"OF SUCH IS THE KINGDOM."

WHILE WE ARE at it, we may as well say a word for Coos Bay's babies.

We are not given to bragging on things of Coos Bay as a rule, because the best she has to offer usually speaks so plainly that our intervention is superfluous; but with the babies it is quite different; they can not speak for themselves, and their real champions are ordinarily restricted to the family they adorn, or the immediate neighborhood they inhabit, and they are therefore denied the proper heralding.

In a general way, we venture the declaration that no community of 7,000 people in this land can show a finer array of babies, for health, sturdiness, physical beauty, color, form, disposition, and promise than dwell in the municipal territory between Coos Head and Coal Bank Inlet on this peninsula, nor more of them.

Naturally we cherish this idea, for it embodies the crux of our future. You cannot have citizens, without plenty of babies and our embryotic supply is always normal in quantity and quality. We have the homes and schools and agencies for their equipment and culture and the people who appreciate them enough to raise them to the proper standards; all of which is comforting to a wide sense. What immigration may fail to do for us in expanding our population, we can do for ourselves and always maintain the ratios of development from within our own sphere. For is there any surfeit of kinds: we have all variations, each complete in its measure of beauty and strength and allround allurement; there is not a single ugly tot in the collection; this is Coos Bay's strong point and makes for the justification we enjoy in writing of them. To all doubters (and there will be many, of course), we simply say: A few miles tramp, between the points named, in this bay will convince you of the utter truth of these statements, unless you are a grump, in which case you cannot escape entire conviction, willy nilly.

TROUBLES OF BANDON.

The Bandon Recorder has a column devoted to patching up the differences between Coos Bay and the Coquille Valley and another column devoted to roasting Coos Bay. If it were known which position was meant to be in earnest the Recorder's readers would not be so much at sea.—Wedderburn Radium.

Coos Bay's Social Side

Mrs. Horsfall was the hostess to the Chaminade Club at its monthly program meeting this week, it being the first program session the club has held this season. The guests were limited to the membership of the club which has been increased to twenty-five. The club has decided to federate with the national organization. It was decided to take up a study of piano music for the present. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, Miss Kathleen Bennett, Miss Evelyn Anderson, Miss May Stauff, Mrs. Hall and others. The program for the evening follows: Chorus, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" (Old English). Minuet (Paderewski), by Mrs. B. E. Schoonmaker. Madrigal 'Chaminade', by Miss Anderson.

"An Irish Love Song" (Margaret R. Lang), by Millie Johnson. Prelude and Fugue, C Minor, No. 2 (Bach), by Mrs. Horsfall. Chorus, Hymn "Tonight" (Bethoven). "Ave Maria" (Raff), by Mrs. Hall. "Pastorale" (Scarlatti), by Miss Lucy Horton. "Spring Song" (Gounod), by Mrs. E. G. Flanagan. Chorus, "Serenade to Juanita" (Joubert).

* Mrs. H. M. Tuttle entertained the Ladies Art Club on Friday afternoon despite the inclement weather there was good attendance. At the close of the afternoon, luncheon was served. The club will meet with Mrs. A. L. Houseworth on next Friday afternoon.

The Priscilla Club was entertained last evening by Miss Beth Bradley. The subject for the evening was "Topics of the Day," and the discussion was led by the married members. The unmarried members will have charge of the next program. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening enjoyed.

Harlan Peyton, who had planned to entertain a number of his young friends and schoolmates at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. M. Blake, has been compelled to postpone it until next Friday evening. He has been slightly indisposed.

The A. N. W. Club will at its next meeting, next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. John Preuss, probably take up the discussion of the dedication or formal installation of their new public fountain which shortly will be installed on 'C' street by them. It is proposed to make it a big event in which many will participate. The fountain has been ordered and will be here soon. The club met last Thursday with Mrs. Capt. Reed, near Kittyville. Fifteen members were present and a very enjoyable afternoon spent. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McGuire gave a progressive Whist party Saturday evening, October 24, at their home in South Marshfield. The first prize was won by Chas. Doane and Mrs. Capt. Olson and the consolation prize by Mr. McGuire and Mrs. Keenan. Refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mrs. Capt. Olson, Mr. Moon, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scott, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Keenan, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Doane, Mr. Abel, Miss Sneddon and Clifford Doane.

The 500 Club was entertained this week by Mrs. J. S. Coke. Mrs. W. T. Merchant carried off the first honors while Mrs. Toye won second honors. Refreshments were served and the afternoon was one of the most delightful the club has enjoyed this season. Mrs. J. H. Flanagan will entertain the club next week.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church had a novel and very enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. John Bear Wednesday afternoon. The diversion was "An Old Fashioned Wool Picking" and it proved a profitable as well as an entertaining afternoon. The ladies will be entertained by Mrs. Bear again next week.

The Minnie-Wis. Club met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Ray, in South Marshfield. A full membership was present and spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

Bountiful refreshments were served at 4:30. The club will be entertained by Mrs. C. C. Going on November 12.

A. H. Powers and wife returned this week from a visit in Minneapolis and other eastern points.

J. E. Oren and wife and son, Donald Smith Oren, left on the Nann Smith last Monday for San Francisco. They will visit at several California points.

The Biographic Club did not meet this week but will meet next Thursday, November 5, with Mrs. E. Mingus. A paper on "Sara Siddons" will be read by Mrs. Mingus.

The Evergreen Whist Club members were pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Eugene O'Connell at the E. K. Jones' home last Saturday afternoon. The home was prettily decorated and punch was served. The afternoon's play resulted in Mrs. F. P. Norton carrying off first honors while Mrs. Rolandson received the consolation prize. The club is being entertained this afternoon by Mrs. F. P. Norton.

The Sisters of Bethany met this week with Miss Alice Butler, and next Wednesday will meet with Miss Bernitt. It is planned to give a tea in the near future. The new officers for the current year are as follows: President—Miss Alice Butler. Secretary—Miss May Stauff. Treasurer—Mrs. Otto Schetter.

A spelling match with Roman names as the test of orthography will be a novel feature of the meeting of the Progress Club, with Mrs. Bradley, next Tuesday. The club has been studying Roman history this season so that the spelling contest will be sort of a test of the members' work. In addition to the spelling contest, they will discuss chapters on the "Lure of Cleopatra," "Stoicism," etc. Mrs. Upton will be the leader and Mrs. Horton is to read a paper or talk on "Rome's Greatest Statesmen." The meeting this week was with Mrs. M. C. Horton. A review of Rome during the period of the Punic wars was on the program with Mrs. I. S. Kaufman as leader. The story of the reign of Julius Caesar and the formation of the first Triumvirate by a small reading of "Ulysses" by Mrs. Todd were other features of the program announced for the day. The club has been doing some very effective work, the weekly meetings being found much more advantageous than the bi-weekly meetings of a year ago.

W. A. Reed and wife, arrived yesterday for a month's visit at the home of Mrs. Reed's parents, Judge and Mrs. C. A. Schlabrede. They had a rather rough voyage from Nome to Seattle. Mr. Reed is general secretary of the Alaska Y. M. C. A., having been assigned to the army department. Their coming means a reunion of the Schlabrede family, the other daughter being Mrs. F. K. Gettins of this city.

The Beautiful America Club of North Bend, is urging the members to turn out well for the regular meeting next Tuesday afternoon at Taylor's hall. In addition to the discussion of civic improvement, the club will enjoy an afternoon at cards.

The Hallowe'en event at North Bend tonight will be the Firemen's ball at Eckhoff hall. It is the fourth annual event of the North Bend Firemen, and it is planned to make it the greatest of them all. An unusually good orchestra has been secured to furnish music and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Arnold arrived in North Bend yesterday on the Breakwater from Kentucky where they were married a few weeks ago. The many friends the groom has made in North Bend during his residence there extended a hearty welcome to the bride. They will reside in Dr. A. H. Gale's residence while the new Arnold home, near F. C. McCollum's, is being completed. Invitations will be issued within a few days for several receptions in honor of the couple.

"JUST AS GOOD"

Is what the piano dealer usually says when substituting an inferior grade of piano for a well known make.

Plainly every merchant who offers pianos which he says are "just as good" as the E. Gabler & Bro. acknowledges the Gabler as a standard.

Plainly—if merchants worked as hard to sell the standard as the "just as good" instruments there would be many more homes graced by pianos possessing true musical worth.

The Gabler piano has been made in New York continuously since 1854. It has won the strongest endorsements from musicians and art critics and in all lines it is known as a standard. There is no "just as good," for the Ernst Gabler & Brother stands in a class triumphant.

Remember we cheerfully recommend any piano in our warehouse as the standards of the five distinct grades of pianos, namely—High Grade, Popular Priced, Commercial, Legitimate Stencil, Etc.

church, held an enjoyable monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Myers. Games and music followed the regular business and refreshments were served at the close of the evening. The following were present: Violet Johnson, Ruth Farley, Esther Imhoff, Louise Watson, Ivan Metzler, Oscar Carlson, Eugene Johnson, Clyde Smith, Arthur Chapman, Fred Reynolds, Naomi Smith, Gilbert Berry, Clarence Nygren, Bertha Chapman, Edward Dordge, Alice Chase, Norma Chase, Margorie Swearingen, Thel Van Zile, Marion Dordge, Ina Johnson, Elvera Berglund, Johanna Imhoff, Anna Kjellman, Lorena Smith.

A royal welcome was extended this week to Captain B. W. Olson of the Alliance, and his bride, by their many Coos Bay friends. The couple were married in Portland Saturday afternoon, the bride being Miss Veronica Ley and the Rev. Father Medevitt the officiating clergyman. Mrs. Olson had visited Coos Bay several times previously. Numerous presents were received by the couple here, one of the most notable being a fine cut glass water set presented by North Bend friends through Mr. and Mrs. Tom James.

What's Your Birth Month. If a girl is born in January she will be a prudent housewife, given to melancholy, but good-tempered. If in February, a humane and affectionate wife and tender mother. If in March, a frivolous chatterbox, somewhat given to quarrelling. If in April, inconstant, not intelligent, but likely to be good looking. If in May, handsome and likely to be happy. If in June, impetuous, will marry early, and be frivolous. If in July, passably handsome, but with a sulky temper. If in August, amiable and practical and likely to marry rich. If in September, discreet, affable, and much liked. If in October, pretty and coquetish and likely to be unhappy. If in November, liberal, kind, and of a mild disposition. If in December, well-proportioned, fond of novelty, and extravagant.

If a man is poor, it is observed much sooner when he begins to show signs of insanity than if he is rich.

"Yes, I like your furnishings, old man," remarked a Millcomea visitor to W. F. McKee after they had looked over the club, "but there's one piece of furniture that casts reflections on you." "What do you mean? What is it?" McKee asked somewhat indignantly. "Oh, keep cool," the visitor answered, "I merely referred to the mirror."
