CITIZENS' LEAGUE CANDIDATES

PLATFORM OF CARL ALBRECHT AND THOMAS COKE.

Editor Coos Bay Times: I notice your remarks in the Saturday evening Times regarding views and standing of candidates for municipal offices, and in order that the voters of this city may know where I am at will say.

If I am elected for councilman on December 1st, I will stand for all judicious improvements of the city, bearing in mind at all times and seeing to it that the property holders who pay for the same, get one hundred cents worth of improvements for a dollar.

I will stand for reduction in the running expenses of the city government and increase of its revenue. With the view of reducing the city's debt without bonding its property, I will stand for paying the old city warrants first or in other words commence to pay from the right end, with a view of reestablishing the credit of the city, raising the value of its warrants, and giving everybody a square deal.

I am in favor of listening to the firemen's wants, and of improving the service by procuring such additional hose and other apparatus necessary for proper fire protection.

I am decidedly against bonding the city for current expenses. I am in favor of open and public meetings of the board, and not in favor of granting any franchise affecting the rights of the city except after due notice to the citizens and with the sanction of the general public.

CARL ALBRECHT, THOMAS COKE.

JOHN W. BUTLER'S PLATFORM.

Editor Coos Bay Times: Having received the nomination for city recorder at the regular caucus, I desire to say: That while I have lived on Coos Bay the best portion of my life, I have been attending to my own business, and never mixed up in politics, but since I am up for a public office, I deem it my duty to the voters of Marshfield to tell them whether I can fill the office if elected, for which I have been nominated.

Will say I am qualified to perform the duties of the office without the assistance of a deputy; and if elected I will see that the duties of the office are properly performed.

JOHN W. BUTLER.
