

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of the Upper Valley as Told by The Enterprise.

Born, at Myrtle Point, Sept. 9th, to Dr. S. C. and Mrs. Endicott, a daughter.

Born, September 11, to Mr. and Mrs. M. Weekly, of Gravel Ford, a daughter.

Mr. M. R. Dunn, late of the Puget Sound country, has bought the Myrtle Point meat market of Hampton & Middleton and has taken possession of the business.

At their monthly meeting last Monday night the members of the fire department made preliminary arrangements to give a ball on Halloween night, October 30th.

Miss Nellie Dement has returned to Grants Pass where she will again teach school after spending her summer vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dement.

W. O. Cooper's driving mare was cut up some Monday. He was driving the animal when she was frightened by an automobile and injured herself before she was brought under control.

The Myrtle Point schools will begin a week from Monday. The work of repainting and repairing the building has been completed by Contractor F. E. Taylor and the rooms are now being cleaned up and placed in condition for the opening day.

Z. T. Johnson brought to this office last week a four-foot branch from a Gross prune tree that had sixty-two prunes on it, and the weight of the fruit broke the limb. The tree had grown larger fruit than it did this year but never before had so many on.

J. P. Stemmler left Friday for Portland where he will spend the winter with his son Herbert. He was accompanied by his two grandsons, Norman and Cecil, who enjoyed their vacation on the Stemmler ranch at Dora and had grown vigorously because of their healthy outdoor life.

Dr. J. D. Wetmore gave a banquet to the members of the Myrtle Point fire department at the Hotel Guerin Monday night. The banquet was given to show the doctor's appreciation for the work of the firemen in saving his hospital from destruction by fire a week ago. Hon. Binger Hermann, former congressman from this district, and Councilman Adams, a member of the water company, were guests of honor.

J. R. Benson received a dispatch Saturday for Mrs. P. B. Chaney, his cousin who has been visiting here from Portland, telling of the accidental killing of her only son, Dr. R. F. Chaney at Valdez, Alaska. Dr. Chaney was attempting to scale an elevation of 2,500 feet when he lost his footing and fell down 200 feet receiving injuries from which he died several days later. Mrs. Chaney was undoubtedly sorely distressed by the shocking news. The doctor was her only child, 23 years old, and she had been counting when here, of the happy life they would lead together when he became established in his practice. He was a recent graduate of the University of Oregon.

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

Events of Interest as Told by The Sentinel.

The baseball game on the local diamond last Sunday between the married and unmarried men resulted in a victory for the henpecked nine by a score of 12 to 10. There were several funny features notable among which was Al Hite's good bat work and resultant sprinting, costing as it did several buttons and rips which claimed the attention of the good housewife that evening. Patsy Collier acted as umpire, and Russ Chapman was general manager of the interesting contest.

Horace N. Russell of Prosper, has been in town all week doing service to his country as a juror. Horace tells us that he has quit logging temporarily, having taken a contract to get out cedar telephone poles for San Francisco parties in the timber bunk of Randolph. He also says that Manager Hicking of the Prosper mill is installing such additional machinery as will give the mill a daily capacity of about 100,000 feet instead of 40,000 feet, as at the present time. The mill runs uninterruptedly while the further facilities are installed.

AT THE THEATRE.

The Margaret Hies Company played at the Masonic Opera House last night in "The Girl and The Gambler." It was a beautiful play and without a doubt the best that has ever been produced in Coos county by any company. It was so well handled by this capable company and so funny that the people in the audience were sorry when the curtain dropped on the last act.

A special feature of the evening was the representation of the "Elks," by Mr. Thompson and the "Eagles," by Mr. Meade announcing the ballgame to be played by these two well-known lodges next Sunday afternoon. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Meade kept the house laughing from the time they made their appearance to the finish.

The people of Marshfield should be impressed with the idea that the Hies Company gives just what they say they will. When they say that "The Girl and The Gambler" is the best yet, it is no idle talk and when they say that it is a laugh from start to finish there is no disputing the fact—for the audience is in an uproar all the time. Don't fail to see this play or you will miss something really good.

On Monday night, September 21, Gorman's Comedy and Vaudeville Company present the side-splitting comedy, "Who Is Who," written by Francis E. Holman, and written for laughing purposes only. This funniest of all funny comedies with its cast of comedians, including Harold Yates, Heinie Fisher, and Chas. Blanchfield, in this trio of comedians all members of the laugh trust who deal in laughter "wholesale only." Angus McPhail as the daffy girl is a scream. Harry O'Day as Hamlet, Burt Benson as Battling Nelson the champion light-weight of the world.

Eddie Lang as Undertaker Laymeont, are some of the characters that never fail to make the public go into fits of laughter.
