

REV. H. H. BROWN LEAVES HERE

Presbyterian Pastor Resigns to Accept Call to New Jersey Pulpit.

The Rev. H. H. Brown, for the past two years and a half pastor of the Marshfield Presbyterian church, has tendered his resignation here effective October 25, to accept the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Ramsey, N. J. A meeting of the local church will be held Wednesday evening to arrange to secure a successor here for him.

The new charge to which the Rev. Mr. Brown has received a call is a suburb of Jersey City. The congregation is composed largely of residents of New York City, Patterson and Jersey City, who maintain suburban homes at Ramsey. In addition to the attractive features of the charge itself, the new location will bring Mr. Brown and his wife within a short distance of their old homes.

Mr. Brown expects to leave here about November 1 but may remain a few days longer for election. While the many friends he and his wife have made during their stay on Coos Bay will regret their departure, they join in the gratification over Rev. Brown's advancement in his work.

Rev. W. A. Smith of Plat B, Rev. J. E. Burkhart of North Bend and Rev. George Roach of Bandon, who have been attending the meeting of the Oregon Presbyterian and Synod at Ashland, Ore., are expected home today or tomorrow.

Many Changes in Pastors.

The resignation of Rev. H. H. Brown from the pastorate of the Marshfield Presbyterian church makes the third change in Marshfield pastors within a few weeks. The Rev. G. S. Clevenger last Sunday succeeded Rev. D. W. Thurston as pastor of the First Baptist church and the Rev. H. I. Rutledge has recently succeeded the Rev. W. R. F. Browne as pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

LOCAL OVERFLOW.

Nann Smith In.—The Nann Smith arrived yesterday from San Francisco and proceeded immediately to her slip at the C. A. Smith mill where she will load for Bay Point. She will sail Wednesday, probably. The last trip down, she made the run to Bay Point. She will sail Wednesday, probably. The last trip down, she made the run to Bay Point in forty-seven hours although she had the Peddler in tow.

THE HOUSE BEAUTIFUL.

Some Artistic Creations For Interior Decoration and Use.

Some of the most artistic creations of the woodworkers handier art ever shown in Oregon are now on exhibit in the window of the Perry, Montgomery Furniture store. They are Eastern manufacturers' samples of Cuban mahogany, in dull and polished finish. There are parlor cabinets, tables, chairs, pedestals and Davenport upholstered in velour and colonial tapestries. They come in sets and single pieces and each is a work of real art. Notwithstanding the high character of the goods, the prices are a surprise. Perry, Montgomery securing them at a special discount of two-thirds of their value and they are selling them the same way. It will pay you to see these just to be informed that a Marshfield firm carries goods equal to any sold anywhere in the country.

Only a few weeks in which to win that Grand Piano.

PERSONAL MENTION.

C. J. McLAIN of Coquille, was in the city today on business.

R. R. POWNDER, a liveryman of Coquille, was in the city today on business.

EUGENE O'CONNELL and Al. Owen are enjoying a few days fishing on Coos River.

MISS ANNA SMITH is spending a few days vacation at the home of her parents on Kentuck Inlet.

CHAS. A. GAGE and wife and son, George, of Coquille, were in the city today on business and pleasure.

JUDGE A. S. HAMOOND of Coquille, was in the city last evening on legal business, and if the weather had been pleasant he would have spent the day looking for the fish hook he lost in Coos River while fishing a week ago with Geo. Farlin.

Launch Coquille Boat.—The Coquille, the new river steamer which was to have been launched at Coquille Saturday, was not launched until last evening, an accident preventing the carrying out of the original program on schedule time.

A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

Each recurring attack of rheumatism makes the disease harder to control, but the fact that it is not in itself dangerous causes people to neglect it, awaiting a change or a settled condition of the weather for relief. It is often only after the disease has become so serious as to interfere with business that the sufferer will seek more than temporary relief. Chamberlain's Liniment is a remedy for rheumatism which any one can apply. It not only gives prompt relief from pain, but in a large majority of cases it brings about permanent results. The first application will surprise and delight you as immediate relief is almost sure to follow. For sale by JOHN PREUSS.
