TO GOD GIVE THANKS.

O come, let every heart prepare A thankful song of praise To Him who leads us by His hand And governs all our ways; He bids the sun majestic rise; He brings the show'rs that fall; He makes the earth to bud and bloom And yield her fruit for all, The summer grain is gathered in, Its harvest time is o'er, And golden autumn spreads again A full and plenteous store; The hours of long and patient toil Receive a bright reward, And they who sowed, with those who reap, Together bless the Lord, O day, our veteran sires revered And gladly set a day apart, To thank the Lord for mercies past, So dear to every heart; O day, when social ties renewed, Proclaim to all His love, The songs that with Thy light ascend Shall fill the courts above. —Selected.

THANKSGIVING.

Marshfield and Coos Bay and Coos county generally have every reason for a grateful and heartfelt Thanksgiving this year. Marshfield has been unusually and particularly blessed and favored, the city is growing magnificently; business along all lines is good; everything points to continued prosperity, there is no reason why the people of Coos Bay should not be grateful for blessings received for the well-founded hope of more blessings in the future. Every man who can should eat his own turkey Thursday; every man who is able to buy two turkeys should see that his less fortunate neighbor does not miss his turkey. Thanksgiving Day is hallowed; it should be rightly appreciated and observed.

OUR COUNTY'S TWO HARBORS.

The enterprising business men of Coos Bay are wide awake, and there is a good attendance at their commercial meetings, at which places they show a disposition to appreciate the advantages they enjoy, and they are farsighted enough to see that the "powers that be" will help those who help themselves, and the Sentinel takes the liberty to predict that those people will succeed in getting an appropriation from congress this winter that will be adequate to make a good beginning on the new project to deepen their harbor so that even war vessels can cross the Coos Bay bar. Such an improvement would please every fair-minded person in Coos county, and if it is possible for the proprietor of this paper to aid in bringing about such a condition he will be pleased to assist in that grand work. First, because it will be a great benefit to every resident of the county; and, second, because the people living about the bay are entitled to a harbor second to none south of Puget Sound, because they have gone into their pockets and have willingly borne the expense needed to accomplish such results. They are well aware that as their commercial facilities increase, their real estate will advance in value, and their cities will build up. Coos county is fortunate in the fact that nature has provided two harbors, each being essential to the prosperity of the whole country; but outside of Bandon the prosperous farmers of this favored valley, and many business men of the Coquille, do not realize that to succeed in this life they must be wide awake and watch every opportunity to better conditions, even if it is necessary to put up a little money to promote their own interests, as well as those of the community. The enterprising people of Bandon have started a piling jetty that has already improved the harbor, and for that reason it is being arranged to

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING. It is a greater compliment to be trusted, than to be loved. MACDONALD

Dear, though you wander over peace and passion, Searching the days to prove yourself untrue, You can not hide me. Still, in my own fashion, I shall come back to you.

In other eyes, on lips that bid you doubt me, In music, in the little things we knew, In your blind prayers for happiness without me— I shall come back to you.

God keep you safe through all the ache of learning, Through all the wrong you need to be and do, Till in the wise joy of unfeared yearning I shall come back—I shall come back to you! —Selected.

MY GRAFTONY.

To live content with all means; to seek affluence rather than poverty and desigment rather than labor; to be wealthy not respectable seem wealthy not rich, to scheme hard, think quietly, talk gently act greedily—this is to be my graftony.

THE GRAFTER.

The chauffeur doesn't always know what he is driving at. A man naturally rises in his own estimation when he settles down.

A fellow feels that he doesn't cut much ice when a girl treats him coldly.

It seems much easier to go from bad to worse than from good to better.

It's all well enough to take the bull by the horns if the bull will stand for it.

Life: "Everything comes to him who waits," mused the man in a restaurant; "but it comes cold."

When it comes to orthography, the only way to please everybody is to let people spell to suit themselves.

Children come into the world heavily handicapped because they are not permitted to select their own parents.

Tommy—"Pop, what is a criminal?" Tommy's Pop—"A criminal, my son, is a person who is found out."

After a man has moved heaven and earth to acquire a certain thing he is surprised to discover how little he cares for it.

Now that election is over it is pertinent to remind the young ladies that less than two months of leap year remains.

A mathematician announces that the apple crop will make 600,000,000 pies. But only a small percentage of them will be edible.

We don't care so much for an automobile, but we would like to have the recipe of the man who got into an Arkansas City bank for $50,000.

A dairyman's daughter in Illinois was drowned in a tank of milk intended for the market. Did the local papers say she "found a watery grave?"

put on vessels large enough to carry coal, and the coal mines are making extra efforts to develop their holdings. Now those enterprising people at Bandon having taxed themselves highly to accomplish what they have, the people of the whole valley should contribute to finish the new jetty and send some one to Washington as a delegate to the rivers and harbors congress to work with the three delegates from Coos Bay. —Coquille Sentinel.
