A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

Each recurring attack of rheumatism makes the disease harder to control, but the fact that it is not in itself dangerous causes people to neglect it, awaiting a change or a settled condition of the weather for relief. It is often only after the disease has become so serious as to interfere with business that the sufferer will seek more than temporary relief. Chamberlain's Liniment is a remedy for rheumatism which any one can apply. It not only gives prompt relief from pain, but in a large majority of cases it brings about permanent results. The first application will surprise and delight you as immediate relief is almost sure to follow. For sale by JOHN PREUSS.

MARSHFIELD SCHOOL NEWS

OLD FAVORITES.

ODE.
(Sung in the town hall, Concord, Mass. July 4, 1857.)

O tenderly the haughty day
Fills his blue urn with fire;
One morn'g in the mighty
heaven
And one in our desire.

The cannon booms from town to town;
Our pulses beat not less;
The joy bells chime their tidings down,
Which children's voices bias.

For he that flung the broad blue fold
O'er mantling land and sea,
One-third part of the sky unrolled
For the banner of the free.

The men are rips of Saxon kind
To build an equal state,
To take the statute from the mind
And make of duty fate.

United States, the ages plead—
Present and past is under-song—
Go put your creed into your deed
Nor speak with double tongue.

For sea and land don't understand,
Nor skies without a frown
See fights for which the one hand
lights
By the other cloven down.

Be just at home; then write your scroll
Of honor o'er the sea,
And bid the broad Atlantic roll
A ferry of the free.

And henceforth there shall be no chain
Save underneath the sea,
The wires shall murmur through the main
Sweet songs of liberty.

The conscious stars accord above,
The waters wild below,
And under, through the cable wove,
Her fiery errands go.

For he that worketh high and wise,
Nor pauses in his plan,
Will take the sun out of the skies
Ere freedom out of man.
—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Forty-five pupils in the receiving class have never been to school before.

To date the High School has enrolled forty-nine pupils, the largest enrollment in its history.

Twenty-six new pupils have been enrolled this week making a total of four hundred and seventy-nine in attendance.

Alpha Mauzey was elected president of the High School girl's musical organization at a meeting held this week. The society is called the Carol club. A director has been chosen and regular practises will be held during the school year.

It is expected that the High School will be removed to the new building at the beginning of next year. Some of the primary grades will also be established there to relieve the crowded conditions in the present building some of the teachers having over fifty pupils.

INTERESTING BITS O' NEWS FROM ALL OVER OREGON

At the Portland harness races, on Tuesday, Ray O'Light broke the Pacific coast record for 3-year-olds. His time was 2:08 3/4.

At Lents, near Portland, Casper Blikenstofer killed Chas. Hegburn, his best friend. The two men quarrelled about the care of some horses and Blikenstofer, in a blind rage, struck Hegburn with a piece of scantling, killing him.

John Boyce, a young man of Gilliam county, was the victim of a frightful accident while out duck hunting. In attempting to get over a fence his gun was caught and discharged, its heavy shot going through his right side below the breast, tearing a gash in the lung.

The Wells Fargo Express Company has instituted suit in the state circuit court here to enjoin Linn county from collecting a tax levied upon its right or franchise to do business in that county. The right of a county to tax the franchise of a company of this kind is the complaint and the decision in this case will be of widespread effect.

Medford will hold a special election October 15 to vote on the question of recalling Councilman John D. Olwell, who is alleged to have changed his residence from the ward from which he was originally elected. The prohibition issue also figures in the contest, the anti-saloon element declaring that the removal of Olwell will give them a majority in the council.

Hiram E. Mitchell, a son of the late United States Senator Mitchell, and a former officer of the United States army, was granted a divorce at Oregon City from Minnette Mitchell. They were married in New York City, April 13, 1904. Mitchell charges his wife with desertion in that city, August 18, 1905, when he says she told him she was going on the stage.

Suit will probably be commenced in Salem within a day or two for the purpose of compelling the members of the state fair board to pay to the state the value of the passes they issued to various persons during the recent fair and the total value is estimated at $2,100. L. H. McTear.

No Substitute In Work World For Sterling Common Sense.

USE your brains—if you have any! Failing in this a few times, recognize the fact that it wasn't intended for you to take the initiative in the world's work. Then it will be time enough for you to line up with the army of the unemployed, working absolutely under direction.

AT A TIME WHEN MORE ADVICE TO THE YOUNG MAN IS PRINTED THAN EVER BEFORE IN HISTORY IT STRIKES ME THAT THIS MODERN YOUNG MAN NEEDS MORE THAN EVER BEFORE TO GET HIS OWN BEARINGS UPON HIMSELF IN RELATION TO HIS PARTICULAR WORK. THE WHOLE EQUATION IS PERSONAL AND SPECIFIC. GENERALITIES COVERING RULES OF CONDUCT ACCORDING TO CONVENTIONAL CATECHISMS MAY BE WORTHLESS. THEY MAY BE EVEN CONFUSING AND MISLEADING.

The situation is that the young man has work before him. With certain modifications, perhaps, he is the man to do it. The employer asks only that the work be done satisfactorily.

I read the other day a catechismic dissertation upon how every young man may succeed in life. It was in effect that, having true courage, this young man would recognize no obstacle in his way as un-surmountable; that, having no fear of failure, he would press on always to the accomplishment of anything he might attempt to do.

Fundamentally I DON'T KNOW OF ANYTHING SILLIER than the promulgating of any such philosophy as this. That young man who gets such a distorted idea into his head, believing it to be of practical, everyday value to him, must find DISAPPOINTMENT AND FAILURE INEVITABLE. There are a million commonplace things in business life that are impossible. Things that were possible yesterday are impossible today, and things possible today will be impracticable tomorrow.

"Learn to obey orders" is one of the old reiterations of the conventional teacher who fancies that an idealized philosophy should apply to every relation in the life of the employee. Yet there are men every day losing positions because of a fool's obedience to the letter of a rule.

Time was when an office boy would have been discharged if he had not untied carefully the twine binding a package and carefully preserved both string and paper. Today the boy who can cut the wrappings from such a package and drop them deepest in a wastebasket in the shortest time proves his efficiency.
