New Saw Mill.—Fred Mentzel is fitting up a new saw mill on Ten Mile, about a half-mile above the creamery.

Enterprise In. — The Enterprise came in last night from Wedderburn. She did not have very much freight coming in but had a good cargo going out.

Start New Business.—G. F. Dillon and Edward Edmonds have leased quarters in the M. C. Horton building on Broadway and will open an electric wiring and supply house in a few days.

Dance Friday.—Owing to inability of all the musicians of the Coos Bay Orchestra to be present Saturday evening, the regular weekly dance will take place on Friday evening this week at Red Men's Hall.

Many Brush Fires.—Many brush fires are being started around the Bay to clear tracts that have been cut over the past year. The law requiring permits and the exercising of precautions to prevent the fires spreading is being strictly enforced.

Start Bandon Mill.—L. J. Cody of Bandon, is in the city on business. Mr. Cody expects to start the mill of the Cody Lumber Company the first of the month. Owing to the low prices of lumber, the mill, like most of the others on the Coquille, has been closed for sometime.

Coos County Statistics.—According to the monthly report of vital statistics filed by County health officer, Dr. Culin of Coquille, there were sixteen births, eleven males and five females, in August. There were seven deaths, five males and two females during the same month.

Buy Fine Horse.—A number of Coos Bay men have purchased a fine Belgian stallion, said to be one of the best horses ever brought to this section. Those interested in the purchase are: L. H. Heisner, Bastendorf Bros, Albert Seelig, P. Hennessey, L. J. Simpson, W. J. Walker, E. J. Roberts, W. C. Harris, B. F. Ross, G. F. Ross, C. P. Coleman.

E. POLLEXFEN and wife, who have been spending the past week with relatives on the Bay, will leave on the M. F. Plant this week for their home in San Francisco. They plan to lease their home there and return to Coos Bay to make their home for the winter and perhaps permanently. Mr. Pollexfen ran in here thirty years ago as a purser on one of the vessels but says he never realized until now how nice a place Coos Bay is to live on.

which had to be slightly changed, is nearly ready for inspection and service. It will probably be inspected in a day or two. The city's slip is not ready, the change that was ordered in the original work on it not having been completed. Capt. Reed will endeavor to arrange it so that it may be temporarily used and meanwhile an effort will be made to have the slip altered. The city council decided last evening not to use the C. A. Smith Lumber and Manufacturing Company's slip, as was proposed a week or two ago.

Malthoid Roofing
Mr. A. L. Baird, Gen. Mgr. Princes Court Proprietary, Limited, Melbourne, writes as follows: "I have much pleasure in informing you that the Malthoid lining of our Chute Lake has proved, after three months' severe testing, highly successful, and, as far as I can judge, is entirely watertight, the only loss of water appearing to be from evaporation and splashing."
