Kill An Elk.—Wm. Egenoff and Wm. McKay came down from the North Fork of the Coquille yesterday where they have been hunting big game. They killed a fine elk.

Wilhelmina Due. — The Wilhelmina is due in today from the Sitka with a cargo of chittum bark and miscellaneous freight. She will sail Wednesday for Bandon and Port Orford.

Will Entertain.—The office force of the C. A. Smith Manufacturing and Lumber Company, will entertain their lady friends at a bowling and dancing party in the club rooms of the mill Thursday evening.

Prize Winning Selection. — At the Baptist church entertainment this evening, Miss Pearl Watkins will repeat the selection that won the gold medal at the tri-state interscholastic oratorical contest at Walla Walla, Washington, last May.

To Locate Here.—H. H. Watkins and Eugene Crosthwait of Enid and Ardmore, Okla., arrived here today to look over the Coos Bay country with a view of locating here. They are cousins of Max Roberts who came here sometime ago with Col. Grimes.

Poison Dogs. — Citizens of West Marshfield are aroused over the poisoning of dogs in that section. Some miscreant, they allege, has placed poisoned food out for the canines and is killing the harmless pet dogs. Among the latest to lose pet dogs was R. F. Williams.

Sees Many Bear.—Wm. Noble who recently returned from a deer hunt to Eel Lake, says there are a large number of bear in that section. He and his party secured four or five deer and got several shots at bear but were unable to kill any. The bear are quite easily found in the huckleberry thickets.

Raise Building.—In order to conform with the new street grade, the Capt. Donaldson building at the northeast corner of Broadway and 'C' streets, is being raised about eighteen inches. The building has eighty feet frontage on 'C' street and sixty feet on Broadway. A plank sidewalk will be put in around it.

Broke Quarantine.—J. O. Stemmler of Myrtle Point, who was here today, reported that quite a stir was caused in Myrtle Point Saturday night by Wm. W. Kinnicut, whose home was quarantined for scarlet fever, leaving and attending a gathering down town. He was arrested and taken back home. There has been talk of prosecuting him further.

View New Road.—Judge John F. Hall and Commissioner E. Anderson left today to view the Golden Falls road which is practically completed. When all of the connections of the road are completed, the highway will furnish a new stage line west from Coos Bay to Drain which is said to be more scenic and a better roadway than the present one.

Council Tonight.—The late return

COMES UP BAY AT LOW TIDE

Capt. Nelson of Nann Smith, Surprises Local Navigators By Trip.

The Nann Smith last evening made the trip up the bay to her slip at the C. A. Smith mill, at extreme low tide without encountering a single shoal. The trip was a great surprise to local navigators who did not believe it would be possible for the big lumber carrier to do it, but Capt. Nelson demonstrated the fact that he knew his vessel and also knew the bay. The Nann Smith had a slow trip up, being without cargo and having to tow a lumber schooner, the Oakland, up against a stiff headwind and heavy sea.

Alliance Sails.
The Alliance sailed this afternoon for Portland with a cargo of freight and a fair sized passenger list. Among those who went out on her were the following:

A. G. W. Wilson, J. C. Royce, Miss N. Carl, J. Hardesty, Mrs. E. J. Baker, Emmie T. Loe, Harry Hunt, Frank Erwin, Wm. Wiegand, O. A. Crane, Bessie Crane, Lyman Crane, Reta Crane, Thomas Jones, James Fisher, Joe Cooley, Joe Lama, Perry McCullough, F. Thibean and wife, Mrs. Wm. Simpson, Scott Simpson, Florence Simpson, Percy Simpson, Mrs. Water Simpson, P. Eskildsen and wife, Tom Nicols and wife, Mike Roski, F. McLaughlin, F. E. McLaughlin, John Jalonen, F. W. Schroeder, L. Kutchan, J. Dobie, S. F. Lannigan and eight steerage.

City Attorney Farrin yesterday resulted in Mayor Straw postponing the special session of the city council to have been held last evening until tonight. It is expected that action will be taken on the ordinance to submit to the voters this fall an amendment to the charter increasing the city indebtedness. The sewage system plans and street improvement matters will also come up.

Delay Bridge Building.—It is unofficially announced that the completion of the elevated roadway between Marshfield and North Bend will be delayed another year by the Menasha Woodware Company appealing from the award of damages recently made in the circuit court. The verdict in the circuit court was for about $300 or $106 more than the county road viewers allowed the company. Until the litigation is ended, no work will be done on the

NEWS OF COOS BAY'S SICK AND INJURED

Mrs. David Haines of Coos River, is ill.

Mrs. A. Isaacson of South Marshfield, is reported quite ill.

Two children of Leslie Smith of Coos River, are reported quite ill.

C. Sweet is quarantined in his room in South Marshfield with diphtheria.

Charley Lee, the well-known traveling man, is confined to his room at the G. W. Carleton home.

John Tellefson of Eastside, is suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis. Dr. Dix, who is attending him, has not determined yet whether an operation will be necessary.

Miss Waldvogel, a teacher in the Sumner public schools, fell from a rig while with a picnic party Sunday. A severe gash was cut in her head, necessitating several stitches. The wheels of the rig also ran over but did not seriously injure her. Dr. Houseworth, who attended her, does not anticipate any serious results.

GOOD NEWS! EVERYBODY, whether early or late comers, will be served alike at the Chicken Supper given by the Ladies of the Presbyterian church and their friends tomorrow evening, at the Smith Cafe, under the Garfield Hotel, on Front street. Open from 5 to 9 o'clock.

L. A. LILJEQVIST, deputy prosecuting attorney, went to Myrtle Point today to investigate some alleged violations of the liquor law and a violation of the game law.

J. O. STEMMLER, the Myrtle Point real estate man, was in the city today on business and reports that the recent heavy frost caused considerable loss to the ranchers of that section.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER DEMENT of Myrtle Point, was in the city today to join Judge Hall and Commissioner Anderson on a tour of inspection over the roads in this vicinity.

J. C. WATSON, the Coquille blooded stock and poultry man, passed thru Marshfield the other day on his way home from the State Fair. While there, he purchased some of the blue ribbon prize winners in the poultry section to add to his flock of blooded birds.

W. J. CONRAD and Joe Schooley returned yesterday from South Slough where they claim they killed three elks. Of course, their prowess as hunters of big game is well-known, but their friends insist that the antlers be produced to substantiate the story.

TOM NICOLS and wife, leave today for a week or ten days visit in Portland and with Mr. Nicols' parents in Salem. The visit at Salem will be in the nature of a family reunion. Mr. Nicols' brother and sister planning to visit the old folks at the same time. It will be the first time all of the children and the old folks have been together in about fifteen years and the reunion will be a very enjoyable and memorable function for all who participate in it.

According to the Electrician, the committee appointed in connection with rebuilding of the Russian navy has decided to utilize the public contributions which have been subscribed for the purpose of rebuilding the warships in establishing wireless telegraph stations at eighteen points on the Baltic coast line. Orders, it is said have already been given for the equipments.

Wanted Hatched Baby.
Manager Knight, of the Scottish national exhibition at Edinburgh, has received the following from a little girl: "I have heard you hatch babies in incubators. Do you give any away? If you don't, I'd like one about a 75 cents one that has been hatched for a week or two. I would like a fair-haired and blue-eyed little girl; one that is nice and healthy and does not squeal much. If you have no fair-haired one at 75 cents, a brown-haired and brown-eyed will do. It must be healthy and a girl. I will not have a boy."
