

SCHOOL NEWS OF TWO CITIES

MARSHFIELD SCHOOL NEWS

If This is all it will be like, I wish to Die—I don't care how—While I am Very, Very Young: As young almost as Now.

They never felt what Sorrow was; They never learned their Golden Rule; They say, "These are your happiest days!" With School, School, School.

When Saturday's all out of breath, With all the livelong week in sight; And Monday, coming after you, Steals every Sunday night.

And nothing Done but Yesterdays; And nothing Coming but Tomorrows! Don't cheer me up—Please let me be—I have the Sorrows.

—Exchange.

Torston Fliesberg has entered the Seventh Grade.

The enrollment in the high school reached fifty-one last Monday.

The girls are arranging to organize a basketball team and have elected Miss Alice McCormack coach.

The Athletic Association have had some souvenir post-cards made with pictures of the football team on them.

A football game has been arranged with the North Bend high school for October 17. The team practises every night.

A German class of nineteen has been organized in the high school. Several graduates of the old high school have joined.

Frank and John McCoy of Walla Walla, Marguerite Bird of Ashland, Mary Louise McArthur and Orlena Montgomery have entered 2d grade.

Among the special students in German and English literature at the high school are: May Bennett '04, Vivian Taylor '04, and Nellie Tower '05.

Miss Agnes Gulovson of Portland, a former teacher of the Seventh Grade who resigned her position last year on account of illness, is reported convalescent. She has gone to Mosher, Oregon, for the winter.

Here is one that was a little tardy in getting around, but it is good if it is old: "Would any of you little girls like to go to heaven?" asked the Sunday school teacher. "No'm, not this summer. We're going up Coos River," answered Ethel promptly.

One needs patience to succeed as a teacher of the young, as this brief dialogue in one of our elementary schools may show:

Scholar—I've left home now, ma'am. I'm living with my auntie. Teacher—What's her name? "She's called after me—Fanny." "Yes, but what's her other name?" "She has no other." "But what does the woman next door call her?" "She doesn't speak to the woman next door."

NORTH BEND SCHOOL NEWS

A. L. Frey of North Bend, has purchased a $100 silver Loving cup to be used as a trophy for an annual Coos county oratorical contest in which students of city and rural schools may compete.

Miss Edith Raab, who on account of illness, dropped her school work for a short time, left Tuesday for her home at Fairmount Ranch. Her many friends in high school and outside hope she will soon be able to resume her studies.

Some thoughtful one in the school suggested that some sort of society be organized to which would belong the teachers, school board, parents of school children, or any one interested in helping the school. This suggestion is now being acted upon and the first meeting is to be held soon.

In the basement of the school one of the prettiest and most modern little kindergarten rooms has been fitted up for the use of the First B in charge of Miss Winifred Rood. One of the special features of this room is the wide shelf extending around two sides of the room on which the little tots do their kindergarten drawing, sewing, etc.

The school grounds are to be greatly improved soon by the teachers with the help of their pupils. Each teacher is to be given a bed in which he or she will cultivate a variety of roses which no other teacher has. This will make twelve beds of roses and the pupils will be able to have flowers for any exercises given by the school from their own gardens. Several plans were presented at a recent teachers' meeting for beautifying the school grounds, but this one was thought to be the most feasible.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone Anderson of the Coos Bay Life Saving Station, desire to express their thank for the heartfelt sympathy and assistance extended to them in many loving forms, by thoughtful friends and neighbors, far and near, during their recent sudden bereavement in the loss of their much beloved son, Henry Alton Anderson.

ANTONE ANDERSON and family.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

News of Valley As Told By The Herald.

Fay Hervey, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hervey of Gravel Ford, has been up from Oakland, California, for two or three weeks visiting his parents and many friends on the Coquille.

Frank Schroeder of Norway, had the misfortune to cut his leg quite severely with an ax lately, and in consequence was hustling around for someone to help him with his fall work the last of the week.

W. T. Lehnerr, of Myrtle Point, drove down to this city on business last Friday. On returning he crossed the river, going up on the other side by way of Fishtrap to see his daughter who is teaching in that section.

Mrs. Frank Boutell of Morgan Hill, Cal., who had been visiting with relatives in this city and at Summer for three weeks, started for home Friday, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. P. Beyers, who makes the trip for her health.

Frank Pierce, of the Dora section, was in to see us Monday while in town, and handed us a specimen of his cucumber growing which measures 14 inches in length and 11 in circumference, being in every way a perfectly formed cucumber.

Miss Blanche Bates of San Francisco, who had been to Coos River to see her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heiborn, and to Roseburg where she visited her brother, Will Bates, publisher of the Umpqua Valley News, was in Coquille Monday on her way home.

Walter Drane, of this city returned Saturday from a trip to his place at Eden Valley, having gone up two weeks before. The day after his arrival there he stepped on a stick which was lying on siding ground, with the result that his ankle was dislocated. He succeeded in getting it back in place at once, but was obliged to walk with crutches for several days.

As the steamer Dispatch drew up alongside the wharf at the Aberdeen mill last Saturday on her way to Bandon, little Leo Loid Hodges, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hodges who live at that place, was playing about the wharf, and at that time near a pile of ties which at that moment took a tumble, several of the heavy timbers striking the little fellow with such force that the life was crushed out of him.

Mrs. Floyd White of Klamath Falls, Oregon, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dement of Myrtle Point, and other relatives and many friends of that place, spent a day or so in town last week with Mrs. J. C. Moomaw. Our office received a pleasant call on Saturday.

DIED—At Arago, Oregon, September 27, 1908, Burton Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Doyle, aged two years, three months and twenty-four days. The funeral and interment took place at the Masonic cemetery at this place yesterday, Rev. J. N. McConnell conducting the services.

MARRIED—In Coquille, at the office of the justice of the peace, September 24, 1908, James G. Lee and Miss Hazel D. Billings, the former of Riverton, and the latter of Myrtle Point, Judge E. G. D. Holden, officiating.

At the Parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, on Saturday September 26, at 8 o'clock p. m., Everett E. Hatcher and Miss Henrietta M. Nelson were united in marriage, Rev. E. B. Jones officiating. Mr. Hatcher resides in Coquille and is a sawyer by occupation. Miss Nelson's home is at Norway, this county, and the young people will likely make their home in Coquille.
