Miss Campbell has many friends here who will wish her a pleasant stay and a safe return to Coos Bay.

FEVER AT MYRTLE POINT.

Outbreak of Disease Thought to Be Over.

Ellis Hermann, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hermann, who has suffered the severest attack of any of the scarlet fever patients, has been in a critical condition for more than a week, but latest reports from his bedside indicate that he is slowly recovering. Other cases of the disease except that of Miss Tina Roberts, who is now almost completely recovered, have been of a mild character. The quarantine is being removed from them and no new cases are being reported, which indicates that the disease is thoroughly under control.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.
