What is home without a mother?
 You've seen plastered everywhere;
 "What is home without a gas range?"
 Isn't printed—still, it's there.
 Or should be, "mother" will admit it,
 For it's "mother" ought to know;
 An hour saved for sleep in the morning Certainly "helps some," doesn't it, though?

Committee to Meet.—The charter count of being able to do the work work.

CURRY COUNTY NEWS.

Events of Interest As Told By The Radium.

Mrs. R. D. Hume, who had all plans arranged for a trip to New Zealand, where her mother is very sick, got only as far as Bandon when apprised by telephone message of her husband becoming suddenly seriously ill and hastened right back.

Mr. Rennie, who has been prospecting for coal near Agate beach on the property of Mr. Hume, visited the workings on Sunday accompanied by Messrs. Barcus and Mc-Gaw. While the coal is an excellent quality of bituminous it remains to be seen whether it will develop a vein of workable character. It has been used in the fire and pronounced by experts to be fully equal to the best Cumberland.
 Should the prospect develop to sufficient extent it would give this section a great impetus as with plenty of coal near at hand it would be possible to work the black sands to advantage.

There are rumors afloat that a meeting of the board of equalization has been held lately. On the advertised date for holding the meeting, owing to the absence of the assessor, there could be no legal meeting, and some who desired to be heard did not go before the bobtail board. The latest meeting was held as a star chamber proceeding and no notice being given, parties who desired to be heard were not aware of the action of the board until they heard incidentally that the assessor had returned to his home. It is doubtful if such action is lawful, but as the gang who run the affairs of the county are a law unto themselves as well as for all the meek and lowly of the county, probably everything will be considered regular.

 nesday, November 19, to attend the he has fully recovered, news that will be gratifying to his many ghtful outing on the Sehlbrede

 Mr. Reid demonstrated that they had not forgotten how to do real work—a well, several pieces of road and other improvements indicating the results of their labors.

EMINENT PIANIST GETS COSTLY PIANO

L. H. BOLL Secures Magnificent Weber Piano From Eilers Piano House.

What is claimed to be the finest and most costly piano ever shipped to the Pacific coast has just been secured by L. H. Boll, the well-known local pianist, from Eilers Piano House, Portland.

It is the famous Weber make, which is today acknowledged by the most prominent European and American artists to be the world's best piano. The Weber Mr. Boll secured is an exact duplicate of the one which captivated Paderewski, and which he used exclusively in his last triumphant tour over the United States.

The only difference is in the case, instead of the conventional dark color used purposely so the mars and scratches which it receives in a strenuous tour are less discern-able, the Weber Piano selected by Mr. Boll is what is known as an "Ari Style," being in the very finest and most costly crotch mahogany procurable.

The piano is truly a work of art, for not only does the case exemplify the highest type of perfection, but the tone of the instrument, that peculiar Weber tone which has won for it the highest esteem of the world's greatest artists, is there in all its wealth and beauty.

HUGH McLAIN RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP

Says That Business Conditions Generally Are Improving But That Coos Bay Suits Him Best.

Hugh McLain returned last evening from a few weeks visit with his parents in Kansas City and with relatives at other points. He accompanied Mrs. McLain who was enroute to her old home in Pennsylvania for an extended visit.

"Business conditions throughout the country appear to be rapidly improving," said Mr. McLain this morning. "The prospects are for a very prosperous year. However, I am mighty glad to get back to Coos Bay. While there has been a great growth in Kansas City since I left there twenty years ago, I am glad to I came to Oregon and no place looks as good to me. Mrs. McLain's health has been improving rapidly since she left here. She has gained about ten pounds in weight and is no longer troubled by any ailment.
 She will probably remain away all winter."
