FINANCIAL

STRENGTH

In a bank lies, first, in the ability and experience of its officers.
 "The men behind the gun;" second, its board of directors who advise with and direct the officers; and third, the Capital.
LIBERALITY—In a bank is its willingness to furnish funds to depositors to assist them in carrying on their legitimate business. Our motto is:
"STRONG AND LIBERAL"—Look us up and if you find us deserving, give us your business.

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

Events of Interest As Told By The Sentinel.

There is early prospect of a social club similar to that at Marshfield being instituted in Coquille. Some of our prominent business and professional men have the matter under discussion.

Mrs. N. Peachey, a lady canvasser who has been sojourning at the Bledsoe house, departed overland Wednesday evening for eastern Oregon in answer to a message announcing the serious illness of her sister and entire family with typhoid fever. She traveled by horseback from the bay.

E. E. Johnson, of the Johnson Lumber Co., came home from a business visit to San Francisco last Saturday. He reports the lumber market to have a decided upward tendency, but looks for better improvement after the questions of election are settled.

From the Humboldt: (California) Beacon we learn that Chas. J. Dally, formerly a resident of Bandon but now of Fortuna, Cal., was operated upon recently at a hospital there for internal trouble. Mr. Dally rallied successfully from the operation, but for a time his condition was precarious.

Walter A. Linegar and wife, after a few weeks' sojourn with the gentleman's brother, Postmaster A. F.
 Linegar, departed Friday evening for Clatskanie, Columbia county, Oregon. There Mr. Linegar will take charge of an extensive creamery business and perhaps make his permanent home.

Misses Augusta Christensen and Ida Bonnicksen of Ferndale, Cal., arrived on the Plant last week. Miss Bonnicksen came up to visit her sister, Mrs. James Jacobson, who had the misfortune to break one of her legs a few weeks ago. Miss Christensen will visit her sister, Mrs.
 Frank Schroeder, of Norway.

C. H. Banning, formerly in the grocery business here, arrived Wednesday evening from his present home near Colfax, Washington. The gentleman comes on a flying business trip and expects to retrace his steps about the first of the week. He states that he has leased a farm of 200 acres near Colfax, and that he and his family are very much pleased with their new location.

The Gold Beach Globe, commenting on a recent article in the Sentinel's columns that Curry county will have a Board of Equalization this year the same as usual. The Globe further states that County Clerk

Smith and Assessor Al. Mac Gold Beach were over with the land fraud trials, and the trial was understood as accordingly it cheerfully appointed the gentlemen.

Rev. John Thomas was to a pastorate in Portland late Baptist Convention held burg, and will in consequreturn to his former field of Bandon. His wife departed of the last Sunday to in the Coos Bay hospital. The friends of the estimable this city and at Bandon will worked to put on a steamer between Riverport and Eureka ing it in that city.

And still another meat said to be planned for Coquiport now has it that Geo-the well-known stockbuyer, establish himself in business at tion on East Second street.
 King already has a flourishket at Marshfield.

Tice Wagner was down to Wednesday from his ranch South Fork of the river, be-beyond Myrtle Point. He
