

ELATED OVER TAFT VICTORY

Dr. Dix Says It Cleared Commercial Atmosphere—S. P. Work Near Drain.

"Residents of every city and town I visited and every business man I met while away were highly elated over Taft's election," remarked Dr. George E. Dix who has just returned from a trip to Spokane, Wash., and other northern points. "In addition to the expressed elation, the result of the election appears to have cleared the commercial atmosphere and business in all lines, they tell me, is picking up in wonderful way. A duplication of the prosperity of a year or so ago is apparently expected by all and everybody appears to be striving to do their share in bring it back.

"I noticed that near Drain, the Southern Pacific has a force of men changing the public highway so that it will not encroach on the right of way selected by the company for the Drain-Coos Bay line. When the right of way for the Drain-Coos Bay line was obtained, the company used part of the public highway at several points and the understanding was that the railroad would construct a new highway at these places. It is now doing this, showing that it is evidently determined to retain the right of way for the proposed line.

"At Spokane, report is current in railroad circles that the Northwestern, a Vanderbilt line, is about to take over the Northern Pacific. It was reported a while back that Harriman had obtained control of the Northwestern but this proved unfounded. Considerable credence is given to the latest report about the Northwestern and Northern Pacific as the two lines would work well together. However, it would mean that the Northwestern would use the northern route to get to the coast."

BIG CATCHES MADE.

Fine Run of Salmon On the Coquille the Last Few Weeks.

COQUILLE, Ore., Nov. 12.—The silverside season for 1908, which closes November 20, was a successful one and the fishermen and canneries are rejoicing over the large catch. The season opened with only a small run, and it was feared that the pack would be smaller than last season, though for the past six weeks the river has been teeming with fish and the canneries were swamped for a time, but they put a limit of fifty fish a day to each boat which has made it possible for them to can all of the fish which have been delivered.

The late rains caused a small freshet in the upper river and the waters have remained muddy ever since, so that the fishermen have been fishing daytime and only a little night fishing has been done for the past few weeks.

It has been many years since there has been as large a run of silversides in the Coquille and an old time fisherman says that it reminded him of the early days when the river was teeming with fish and that in all probabilities there will be a small catch for the next two years.

R. D. HUME IS TAKEN ILL SUDDENLY AT HOME

Wife Is Recalled While En Route From Wedderburn to Frisco — Was Going to Winter Home.

Miss Margaret Watterson arrived in Marshfield yesterday from Wedderburn on her way to San Francisco. Miss Watterson is a member of the R. D. Hume household and was accompanied by Mrs. Hume as far as Bandon. On arriving at the latter place, Mrs. Hume received a telephone message from Wedderburn stating that Mr. Hume had suffered a very serious attack of illness and requesting her return to Wedderburn. Mrs. Hume was en route to her home at Piedmont, California, after having spent the summer at their Curry county home.

Members of the crew of the Osprey which arrived today from Wedderburn say Mr. Hume is quite ill, being in a stupor part of the time. He has been troubled for years with kidney disease. The Osprey made a quick trip down and back, having left here Monday.

OREGONIAN IS STUNG.

Judge Lowell Speaks Plainly Regarding Statement No. 1.

PENDLETON, Ore., Nov. 12.—Although the United States senate is one ambition in life for Judge Stephen A. Lowell, of this city, Judge Lowell declines to be elected through broken pledges or disregarded laws in the following stirring letter to the Oregonian of Portland:

"Pendleton, Or., Nov. 6, 1908. "To the Editor:—I notice in your issue of this morning is an article discussing the senatorship, mention of my name as among several republicans who may possibly receive consideration at the coming session of the legislature. I do not know that the matter requires any attention, but I desire to go on record while the fight is young and to say that while it is the ambition of my life to represent Oregon in the federal senate, I do not care to reach that high station over a pathway of broken pledges or disregarded laws and I want neither silence nor word nor act of mine to influence any member of the legislative assembly to violate his conscience or his word.

"I opposed Statement No. 1 in the primary campaign with such vigor and intelligence as I could command, believing it unwise, impolitic and foreign to the form of government under which we live, but it is now the law of the state, made such by the majority vote of the people, and every law should be obeyed.

"I speak only for myself, and do not assume to be the conscience of the party or the mentor of the legislature.

Respectfully,
"S. A. LOWELL."

TO INSPECT SOUTH AIDS.

Captain Pond to Visit Coos Bay and Other Points.

PORTLAND, November 12.—Captain Charles F. Pond is preparing to make an inspection of the aids to navigation south of the Columbia River. He will visit Coos Bay, Umpqua, Hecta Head, Coquille and Yaquina. He expects to be absent 10 days. The captain has just returned from a trip to the mouth of the Columbia River, where he was inspecting the beacons being built on Sand Island to serve as range lights. He states they will be ready for operation in the next few days.

NOVELTY WRECKAGE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Simpson Lumber Company's Schooner Is Being Burned Near Mouth of Ten Mile Creek.

The Novelty, the lumber schooner of the Simpson Lumber Company, which was driven ashore and wrecked near the mouth of Ten Mile Creek about a year ago, is being burned. The wrecked vessel has been lying on the sand and whether someone set fire to the hull to obtain the bolts and iron work, etc., or whether it was started by tramps is not known. Most of the removable parts were taken from the hull soon after the wreck.

CAPT. EDWARD'S VIEW.

Coos River Man Reviews the Telephone Situation.

To the Editor: I note in your issue of today the accident to one of the bear hounds belonging to E. H. Harriman, though perhaps there is nothing strange about this, your comment that "a telephone message notified Col. Grimes of the bear hounds injuries," etc., is certainly mystifying as I was unaware that the wireless telephone had as yet reached that degree of perfection and as we, along the river, have labored in vain for years past to get telephonic connection with Marshfield through the former company but have met with no result other than that "they would take the matter up" which they are doubtless still doing.

The present company have made us similar promises but as yet we have had no evidence of much progression along this line until your comment informed us that the line is in and working. Good! any similar news will be thankfully received by all residents along the river.

Yours for further progress,
C. E. EDWARDS.

A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

Each recurring attack of rheumatism makes the disease harder to control, but the fact that it is not in itself dangerous causes people to neglect it, awaiting a change or a settled condition of the weather for relief. It is often only after the disease has become so serious as to interfere with business that the sufferer will seek more than temporary relief. Chamberlain's Liniment is a remedy for rheumatism which any one can apply. It not only gives prompt relief from pain, but in a large majority of cases it brings about permanent results. The first application will surprise and delight you as immediate relief is almost sure to follow. For sale by JOHN PREUSS.
