicine for this trouble. I always keep a bottle of it in my home, and in my grip when traveling." For sale by JOHN PREUSS.

HAVE ROUGH EXPERIENCE.

W. E. Mahaffy and Others Caught In Fish Traps.
 (By Associated Press.)
 SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 11. — A story of shipwreck, which included the terrors of being caught in a fish-trap and hardships following the loss of the major portion of their wardrobe, was brought to light yesterday when the survivors of an ill-fated vessel came back to Seattle. The victims were three traveling men and an Oregon capitalist. W. E. Mahaffy, a timber man of Oregon, Jack Miller, W. J. Alexander and Hal Philbrick embarked on a sloop-rigged craft bound for Everett. They became becalmed in a fog, and after being out at night they brought up at the West Point lighthouse, after sailing in a circuit. Giving up the proposed trip, they were on their way back to West Seattle when their boat rammed an old piling raft. Mahaffy, who was skipper of the party, lost his $350 shirt stud in his haste to get off the sinking craft.

HIGH CREST OF POPULARITY

PAST WEEK HAS BEEN BANNER ONE IN GREAT PRIZE CONTEST.

The Coos Bay Times great contest is now on the high wave of popularity and is day by day getting into more prominence. The great special offer of free votes developed the hustling qualities of several of the contestants. The result has been some rather surprising changes in the record of vote. The fact is also very noticeable by the large number of votes coming into the contest manager from all quarters.

The most surprising gain of the week was made by Miss Lillian McCann of North Bend, who forged to the front not only ahead of all individual candidates but also leads all the lodges and associations except the Eastern Star, and is only a few hundred votes behind the leader. The North Bend spirit is evident in this week's list of ballots for the North Bend High School also made a large gain and now leads the Marshfield High School by more than 2,000 votes.

The ladies are proving their popularity and hustling ability all around for in the individual contestants, two young ladies, Miss McCann and Miss Tellefson have taken the lead from Eric Bolt, while Miss Mamie Mahoney has also made a large gain going into fourth place.

Get up now, candidates, in the front rank. Make up your minds to shoot forward in the big contest and to keep the pace up. Now is the time to do telling work. So spread yourselves in one grand effort to make the goal. The great contest is racing on in good shape. It promises to continue to be a great and glorious feature of interest and come to a splendid termination. The interest shown by the many candidates and the way they have got out and hustled for votes is certainly very commendable. They all are continuing to do surprisingly good work. Let us ask you to once more put your best foot forward in one supreme effort to go to the front of the contest, and to remain at the top of the heap. Get up and forge to the front. Nothing succeeds like success. Let the motto be: Get in and smilingly and bewitchingly extract the votes from those that are willing to help you. The way this contest is buzzing ahead is a great pleasure to The Times management. They anticipate that it will have a splendid ending. This contest will owe its success to the vim and go of the candidates. They certainly are doing noble work. Remember the slogan: On, on, on, for votes and success. March on to victory, candidates. The big contest will come to a grand and glorious end.
