OLSON HERE WITH BRIDE

Captain of Alliance and Wife, Welcomed by Blowing of Whistles Today.

The presence of a surveying party from the United States, which landed at Coos Bay today, is the subject of all sorts of railroad runners and rumors. In a few words, the important facts:

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.

The party will remain here for a few days, and will then proceed to Coos Bay, where they will make a survey of the Coos Bay harbor.

The party will be accompanied by a large party of local residents.

The surveying party is under the direction of Mr. John M. Olson, of Portland, who is accompanied by Mr. George V. Dooley, of Portland, and Mr. F. A. Gunderson, of Astoria.