What is home without a mother?
 You've seen plastered everywhere;
 "What is home without a gas range?"
 Isn't printed—still, it's there.
 Or should be, "mother" will admit it,
 For it's "mother" ought to know;
 An hour saved for sleep in the morning
 Certainly "helps some," doesn't it, though?

BORN.
 SMITH—To Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Coos River, a daughter.
 City Council Tonight. — The Marshfield city council will meet tonight to take up several matters of importance. Some street improvement contracts will probably come up.
 Start Tobacco Store.—Al. C. Hefler and Herman Cordes have opened a cigar, tobacco and confectionery store in the quarters on North Front street, formerly occupied by the Fixup Store. They have opened club rooms in the rear of their new quarters.

Let Mail Contract. — The United States Postoffice Department will let the contract December 1, for carrying the mail between North Bend and Lakeside, the Ten Mile post-office, December 1, for a period of one year. The contract calls for a three-time-a-week service.
 Boats From Frisco.—The Fifield and the M. F. Plant will sail from San Francisco today for Coos Bay, according to telegrams to their agents here. They should reach here Thursday afternoon or early Friday morning and will probably sail for Frisco Saturday.

Seventh Day Adventist.—W. C. Ward, an Evangelist of the Seventh Day Adventists, who has been assigned to the Coos county district, arrived in Marshfield yesterday. He will make his headquarters here and will endeavor to promote the interests of that denomination and enlarge its membership in this section.
 McCann Will Return.—One of the wireless messages sent to Mayor E. E. Straw soon after the opening of the Marshfield wireless station was from Peter Belcher of Eureka, Cal., the partner of W. O. McCann, who is just completing the bituminous rock paving here. The message follows: "Am glad the paving company's work is satisfactory. Bill (W. O. McCann), will appear again in the spring"—Peter Belcher, Eureka, Cal.

DIES IN TACOMA.
 Miss Rena Hampton of Coquille Valley Succumbs.
 B. E. Hampton of Myrtle Point, arrived in the city yesterday by the steamer Alliance. He was summoned to Tacoma about two weeks ago by the illness of his daughter, Rena, who died in that city last Thursday after an illness lasting several weeks. The deceased was first taken with brain fever which later developed into spinal meningitis. Miss Hampton was about 22 years of age and left Myrtle Point last March for Tacoma. The remains were shipped to Norway where the funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment will be in the Norway cemetery.

Steamer BREAKWATER sails from Coos Bay for Portland SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, at 8 A. M.
 500 MEN WANTED.—To eat at the Melrose restaurant.

WELL-KNOWN MARSHFIELD MAN Succumbs to Long Illness at Mercy Hospital.
 Alex. Lund, a well-known resident of Marshfield, died at Mercy hospital in North Bend this morning after a long illness. He had been a resident of Marshfield for many years.
 For several years, poor health has prevented him being active in business. He is survived by a wife and several children.
 Mr. Lund's quiet, unassuming way won him the friendship of practically everyone with whom he came in contact and many are the expressions of regret over his demise.
 The funeral arrangements have not been announced.
