

Looking for a Trade Mark On Linoleum Is a New Idea

FORMERLY A Purchaser trusted to luck and let the test of time show the wearing qualities. Now it's different! You KNOW when you see COOK'S and WILD'S stamped on the back that it's going to wear and no experiment. You know that you are getting the very best and latest patterns so why experiment? The first cost is no more than inferior goods and in the long run a hundred times cheaper.

BORN.

HAMMER—To Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Hammer of Bunker Hill Sunday, October 18, a son.

Will Give Recital.—Miss Lylith Moore of Roseburg, and Miss Mable Clare Mills of Marshfield, will give a recital at the I. O. O. F. hall tomorrow night under the auspices of the A. N. W. Club.

Two Vessels In.—The Grace Dollar and Czarina are in port today. The Grace Dollar will load at the C. A. Smith mill for southern points and the Czarina will take another cargo of coal to San Francisco.

Sprains Ankle.—Little Dorothy Bachtel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bachtel of Broadway, sustained a sprained ankle while playing Saturday. The injury although quite painful is not serious.

Ministers to Meet.—A meeting of the Coos Bay Ministerial Union is being held in the Marshfield Presbyterian church today to arrange for the fall and winter work. Owing to the numerous changes recently made among the local ministers, the work was not started as early this season as usual. Officers will be named and program of work outlined.

Improves Store.—Under the direction of Frank Hague several artistic assistants are transforming the Pioneer Hardware Store into a thing of beauty. In addition to an elegant new plate glass front the interior is being redecorated giving it a metropolitan appearance. It is what our friend George Goodrum would call nifty and when completed will be one of the classy stores of the Bay.

Can't Return Here.—Agent H. W. Skinner today received a wire from Prentiss Gray saying that he had been unexpectedly called back to San Francisco and that he and Mrs. Gray would not be able to return to Coos Bay this week as they had anticipated. Mr. Gray figured on spending at least another week in this section and the many friends he made while here hope that he will soon be able to return to Coos Bay.

Will Put On Play.—The local Redmen are planning to put on "Uncle Josh" in the near future. George Farrin will have charge of sorting the talent and will probably take one of the heavy roles himself. All local Thespians, tragedians, comedians, vaudevillians, etc., etc., are promised star parts. As Mr. Farrin has an ear for everything from fish hooks up, it is declared it will be one of the best home talent events ever attempted here.

Personal Notes

MRS. DURAND of Millington, spent today with Marshfield relatives.

J. E. PAULSON, the Coquille lumberman, was in the city today on business.

M. H. CRANE and George Dorlan of Myrtle Point were in Marshfield on business.

G. W. CARLETON and a number of friends and relatives enjoyed an outing on Coos River yesterday.

J. H. LOCKMAN and wife of Coquille, are in the city visiting friends and transacting business.

GEORGE COLEMAN and family and Chas. Hickox and wife, spent Sunday at the Goodwill ranch on Coos River.

MRS. McFARLIN came down from the McFarlin cranberry ranch on North Slough to look after business here today.

BURT DIMMICK, Russ Tower and Claude Nasburg were out after fish and ducks yesterday but did not get many of either.

JUDGE F. HALL went to Coquille today to preside at a meeting of the Coos County board of equalization to pass on the last assessment.

MRS. ROBERT McCANN and Miss Lillian McCann of North Bend, were shopping and calling on friends in Marshfield Saturday.

E. R. HODSON of South Coos River, intends leaving on the next Plant for Atlas, Cal. His mother will accompany him back for a visit here.

MISS HELEN LANDRETH, a teacher in the Marshfield schools, spent Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jennie Landreth on Coos River.

MRS. ELIZABETH ADAMS, Miss Mamie Mahoney and Mrs. Frank Rogers enjoyed a day's outing at the Adam's ranch on Coos River yesterday.

DORSEY KREITZER and wife, and son, and Thayer Grimes, Max Roberts, E. Crosthwait and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth and Mrs. Farringer composed one of the numerous pleasure parties on Coos River Sunday.

MISS JULIA ROONEY of Coaledo, who has been at Portland to attend the trial of an action against the Portland Street-car Company for damages for the death of her brother who was killed sometime ago, has returned.

J. W. BENNETT is not recovering as rapidly from his attack of inflammatory rheumatism as friends had hoped for. He was reported somewhat better today after a little respite. It is believed that he will be able to be out as soon as the weather is favorable.

comedians, vaudevillians, etc., etc., are promised star parts. As Mr. Farrin has an ear for everything from fish hooks up, it is declared it will be one of the best home talent events ever attempted here.

Entertains at Dinner.—Mrs. Farringer entertained at a small dinner party Saturday evening. Among her guests were Dr. and Mrs. Houseworth, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Thayer Grimes, Max Roberts and E. Crosthwait.

Goes to Coquille.—F. C. True, who has had charge of the office work of the F. S. Dow Commission Company here for sometime, left today for Coquille where he will establish headquarters and assume the management of the company's business in the Coquille valley. Mr. True has made many friends in Marshfield who will greatly regret his removal for even a comparatively short distance from here, but who will be highly gratified over the promotion it brings him and the success they feel certain it will bring him.

Mrs. Devers to Portland.—P. A. Devers and wife, are breaking up their home in the O'Connell flats in order that Mrs. Devers may go to Portland to spend the winter with their son who is attending college there. Mr. Devers' plans will mean his absence from Marshfield a large portion of the time during the winter at least and so they decided to make Portland their home for the next few months at least. Mrs. Devers expects to return to Marshfield for the summer. She will probably leave within a week or ten days.
