STRENGTH

In a bank lies, first, in the ability and experience of its officers. "The men behind the gun;" second, its board of directors who advise with and direct the officers; and third, the Capital. LIBERALITY—In a bank is its willingness to furnish funds to depositors to assist them in carrying on their legitimate business. Our motto is: "STRONG AND LIBERAL"—Look us up and if you find us deserving, give us your business.

NEUHAUSEN RESIGNS.

Quits Interior Department to Enter Timber Land Business.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 19.—In accordance with his declaration, publicly announced to quit the government service as soon as his duties would permit, Thomas B. Neuhausen has wired the secretary of the Interior as follows:

"Although deeply appreciative of prospective appointment October 1 as Indian Inspector, I feel that I should take advantage of present business opportunities assuring greater financial rewards than government service. I therefore respectfully tender my resignation herewith, subject to customary transfer of government records and property. Telegraphic acceptance of resignation is therefore requested, in order that Prosecutors Heney, Becker and McCourt may immediately formulate such changes as my resignation may necessitate in plans for land fraud trial of 10 defendants on October 12 and of Binger Harmann on November 9, also of other defendants later. I expect to remain in Portland and my testimony will be available under due legal process."

The telegram acceding to Mr. Neuhausen's request arrived last night.

Mr. Neuhausen has been associated with the prosecution of the Oregon land frauds for nearly four years and has participated in every trial since the "11-7" case. Since it became known that he intended to resign his position with the government he has been offered several salaried positions but he has declined all of them.

"I shall never again work for a salary only," said Mr. Neuhausen last night while discussing his future plans. "I like Portland and intend to make my home here. Some eastern friends have asked me to invest some of their money in Oregon lands and timber and I intend to do so, while making an occasional side investment myself. The timber market has been pretty dull for the last eight months but it is now beginning to improve. For convenience I shall have an office here in the city."

LIGHTS WENT OUT.

Lack of Electricity Stops J. W. Bennett's Flow of Oratory.

The electric lights went flurried Tuesday evening and interfered somewhat with the proceedings at the court house. Hon. J. W. Bennett was arguing a case in chancery, with his usual earnest eloquence, when Judge Hamilton called the distinguished lawyer down, deciding that the same arguments had already been offered. Just then the lights went out and all was darkness. Someone asked what was the cause of the defect? And Mr. Bennett answered (aside, of course) that it was the decision of the court. The laugh went round the bar; of course we mean the bar of justice.—Coquille Sentinel.
