The policy of the Coos Bay Times will be Republican in politics, with the independence of which President Roosevelt is the leading exponent.

UNIFY THE ELECTIONS.

The tendency of the day, in every state in the Union, is to the unification of the electoral work and budget; the simplifying and cheapening of the processes and costs of the franchise, and the merging of the system to a single day and a single bill of costs.

As things stand now we are afflicted from three to six times a year with these unescapable demands upon the public conscience, purse and time; and there is no real reason why the whole thing may not be safely simplified in every relation; nor any obstacle in the way that an enlightened public disposition may not overcome.

THE FARMERS' ELECTRIC LINE.

The farmers of Walla Walla and Columbia County have practically completed arrangements for construction of an electric line from Dayton, Wash., through Walla Walla to Wallula and Pasco.

Yet no one would expect even the most grasping and short-sighted property-owners to hold up the Walla Walla and Dayton road for extravagant prices for right-of-way, especially when it is noted that, at the initial meeting of the enterprise, the support of 150 farmers was assured.

These independent roads are usually thrown into new regions where there are no railroad facilities whatever and the advantages of the road are so obvious that the people benefited are perfectly willing to pay a stiff rate, which, even though it be double the rate charged on estab-

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING. No man ever sank under the burden of the day. It is when tomorrow's burden is added to the burden of today that the weight is more than a man can bear.

GEO. MACDONALD. Two Men. There were two men beneath the sun, one lacked and one had much.

The other man, as men count wealth, had none, or next to naught; just trifles, such as wit and health, nothing that might be bought.

There were two men beneath the sun, one lacked and one had much, and there is no real reason why the whole thing may not be safely simplified in every relation.

Whenever we hear of two partners who get along, we cannot help thinking that both of them must be good fellows.

The Lost Found.

Edyth—I lost my head when Jack proposed last night. Grayce—Indeed! Edyth—But I found it on his shoulder a minute later.

Whenever we hear of two partners who get along, we cannot help thinking that both of them must be good fellows.

In a time of sorrow never make the mistake understanding the comfort to be found in the Old Rut. Preachers and friends do not say anything about it in their prayers and words of sympathy, but the fact remains that there is no grief-killer like the Old Rut.

An elephant's burden is from 1,500 to 2,500 pounds, and that of a horse from 200 to 500 pounds.
