

MRS. SCHROEDER DEAD. Former Coquille Resident Expires in Seattle.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Chas. E. Schroeder, of whom there are many in this valley, were shocked when they learned of the death of that esteemed lady.

Mrs. Lucinda Schroeder was the daughter of E. Story, who resided at Myrtle Point about 28 years ago, but later moved to Lebanon, Oregon. The bereaved husband and son survive.

Her remains were embalmed and taken to Lebanon for interment.—Coquille Sentinel.

WATERLOO, Ia., Sept. 26.—Taft indicated today that he would comment on the statement issued last night by Senator Foraker when he obtains a full copy of same when he reaches St. Paul late today.

CHICKEN DINNER at Mother's on Sunday.

SOCIETY EVENTS

(Continued from page 4.)

Tuesday evening by the Ladies of the First Baptist church. Miss Mable Clare Mills and a number of the most talented Coos Bay people will participate in the program.

About sixty young folks participated in the "Around the world" social given by the Epworth League last evening. The event was a very enjoyable one.

Mrs. R. G. Gale of North Bend, will leave on the Eureka tomorrow for Portland, going thence to Medford. She will spend the next months with her parents in southern Oregon.

Mrs. Frank Frame of North Bend, will leave for San Francisco next week to spend a few weeks studying fashions.

The Ladies Art Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. L. Lang Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Progress Club will hold its annual luncheon at Mrs. Sengstacken's Tuesday, September 29, at 1 o'clock.

When Irene Passes. When Irene passes I recall The dear old fables, one and all Of Dryad, Naiad, Elf and Fairy.

When Irene passes, in her eyes I see the brightness of the skies That bend o'er earth in blessing.

When Irene passes, She's a dream— When she passes the ice cream, When Irene passes—Let it go For this is but a chant of woe.

When Irene passes, She's a dream— When she passes the ice cream, When Irene passes—Let it go For this is but a chant of woe.

$50,000—To invest in city property or small ranches close in. What have you to sell, give description, must be cheap.

WANTED—We have several parties who are looking for homestead locations or relinquishments also some good timber claims.

DEFREE'S River Ranch—Allegany platted into one and 5 acre tracts. Make beautiful summer homes or farms for profit.

FOR SALE—Furniture bar fixtures and stock of liquors and cigars, groceries, etc., now in Blanco Hotel and accessories.

FOR SALE—The sea-going launch Vamoose. Equipped with ten-horse power Union engine.

LOST—A silver cigarette case with initials L. J. S. at ball game Sunday. Reward. See Jack Flanagan.

COOS BAY TIDES. The following tables give the hours of high and low tides for every day this week:

Table with columns: Date, High Water (A.M., P.M.), Low Water (A.M., P.M.). Rows for Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday for both September 25 and 26, 1908.

Table with columns: Date, High Water (A.M., P.M.), Low Water (A.M., P.M.). Rows for Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday for September 27, 1908.

WEATHER FORECAST. (By Associated Press.) WESTERN OREGON.

Showers tonight or Sunday in west, and fair east; warmer west with light frost east.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT. For twenty-four hours ending 5 p. m., Sept. 25, by Mrs. E. Mings, special government meteorological observer.

Maximum 61, Minimum 30, At 5 p. m. 56, Precipitation none, Wind, Northwest; cloudy.

Have Diphtheria.—Three children of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Cutlip of Coos River, are reported ill of diphtheria.

Child Is Ill.—The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vineyard of Eastside, who has been quite ill for two weeks, is reported to be in a serious condition.

New Steamer In.—The steamer Carmel arrived from San Francisco today with a cargo of oil and gasoline for the Coos Bay Oil and Supply Company.

Play Football.—The Marshfield High School boys are playing their first practise game this afternoon.

Team Runs Away.—The Coos Bay Steam Laundry's delivery team got away from the driver yesterday afternoon and scattered linen along 'A' street west of the schoolhouse.

Frost Damages.—J. J. Clinkinbeard, the well-known Coos River rancher, was in Marshfield today and reports that the severe frost of the night before last did much damage to the orchards and gardens.

Don't Wait Till the Eleventh Hour to get your life insured. The younger you insure the smaller will your premium be. And remember that delays in vital matters of this kind are always dangerous.

HENRY SENGSTACKEN Agent Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York.

FOR RENT—Small cottage, partly furnished, near new school house.—Mrs. John Preuss.

FOR RENT—Four 5-room flats in the O'Connell building on 'A' street. Apply Hall & Hall.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Marshfield Skating Rink building. Inquire D. L. Avery, owner.

LAUDS COOS BAY COUNTRY

(Continued from Page 1.)

Drain road would be built at once. He saw cement at Gardiner and tons of rails at Drain and thought it was coming sure. He invested here and started to arrange to get a franchise for an electric line.

J. W. Bennett Optimistic.

J. W. Bennett delivered one of his regular optimistic talks, venting the optimism that has made him such an important factor in Coos Bay's development.

Tribute to Oregon. Bishop Scadding, of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon, paid great tribute to Oregon's possibilities.

Urges Cooperation. President W. P. Evans, of the North Bend Chamber of Commerce, urged closer cooperation among the citizens of Coos Bay in working for the development of this section.

Peter Logie said that he was glad to see the possibilities of getting a railroad soon getting so bright, but he said that in the rush to get a railroad, the dredging of the Bay shouldn't be lost sight of.

E. A. Beals, of Portland, said this section of Oregon has the most even climate of any section of the country. He said that the variation in the mean temperatures of January and July was only about twenty degrees.

C. J. Mills spoke briefly of the development work that has recently been done by the Harriman railroad, mines and steamship lines here.

Personal Notes

MRS. RAY TIBBETTS left today for San Francisco.

JOHN TELLEFSON of Eastside, is very ill at his home.

E. P. ANDERSON of Bandon, is in Marshfield on business.

MRS. J. W. BLEDSOE of Coquille, was in the city last evening on business.

GEORGE C. HUBER left for the east via the Roseburg stage this morning.

FRANK CARR and sons, Carl and Frank, were over from Coquille today.

MRS. PAINTER, Mrs. Rice and Ursula Farringer left today for Tulsa, Okla.

JACK FLANAGAN and wife, returned yesterday from a business and pleasure trip to the Coquille Valley.

MRS. W. S. TURPEN and Mrs. Pollexfen left on the M. F. Plant today for a short visit with relatives in San Francisco.

NIGHTWATCHMAN TUCKER of Bandon, was in the city last evening en route home from Portland where he had been for the past ten days on business.

MRS. M. J. MANGAN and baby and her sister, Miss Jessie Chard, left today for their former home in Belle Plaine, Minn., where they are called by the serious illness of Mrs. Mangan's mother.

BAPTISTS TO GIVE PROGRAM

Arrange For Benefit Entertainment at I. O. O. F. Hall Next Tuesday Evening.

The Ladies of the First Baptist church have arranged an interesting program for a benefit entertainment to be given at the I. O. O. F. Hall next Tuesday evening.

- Instrumental Bessie Ayers Solo Miss Mable Clare Mills Recitation, "Trouble in the Amen Corner" Lena Ashman Song, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them" Three girls. Recitation "The Sick Dolly." Mandolin duet Isaacson Bros. Recitation, "The Two Kittens" Juanita Elerby Song, "Tying the Leaves" Margery Berg Flag Drill and Tableau. Instrumental, "The Midnight Fire Alarm" Lena Ashman Recitation, "Ole Mistus" Miss Watkins Illustrated song, "Somewhere" Miss Mable and Alpha Mauzey Series of Tableaux. Male Quartette.

Rose Drill Eighteen girls Solo Miss Mable Clare Mills Season drill and tableaux Sixteen young ladies

THE PROCEEDS of Baptist entertainments go for church improvement, come with your money and help.

ADMISSION 15c and 25c. Baptist entertainments are never disappointing.

on Coos Bay. He cut his remarks short because, he said, he felt that Col. Holabird was in a better position to talk on what the people wanted to know than he.

During the evening, the Coos Bay orchestra furnished a number of selections and prior to the program, the Acme band rendered a number of selections on the street.

NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that I will not be responsible for any debts that my wife Annie Clinkinbeard may contract after this date.

To Sportsmen

For the Hunting Season of 1908 we purchased all our shells direct from the factory, thus insuring freshly loaded cartridges.

YOU KNOW THE REST

If you are expecting to buy a new gun, let us quote you on the L. C. Smith-Winchester Pump, Remington's new pump or Automatic, Baker's Special, or any standard gun.

He will convince you that our prices are the lowest on Coos Bay.

Get Your Hunter's License for $1.00 AT Milner's Hardware

Beauty in Furniture

It is not gauged by The Price It Costs. Some people spend a lot of money on furniture and then their houses only look so so, some even less so. Other peoples' homes look so well, so comfortable, so inviting that you are surprised at the low cost at which they beautify their interiors.

Those Are Our Customers

Come and see us. It costs nothing to look and the wise shopper always investigates.

Perry Montgomery & Co. OF THE FIRST-CLASS

JUST RECEIVED

A Full Line of Range and Heating Stoves

From the Leading Stove Makers of the Country Ranges from $20.00 to $50.00 Heaters from 1.50 to $25.00

It will be a disappointment for both of us if you do not see these Stoves before you buy.

Building Material

- CEMENT BRICK LIME PLASTER FIRE CLAY FIRE BRICK SEWER PIPE DRAIN TILE and TERRA COTTA GOODS WHOLESALE and RETAIL PLUMBING SUPPLIES FIRST CLASS PLUMBING and TINNING SHOP IN OPERATION

SEE US FOR FAIR PRICES NORTH BEND HARDWARE & SUPPLY CO North Bend, Oregon.