THE MAN OF TODAY CANNOT AFFORD TO SLIGHT THE MATTER OF GOOD CLOTHES--IF HE DOES HE'S LOSER. GOOD CLOTHES ARE PROFITABLE AS THEY GIVE A MAN AN ENTREE INTO THE GOOD OPINION OF EVERY ONE HE MEETS.

FINDS WAY TO KEEP SERVANT

"MISS BRIDGET, IS THE TOAST READY?" IS PROPER WAY TO ADDRESS HER, SAYS NEW YORKER.

- Rules for Servants.
1. The servant girl should never be called the servant girl.
 2. She should be addressed as "Miss" or "Mrs."
 3. She should not wear the distinctive cap as a badge of servitude.
 4. She should have her evenings free, which would naturally lead to her living outside.
 5. She should receive sufficient money to provide her own food.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The whole trouble with the servant girl is that she wants an easy job, terminated by an easy husband.

This is the domestic problem in a nutshell as presented to the department of domestic administration of the Teachers' college by I. M. Rubinow of the United States department of commerce and labor.

Being a man, Mr. Rubinow admitted that the kitchen queen was entirely human in her ambitions. The remedies offered, which he agreed must sound like an impertinence from a mere man, since woman had for so many years been face to face with the difficulty and failed to turn up a solution, were in the nature of deferring to the higher power.

Even after giving his remedy, Mr. Rubinow said the social stigma would not be lifted, but the placing of domestic work on an industrial basis, he believes, would make it more endurable and more attractive to her who must be obeyed.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

Events of Interest As Told By The Herald.

B. F. Ross and niece, Mrs. Dillon, of Marshfield, made our office a pleasant call while in Coquille yesterday. They had been in attendance at circuit court which is now in session.

The sawmill of the Coquille Mill and Mercantile Company of this city, started up Monday after a long rest. It is to be hoped that orders may be secured that will keep the mill busy indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Moore, of Corbin, Curry county, who came up to Myrtle Point last week with D. L. Moore, father of the former, and who has been suffering from a form of paralysis, came down to Coquille Saturday.

G. W. Marshall, the special representative of the Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company, was in town a few days the first of the week. He informs us that the company has lost no timber of consequence by fire this season.

Will Albee, the Fishtrap shingle mill man, was in town Thursday and Friday to get a boiler which he had purchased from the McAdams Bros., and which will be added to his battery to increase his power, which will in turn greatly increase the output of the mill.

W. L. Wood, formerly of the North Fork, now residing at Chehalis, Washington, is here visiting the scenes of his boyhood days. He made our office a pleasant call while in town Saturday. He informs us that his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lichty, are well.

Uncle Shad Hudson, who is out of the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg on furlough, made our office a call while in town Monday. He and his old comrade, D. L. Anderson, came down to the coast to spend the hot season. The latter is visiting relatives and friends in Curry county.

John Clinton of Norway, and Adam Pershberger, the retired sawmill man of Presper, started the first of the week for Missouri, the latter expecting to visit friends at St. Louis, while the former will go to Rolla and vicinity, his former home where he will spend a few weeks with relatives and a host of friends.

Coquille's public schools started up last Monday morning with the following-named corps of teachers in charge: Prof. H. O. Anderson, principal; Prof. L. C. Campbell, assistant; Miss Hughes, Miss Anderson, Mrs. Yoakam, Miss Kerrigan, Miss Lusk, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Chase and Miss Wilson. Everything starts off nicely with a large attendance which is each day steadily increasing.

Mrs. C. A. Gage and Mrs. D. F. Dean returned home Sunday afternoon from a trip to the valley. The former visited her father, Rev. W. H. Nosler, at Eugene, and the latter accompanied her daughter, Miss Frank, to Portland on her way to Boise, Idaho, where she entered St. Margaret's school for the current year. They returned from Roseburg by the overland flyer of the Powder-Fish line.
