The policy of the Coos Bay Times will be Republican in politics, with the independence of which President Roosevelt is the leading exponent.

APPRECIATE EXTRA
ISSUED BY THE TIMES

Early this morning, The Times issued an "extra" giving in detail the results of yesterday's election. It was impossible to distribute them outside of the business sections of Marshfield and North Bend, but they were picked up rapidly, several hundred being sold within an hour or so.

THE RESULT.

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT was elected president of the United States yesterday by an overwhelming majority. The American people have once more emphatically demonstrated their faith and fealty in the men and measures of the Republican party. At this writing indications are that Taft's majority will be even greater than Roosevelt's was four years ago. This remarkable result comes as a surprise. While there has been general confidence in the triumph of Taft, that it would be so complete and sweeping was not anticipated.

This result comes as the culmination of an unusual campaign, in some respects one of the most remarkable in the history of the American Republic. In some of its features it puzzled the politicians. The apparent lack of interest in the discussion of the issues indicated apathy, but now we know it was merely the common sense of the American people in refusing to be disturbed after having firmly fixed their decision in their own minds. They refused to become excited with the deluge of debate, bluff, buncombe and burdensome jawwork in overwhelming flood. They recognized in Taft the worthy and legitimate successor to the present White House incumbent. President Roosevelt has made the office of president the position of real power in the republic. To fill this place acceptably requires a man of the same standards and stamina as Roosevelt and the people were quick to recognize him in William Howard Taft. In public utterance and private expression, he disclosed a stubborn adherence to certain old-fashioned standards of honor and honesty that went straight to the hearts of the people.

The greatest encouragement in this verdict of the American people is its renewal of their dependable quality and character in every crisis. An appeal to the hard common sense of the people was never made in vain and never will be.

INDEPENDENTS
BEAT SCHOOL

Marshfield High School Football Team Lost Yesterday By Score of 7 to 6.

Now sing a song of football, a college full of cheers.
What did you do with my eyebrow?
Where is the rest of my ears?
The trainer's on the side line with pockets full of salve;
The captain's in the hospital, punctured at the calve.
Fullback's got concussion, halfback broke a rib;
Two-and-twenty faces all fractured at the jib.
The quarterback went way back to mend a broken thigh.
The center's got the guard down gouging out his eye.
The tackle tried to buck the line while offering up a prayer,
And in a mass of human fragments he climbed the Golden Stair.
Yes, sing a song of football; and cheer, ye students, cheer—
The doctors all are on the job and the football season's here.

The Marshfield High School football team suffered its first defeat at the hands of the Independents yesterday. Every year, the graduates and others have challenged and as often been defeated by the High School teams. Yesterday, the High School team was beaten before a small crowd by the close score of 7 to 6.

The game opened with everything seemingly in favor of the school players. They had scored a touchdown and kicked goal within four minutes after the kickoff. But that was only burst of speed they showed. The Independents held them afterwards and outplayed them on most every point. Before the first half was finished the Independents scored a safety against the High School on a fumble. The ball was on the High School 5 yard line and in punting, the ball struck a player and bounded backward over the line. Eric Bolt, a high school player, fell on it and saved a touchdown. In the second half, the Independents scored a touchdown on a thirty-yard run by Hansen. The ball was kicked out to the 25 yard line and caught by Johnson, who failed at goal.

A decision shortly before this play gave the Independents a decided advantage, which had it been decided according to the rules, might have kept the Independents from scoring. From the High School 45-yard line, the Independents caught a punt and made a return punt, the ball going out of bounds on the 30-yard line. The referee allowed the Independents to retain the ball after giving them an unfair advantage of the 20-yard punt. Shortly after this, the thirty-yard run was made but the High School was unable to score in the nine minutes left for play. Johnson, of the Independents, made a number of good breaks through the High School line for gains of ten to twenty yards. Gulovson made some good gains for the Independents, as well. Neither side played good football, and neither team has had apparently any coaching this fall.

Score—Touchdowns; Rasmussen, Hansen (Independents); goal, Hansen (High School), Safety-Bolt.

The lineup of the two teams was about the same as announced previously.

MACK EXPLAINS THEIR DEFEAT

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN DECLARES THAT BRYAN MADE MAGNIFICENT DESPITE MISREPRESENTATION — WILL CONTINUE FIGHT.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Declaring the Democratic party is more united than in many years and that Bryan was defeated by what he claims was misrepresentation to the effect that Bryan's election would hurt the business interests, Chairman Mack issued the following statement in part: "There is not much for me to say and no apologies to make relative to the victory of the Republican party. Bryan made the most magnificent fight ever waged by a candidate. His party was made the victim of misrepresentation, a misrepresentation that Democratic success would retard business interests. That was of course an argument without foundation. It is my intention to continue the headquarters in Buffalo and in Washington and the next four years to keep in touch with the leaders of all the states and to promulgate Democratic principles and Democratic thought by the printing of literature and aid the leaders of the party in fighting high tariff which in all probabilities, the Republicans will continue notwithstanding their promise to revise it. I am supported by the members of the National committee, the state chairmen and other leaders all over the country."

ROOSEVELT AND SON
VOTE EARLY YESTERDAY

By Associated Press.
OYSTER BAY, Nov. 4.—On what in all probabilities is his last trip to his home town while he holds the office of President of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt returned to this little village to cast his vote for W. H. Taft as his final act to support his warm personal friend, Mrs. Roosevelt and the Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., accompanied him. Theodore, Jr., cast his first ballot. A large crowd was at the station to welcome the party. In their usual custom they formed in line and passed before the president, and shook his hands, many presenting bouquets of flowers. Later in the morning, President Roosevelt cast ballot No. 141 and his son No. 142. The President patted his son on the shoulder after he voted. President and Mrs. Roosevelt started on a special train for Washington soon afterwards.

HITCHCOCK CONGRATULATES.

Republican Chairman Wires Taft and Sherman.
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Chairman Hitchcock has wired congratulatory messages to Taft and Sherman. He says Taft's majority will be greater than Roosevelt's four year ago.

ALL VOTE FOR
TAFT IN TWO PLACES

(By Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—The first precinct in Los Angeles county to report is located at Santa Monica and has but one vote registered. It was cast for Taft.
Complete returns from Corona, a North Island precinct, near San Diego gives Taft 2.
The same precinct in 1904 gave Roosevelt 2.
