BORN.

RICHARDS—To Mr. and Mrs. George Richards of Isthmus Inlet, a daughter.

Dime Theatre Reported Sold.—It was reported today that the Dime moving picture theatre had been sold by F. A. Gordon to Vince Pratt.

L. Roscoe In.—The L. Roscoe came down from the Siuslaw today with a load of salmon. She will take out a load of general merchandise.

Paralysed During Sleep.—John French of South Marshfield, awakened Sunday morning from a sound slumber to find that while asleep his right side had become paralyzed. Practically one half of his body was rendered powerless. Dr. A. L. Houseworth who is attending him says that he is getting along as well as could be expected and that there is a chance that he will recover.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet tonight to take up the matter of naming and numbering streets and other matters.

Returns to North Bend.—George Witte in a note to The Times from Los Angeles says that they will return to North Bend in the near future. They spent the summer in Michigan and are making numerous stops in California on their way home. He says they have had a delightful time but will be glad to get back to Coos Bay.

Steamer Flyer Off Run.—The steamer Flyer will be off her run for a few days while alterations are being made in her grates preparatory to changing from a wood to a coal burner. The gasoline launch "Queen" has been chartered and will run on "The Flyer's" schedule until the big boat is back in commission.

Democrats Get Orator.—E. S. J. McAllister of Portland, who has been stumping the state in behalf of Democracy, left Portland Sunday for Coos county. County Chairman T. J. Hall said today that he expected Mr. McAllister in late today and that the dates of meetings he would address would be announced tomorrow, probably.

Receive Premium Money.—The local members of the Second Southern Oregon District Fair board have just received word that the state treasurer has forwarded money to pay the premium awards of the recent fair here. By calling at G. W. Carleton's office and signing vouchers all premium winners will be cashed at Flanagan & Bennett Bank.

Large Audience Present.—The reopening of the First Baptist Church, which has been repaired and generally overhauled, Sunday was marked by the largest congregations of the years. Sunday evening, an especially large congregation was out. The special musical program by the Temple choir and an able sermon by the new pastor, the Rev. Clevinger, were greatly appreciated.

Judge Kane Leaves.—Judge Kane of Santa Clara county, Cal., and owner of a fruit ranch there, spent his vacation here in Coos county. Himself and wife were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Coleman, Mrs. Coleman being a sister-in-law. On Sunday a party, made up of Judge Kane and wife, Chas. Hickox and wife, Geo. Coleman wife and mother of Mrs. Kane, and Mrs. Coleman, enjoyed an old fashioned, home-like spread in a quick and dainty nook picked out by them to enjoy the lunch. Judge Kane and wife, on account of his vacation drawing to a close, and legal affairs commanding his attention, left yesterday on the tug Columbia to be transferred to the steamer Plant. Judge Kane was profuse in his thanks for his entertainments and especially to Mr. Hickox who chaperoned him on an expedition to and through the happy hunting grounds.

Family Has Bad Luck.—E. J. Hansen had his foot badly crushed last evening while engaged in loading the Caramel with lumber. Two heavy timbers fell, striking his foot and almost severing some of his toes. The injury was dressed by Dr. Horsfall. A few weeks ago, Mrs. Hansen and one of their children were injured in a runaway near Supt. Golden's residence, Mrs. Hansen sustaining a broken arm.
