Young Boys Leave.—Tom Minot and Harold Martin, two young Marshfield boys decided they would rather see the world than go to school and have started for Roseburg, taking the foot path. The Martin lad has been making his home with his uncle, C. A. Howard. It is expected that they will be back soon.

Weather Unusual.—The high winds of the last few days and a heavy frost this morning have routed the local weather prophets. Heavy winds have been hitherto practically unknown in this section during September and October and the frost this morning is the heaviest any of the older residents can recall at this season of the year.

Court is Over.—The September term of circuit court at Coquille was adjourned by Judge Hamilton at Coquille this morning. Practically all of the lawyers who have been in attendance returned on the noon train. The last case heard was that of Tupper vs. Tupper at Coquille, litigation growing out of the sale of the Tupper house. Judge Hamilton took the case under advisement.

Dry in East.—The entire eastern section of the United States is suffering from a severe drouth. Associated Press dispatches in The Times the other day told of conditions in Pennsylvania and the New England states, and Dorsey Kreitzer has just received word from his old home near Dayton, Ohio, that trouble is being encountered there. The city water supply there is short and considerable apprehension is expressed.
